STARTLING.

FORESEES TROUBLE.

President Gets Out Big Stick.

Takes Early Part in Expected Big Strike of Railroad Employees.

Intimates That Corporations May Cut Wages for Evil Reasons.

One of the Most Startling of A. Emanations from White House.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Serious industrial disputes in prospect were in the mind of President Roosevelt when he wrote a letter to the Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday which was made public today. He says that information has reached him that on account of the enactment of drastic laws by Congress and by the various State Legislatures, it is regarded as necessary by railroad companies to reduce the pay of employés. He points out that under the law either party may demand the service of the chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Commissioner of Labor as a board of conciliation.

He suggests, therefore, that the Interstate Commerce Commission make such an investigation as will enable it to furnish data concerning wage conditions on various railroads that may relate directly or indirectly to the possible impending controversy.

The text of the President's letter follows:

"To the Interstate Commerce Commission:

"I am informed that a number of railroad companies have served notice of a proposed reduction of wages on their employés. One of them, the Louisville and Nashville, in announcing the reduction, states that the drastic laws inimical to the interests of the railroads that have in the past year or two been enacted by Congress and the State Legislatures are largely or chiefly responsible for the conditions requiring the reduction.

INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES.

"Under such circumstances, it is possible the public may soon be confronted by serious industrial disputes, and the law provides that in such case either party may demand the services of your chairman and of the Commissioner of Labor as a board of mediation and conciliation.

"These reductions in wages may be warranted, or they may not. As to this, the public, which is a party, can form no judgment without a more complete knowledge of the essential facts and real merits of the case than it now has or than it can possibly obtain from the special pleadings certain to be put forth by each side in case their dispute should bring about serious interruption to traffic.

"If the reduction in wages is due to natural causes, the loss of business being such that the burden should be, and is, equitably distributed between capitalists and wage workers, the public and Congress should know it, and if it is caused by misconduct in the past, financial or other operations of any railroad, then everybody should know it, especially if the excuse of unfriendly legislation is advanced as a method of covering up past business misconduct by the railroad managers or as a justification for failure to treat fairly the wage-earning employés of the company.

"Moreover, an industrial conflict between a railroad corporation and its employés offers peculiar opportunities to any small number of evil-disposed persons to destroy life and property, and foment public disorder.

ASKS INVESTIGATION.

"Of course, if life, property and public order are endangered, prompt and drastic measures for their protection becomes the first plain duty. All other duties then become subordinate to the preservation of the public peace, and the real merits of the original controversy are necessarily lost from view. This vital consideration should be ever kept in mind by all law-abiding and far-sighted members of labor organizations.

"It is sincerely to be hoped, therefore, that any wage controversy that may rise between the railroads and their employés may find a peaceful solution through the methods of conciliation and arbitration already provided for by Congress which have proven so effective during the past year.

"To this end the commission should be in a position to have available for any board of conciliation or arbitration relevant data pertaining to such carriers as may become involved in industrial disputes. Should conciliations fail to effect a settlement, and arbitration be rejected, accurate information should be available in order to develop a properly informed public opinion.

"I therefore ask you to make such investigation, both of your records and by any means at your command, as will enable you to furnish data concerning such conditions obtaining on the Louisville and Nashville and any other roads as may relate, directly or indirectly, to the real merits of a possible impending controversy.

SEEK SUCCESSOR TO EVANS.

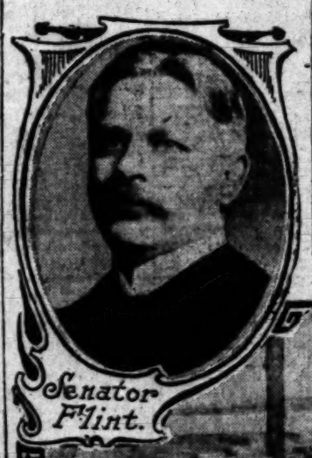
Commander of Fleet to Retire Soon and Officials Wonder What Admiral Will Finish Voyage.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Beyond the statement that Rear-Admiral Robley D. Evans will probably be precluded from commanding the Atlantic battleship fleet on its return voyage from the Pacific by reason of his retirement on account of age, August 18 next, the Navy Department officials decline to make any predictions as to who will be in command of the fleet on the homeward voyage.

With the exception of Rear-Admiral Sperry, who is not in robust health, none of the fleet admirals with Rear-Admiral Evans has much more than a year of active service in prospect, a fact which will probably operate to prevent their assignment to the supreme command.

The President, it is said, has not yet made a choice, but among the officers regarded as particularly eligible as Rear-Admiral Evans's successor are Rear-Admiral Uriel Sebree and Captains Wainwright, Schroeder, Potter and Sutherland, some of whom will obtain the rank of admiral very soon.



Senator Flint.

AMAZING.

SLY MOVE IS MENACE TO BIG FREE HARBOR.

Destiny Put in Hands of Railroads by Senator Flint's Resolution.

Local Friends of Project Stirred by Receipt of News of Movement to Permit Owners of East Basin Lands to Control Establishment of Lines—Fight of Protests Starts Today.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Senator Flint has introduced the following joint resolution, Senate No. 54, authorizing the Secretary of War to establish harbor lines in Wilmington Harbor, Cal.:

"Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, that, whenever requested by a majority of the owners of land abutting on and underlying the waters of the east basin of the inner harbor of San Pedro, otherwise known as Wilmington Harbor, Cal., the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to fix and establish pierhead and bulkhead lines, either or both, in said waters, beyond which no piers, wharves, bulkheads or other works shall be extended or deposits made, except under such regulations as may be prescribed from time to time by him."

This resolution was introduced on the 11th inst., was read twice, and then referred to the Committee on Commerce.

News of the introduction of this resolution—seemingly surrendering the control of the harbor to the Southern Pacific, Salt Lake and Interurban Railroad companies and the Bannings—and of the progress of the resolution in the Senate was received here with consternation yesterday by the friends of the people's harbor at San Pedro. Amazement was expressed that a measure so menacing to the future development of the harbor should have been presented at all and especially that it should have been permitted to go so far without the knowledge of the local men and organizations who have worked so zealously and so unselfishly for the good of the entire project.

The bug is in the majority frontage proposition. It seems fair and innocent on the face of it; but the majority frontage is owned by the railroad companies and the Bannings, beyond recall.

PEOPLE AROUSED.

Luckily for the harbor and the people, however, the text of the resolution has come to hand in time for stirring protest to be made to Congress. The matter is to be taken up with vigor at once by the harbor commission of the City of Los Angeles, of which George H. Stewart is chairman, and a meeting hastily called for this morning a campaign will be mapped out for the defeat of the resolution.

The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and various other bodies of this city, Wilmington and San Pedro will be aroused and Congress will be informed that, while the great desire is for the establishment of proper harbor lines, the plan proposed by Senator Flint does not meet the situation; in fact, that it would be of the greatest hindrance to harbor development.

As soon as a copy of the resolution was received here yesterday numerous telegrams were sent by prominent friends of the harbor to Senator Flint, informing him that his resolution is distasteful and urging him to withdraw it at once.

SURPRISED AT SENATOR.

The greatest surprise was expressed that the Senator, who has been over the ground many times and who has been in receipt of communications definitely outlining the desires of the commercial bodies, should have prepared a measure of this sweeping nature.

Should this resolution be adopted by Congress the establishment of harbor lines would be limited to the east basin; the west basin, in connection with which important projects already are mapped out, would be permitted to lie dormant. Nothing could be done in that basin without another act of Congress.

The resolution places the entire matter of harbor lines solely in the hands of the majority of the owners of land abutting on and underlying the waters of the east basin of the inner harbor, the majority owners being the several railroad and water transportation companies.

If these companies desired the fixing of harbor lines they could secure it through a request on the Secretary of War.

If they do not desire the harbor lines fixed they would be in a position to block that work for all time.

Furthermore, the majority of the owners could have the lines fixed for just such portion of the harbor as they might desire. They could develop a certain portion of the harbor, for instance, and prevent the development of any other part.

One great difficulty that would arise in the event of the adoption of Senator Flint's resolution, it is pointed out by a harbor expert, is that the east basin alone would be recognized by Congress as the principal project. Other portions would not be recognized in the future unless after great effort, another act were to be passed.

Again, the owners of the majority of the land abutting on or underlying the waters of the east basin might decide that they wanted no improvements; that they were satisfied with the facilities they possess in other portions of the harbor, where they have a monopoly of the wharf frontage.

Under the resolution they could refrain from requesting the Secretary of War to establish the harbor lines. Thus nothing at all would be done.

The resolution would have the effect of putting a stop to the agitation for the improvement of the west basin; the Southern Pacific and the Los Angeles Inter-Urban railways would be freed of the possible necessity of installing expensive drawbridges in their trestles across Wilmington Lagoon.

Installation of these drawbridges has been a large bone of contention on the part of these two transportation companies. They contended at the recent hearing conducted by the Board of Engineers, U.S.A., at San Pedro, that commerce did not warrant the improvement of the west basin, and that it would be unjust of the government to require the placing of the costly drawbridges.

Whatever may be the recommendation of the Board of Engineers, the resolution of Senator Flint, if adopted by Congress, would have the effect of putting an end to that controversy in the way the transportation companies would like to have it ended.

What is desired by the Harbor Commission, the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, the Wilmington and San Pedro public and semi-public organizations, and by various civic associations in Los Angeles, is to have the inner harbor lines established above the turning basin, taking in both the east and west basins. Anything short of this will not be acceptable. Wherefore Senator Flint's resolution has started an agitation that promises to open wide the entire inner harbor controversy once more and which will result in the sending of many hot protests to Washington.

The opening gun will be fired by the Los Angeles Harbor Commission this morning. The other bodies are expected to fall quickly into line and to take action that may smother the objectionable resolution.

BIG OIL DEAL CONSUMMATED

Associated Agrees to Purchase Independents' Output for Two Years.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BAKERSFIELD, Feb. 19.—An agreement involving oil valued at more than $7,000,000 has been reached by the Independent producers and the Associated Oil Company, by which the latter agrees to purchase the output of the independents in this district for a period of two years. The price a barrel during the first year will be 60½ cents; during the second year, 63 cents. The maximum quantity to be furnished a day is 16,000 barrels, and the minimum, 14,000 barrels. All over the maximum is to be marketed by the Associated at a price to be agreed upon.

SNOWBOUND.

TRAFFIC TIED UP.

Chicago in Grip of Icy Hand.

All Weather Bureau Records Broken When Snowfall Finally Ceases.

Many Trains Reported Stuck Throughout the Middle Western States.

Storm Is Sweeping Eastward, Leaving Woe and Rejoicing Behind.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Having brought death to ten persons in Chicago and its immediate vicinity, serious injuries to scores, and having tied up all kinds of traffic and transportation facilities with an icy hand, the worst storm of recent years finally abated this afternoon and hurried eastward on its course of destruction.

All records at the local weather bureau had been broken when the snow finally ceased falling. The official record shows a fall of 12 6-10 inches in twenty-four hours, as against an even twelves inches on February 12, 1896, the heaviest snowfall recorded in Chicago hitherto.

TEN DEATHS IN CITY.

The list of deaths caused by the storm was increased by eight today, making ten in all that had succumbed to the storm in various ways.

Business during the early hours of the day was practically suspended. The wind increased in velocity and the temperature gradually descended toward the zero mark.

"Double-headers" were the only trains that managed to reach the city and many suburbs were completely snow-bound.

TRAINS DELAYED.

The storm was general throughout the central-western States. From Detroit, Milwaukee, Indianapolis, Des Moines, and even St. Louis, reports of delay to railroad trains are being received here.

In Wisconsin the snow was accompanied by a gale of forty-five miles an hour and several trains in the northern part of the State are reported stalled.

Lake travel is simply out of the question, it being simply impossible for a vessel to live in the lake with the wind so high and the sea rolling as it is.

For the first time within the memory of the average person, trains on the steam roads inside the city limits were stalled by the veritable avalanche.

WORK FOR UNEMPLOYED.

But good came of it all, for it furnished employment to thousands of idle men, and one of the greatest armies of shovel and broom crusaders ever at work in Chicago was engaged all night long on street and rail battling with the element which quickly overcame all the progress made by the men.

While the city was enduring discomforts because of the storm, farmers of the West and Northwest were estimating with satisfaction the millions of dollars that will be added to the value of the year's wheat crop by the snow. The fall will furnish necessary moisture to the plants and protect them from the changeable weather of the spring.

A small riot resulted today when 900 men thronged about eager to secure temporary work cleaning the streets. N. J. Doherty, superintendent of streets, hired 500 of them, which augmented the force of street cleaners to 700 laborers. He assured the other 400

THE NAVY.

CALLAO EXPECTS WARSHIPS TODAY.

THOUSANDS OF PERUVIANS TO CHEER AMERICAN FLEET.

Government Proclaims Saturday a Holiday in Honor of Washington's Birthday and Orders Salute to the Stars and Stripes—Admiral Evans Still not Well.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LIMA (Peru) Feb. 19.—The American battleship fleet is expected to reach Callao about 8 o'clock tomorrow morning. Two wireless messages were received here today. The first conveyed the information that the fleet was then 224 miles from the port and the second, timed much later in the day, forwarded a message of thanks from Rear-Admiral Evans. He expressed his appreciation of the affectionate welcome by the Peruvian nation and the President.

Rear-Admiral Evans said he considered the Peruvian escort to Callao a great honor and thanked the government for its offer to transmit his messages to the Navy Department at Washington, but added that he had nothing at present to communicate.

The government has issued a decree making Saturday a holiday in honor of Washington's birthday and the Americans' visit, and it has ordered the Peruvian warships to salute the American flag at noon.

The banks and commercial houses have decided to close tomorrow, and great crowds are expected to greet the fleet when it steams into port and take part in the later festivities.

President Pardo will give a public reception to Rear-Admiral Evans and the other officers at 5 p.m. on Friday.

The wireless message from the Connecticut said that Rear-Admiral Evans had not yet recovered his health.

Four special steamers, carrying 2000 excursionists will start out from Callao early Thursday morning to welcome the American fleet.

In all parts of Lima and Callao the government is putting up posters with an inscription of welcome to the fleet, surrounded by the stars and stripes. Arches of a similar nature have been erected and will be illuminated with electric lights representing the Star Spangled Banner.

TORPEDO BOATS SAIL.

NORFOLK (Va.) Feb. 18.—The third flotilla of torpedo boats, composed of the Porter, Blakeley, De Long, Tingley and Thornton, passed out to sea tonight, ostensibly bound to Key West on a winter maneuvering trip. There is a report that the flotilla is really bound to the Philippines, but this could not be confirmed

DIVORCES A PAYING CROP.

South Dakota Makes Money by Its Anti-Cupid Bureau and Wants to Keep It.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PIERRE (S. D.) Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In the annual report of the Bureau of Vital Statistics is made plain the reason why South Dakota does not want to give up the divorce business. The bureau's report shows that in the year 1907 a total of 552 divorces were granted in the State, of which 320 were non-residents, and it was a dull year in the divorce market, too.

The average spent by divorcees during their six months' residence in South Dakota is not less than $200 a month, and probably much more, but estimating the average cost of a Dakota divorce, including the expense of setting up a residence, paying attorney's fees and court costs, at $1500, the State of South Dakota last year took $480,000 as inducement for granting the 320 divorces to non-residents.

If the income for the last year is taken as an average, South Dakota has realized $5,000,000 from her divorce mill in the last decade.

WANT SOUTHERNER ON TICKET.

Chicago Politicians Think Such a Choice for Vice-President Would Strengthen Republicans.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Republican party should choose as its candidate for Vice-President a man of the South, say members of that party in Chicago.

The selection of a southern man for vice-president by the Republican party would forge the last remaining link that is to bind the "sections" into a united country.

They point out that Bryan, judging from comparative figures of 1900 and 1904, is not so popular in the South as his leading supporters would like the public to believe. This point, say the politicians, is worth considering at a time when Bryan seemingly is assured of his party nomination for President.

TO COMMAND WARSHIPS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Selections for two important naval commands were announced today at the Navy Department. Capt. Henry Morrell will command the Wisconsin about April 1. He is now ordnance officer at the New York navy yard. Capt. W. A. Marshall will command the new cruiser North Carolina. He is now at the Boston navy yard.

IN THE FAR EAST.

JAPS QUIETLY OUST POWERS FROM ORIENT.

State Department Has Exhaustive Information on Mikado's Aggressiveness—America Losing Her Commercial Foothold in the Far East.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Information from unofficial and individual sources evidencing the aggressiveness of Japan in Manchuria has been accumulating in the State Department for some time. That this condition is irritating in increasing degree to China is also a matter of knowledge here.

It is said with authority, however, that in no manner has the Chinese government brought the matter to the attention of the American government, and no report on the subject is looked for.

A remarkable explanation of the attitude of our government in this important matter is developed as the result of inquiry directed toward officials who cannot be quoted, but are in positions to direct our policies.

In effect, it is as follows: It is frankly admitted that America is losing her commercial foothold in the Orient. This loss, however, is not charged to Japan. Rather it is asserted to be the effect of the growing tendency toward internal governmental regulation in the United States.

As an illustration of this, attention is called to these facts:

Five years ago flour, in barrels, was being shipped to the Orient from the Northwest, steel rails from Pittsburgh and cotton in bales from Texas. These shipments were made possible because of an exceedingly low ocean freight rate arrived at by a railroad combination. This rate has been condemned by our courts as a conspiracy against trade, and the development of this trade has been abandoned.

The domestic war, as it is characterized, against the Standard Oil Company, which is credited with the largest oriental trade of any American enterprise, is declared to have been disastrously effective in the Orient, while the tobacco and cotton trade are said to have been dealt a heavy blow through the operation of the railroad legislation here.

From this point it seems easy for government officials here, conversant with foreign matters, to view Japanese commercial aggression in Manchuria with a greater degree of complaisance than would be the case in the face of an urgent domestic demand for governmental assistance. Japan, it is asserted, can without great difficulty justify everything she has done in Manchuria as sanctioned by the "open door" policy initiated by the late Secretary Hay and adhered to by the greater nations, including Japan.

JAPS IN CONTROL.

While Japan may justify these things through the "open door" policy, it has been charged that there exists evidence of her use of many methods and practices which might not bear the light of impartial investigation.

Besides her claim to an equal footing with other nations in Manchuria on the "open door" basis, she has, it is asserted, obtained many valuable concessions through which her control of the railroad and telegraph facilities is practically complete. This control is known to be used primarily in the interest of Japanese tradesmen and to the detriment of all foreign competitors. This disadvantage is, of course, being felt by American tradesmen, as well as by those of other foreign nations.

As the trade of Germany, England and other nations is more valuable than the American trade, and as these nations are what is termed highly commercially organized, it would not be a great surprise to American diplomacy to hear of protests from these quarters against Japanese aggression.

There is nothing in Secretary Hay's promulgation of the "open door" policy which partakes of the nature of an agreement with any nation looking to its maintenance. For this reason it is predicted that should a combination of protests be made and any movement initiated by foreign nations, the support which it would receive from this country would be no more than moral.

Secretary of War Concludes Two Days' New England Trip With Two Speeches.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LOWELL (Mass.) Feb. 19.—Secretary of War William H. Taft finished a two days' visit to New Hampshire and Massachusetts this evening, and left Lowell at 6:45 for Boston, where he boarded the Federal express at 8 o'clock for Washington.

The Secretary delivered two addresses. The first, in Nashua this afternoon, was devoted to the work of the government in the Philippines and the progress made on the Panama Canal. The second, this evening, was to the Lowell Board of Trade. He spoke about twenty-five minutes here and in the course of his remarks he referred to the relations between Japan and the United States.

He said that in his opinion there was no possibility of war with Japan. His recent visit to the Orient, he said, convinced him that the war talk was ridiculous.

RUMORS OF BOMB PLOTS.

DEATH TO FINANCIERS CRY OF ANARCHISTS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] On the heels of the reports that Black Hand threats have been made against J. P. Morgan, and closely following the closing of the Stock Exchange visitors' gallery because, it is rumored, of a blackmailing threat that a bomb would be hurled onto the floor, Commissioner Bingham today made public the action he contemplated on an inflammatory circular advocating the "slaughter" of financiers and advising the workingmen to march in force upon Wall street.

Squads of detectives under the direct supervision of Deputy Commissioner Arthur Woods have been sent to trace the circular to its source and make arrests. The placard, which is headed "Workingmen, help yourselves," is the climax of repeated threats launched against Wall street within twenty-four hours.

While those in a position to know suggested that the excuse that the Exchange gallery was closed for repairs was only a pretext to veil fears of crank outbursts, others were gossiping with regard to the story that Mr. Morgan had received an intimation of violence.

Neither threat was as radical as the one embodied in the circular, which calls for the wholesale destruction of the capitalists and financiers without regard to their prominence or standing in the community. It urges the workingmen to kill indiscriminately, so long as his victim is a wealthy man.

The anarchistic sentiment thus expressed led the police to believe that the circular emanated from a neighboring city, widely known as the headquarters of anarchists of all nationalities.

To New York financiers, by the terms of the document, is laid the blame for all evils existing in the financial world, while the Christian and Social Democratic churches are made the butt of a savage attack. It is charged in the circular also that "the Wall street rabble" creates artificial situations for its personal gain.

A heavy detail of detectives was scattered through the Wall street district during the day with instructions to keep their eyes open for any men of suspicious appearance.

RACING AGAINST FEARFUL ODDS.

AUTOMOBILES STRUGGLE DESPERATELY AGAINST STORM.

Drivers Are Nearly Frozen and Utterly Exhausted When They Stop for the Night—Thomas Car Still in the Lead—Chicago Pilots Almost Discouraged.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

KENDALLVILLE (Ind.) Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Thomas and De Dion cars, which are now leading in the New York-Paris automobile race, arrived at Corunna, Ind., at 6:30 p.m. During the heavy snowstorm, which lasted all day, the American car only made eighty-seven miles. The French car made twenty-seven miles more than the Thomas, because she had started from Fremont, instead of Toledo.

When Montague Roberts saw the depth of the snow this morning, he decided to wait at Toledo until the De Dion car arrived from Fremont, so the crews of the two autos could tackle the snow drifts together. Search was made all over Toledo to find some one with an auto who could go ahead and act as a pilot for Roberts and St. Chaffrey, but no one could be found willing to face the storm. Finally, Jack Spurriter of Cleveland, who escorted the Thomas car to Toledo yesterday in his sixty-horse-power touring machine, volunteered to guide the racers as far as South Bend.

The start was made from Toledo by the American and French cars at 9:15, when the snow was eight inches deep in the streets. During the whole day, up till 6:30, the two cars, led by the pilot, struggled against the storm and deep snow drifts, through which the men had repeatedly to dig tracks. The three automobiles arrived at Waterloo at 5 o'clock. Every part of the machines was covered with thick mud and frozen snow, and the men were in the same condition, and chilled to the bone by the continuous exposure.

After a brief consultation, Roberts decided to try to get to Kendallville tonight, a distance of fourteen miles. After leaving Waterloo, the storm increased in violence, and the snow blew across the road in great drifts.

By 6:30 they had only got as far as Corruna, when it was thought best, as the men were so exhausted by the cold, to stay a few hours to get something and thaw out a little. In turning into the road leading into Corunna from the main road, the French car ran into a big snow bank and had to be dug out and towed into town by horses. At the time of sending this dispatch, it was not decided whether the De Dion car will attempt to make Kendallville tonight.

STUCK FOR THE NIGHT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ERIE (Pa.) Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Moto-Block, the second French car, is sticking fast for the night in a drift beside the roadway a few miles east of this city. Godard and his men are stopping overnight at a farmhouse near the drift.

They will set to work early in the morning to get themselves extricated. Protos, the German car, left here at 8:30 this morning, and reported to have lost considerable time in a bad drift west of the city.

MAY FIZZLE OUT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MICHIGAN CITY (Ind.) Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The New York to Paris automobile race may fizzle out between South Bend and Chicago. The blizzard sweeping over Northern Indiana is the worst in twenty years, and when the world circumnavigators reach its zone they will encounter the hardest struggle of their trip so far. The five-foot drifts which they shoveled through in New York State have grown here to snow fields, half a mile long and eight and ten feet deep.

The pilot cars of the Chicago Auto Club and the Chicago Motor Club, driven respectively by "Jack" Banta and Paul Picard, will make an effort to reach the foreign cars and show them the road to Chicago.

Both Picard and Banta know the road well. They have gone over most of it on foot, or behind a team of horses, at a speed of four miles an hour. Their piloting duties may end when meeting the world races and saying: "Gentlemen, you take that road as far as you can go and then turn to the left, we will follow you."

Picard will return to Michigan City this morning and try to fight his way farther east.

Banta has not reached Michigan City yet, but is expected here tomorrow. He reached Chesterton, ten miles west of here, late last night. He had traveled five miles during the day. The last part of the trip was made with the aid of horses. One man had to walk ahead with a lantern to pick out the road. When Banta and his crews finally got into the village they were nearly snow blind, exhausted in mind and body, their cheeks like large red apples, ready to crack open.

"From Chesterton to Michigan City is enough for me," said Banta tonight. The Locomobile he is driving is in good shape. A conference will be held between the crews of the two cars tomorrow to plan the future campaign.

BECKHAM OFFERS TO QUIT.

Ex-Governor Says He'll Withdraw If Legislature Will Let State Vote on Prohibition.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

FRANKFORT (Ky.) Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ex-Gov. Beckham has offered to withdraw from the race for United States Senator if the Legislature will amend the constitution so as to give the people of Kentucky the right to say whether the State shall or shall not be prohibition.

He says that while he was Governor he found that 90 per cent. of all the criminals in the penitentiaries of Kentucky were there because of whisky. The whisky men are deadlocked in the Legislature on the Senatorial contest.

TWENTY PASSENGERS SNOWBOUND IN CAR.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

JOLIET (Ill.) Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A relief party has started toward Plainfield to rescue twenty passengers on a Joliet and Southern traction car from death in the snow.

The car had reached some point near this city, its destination, when it was caught in the blizzard. Drifts of snow formed on all sides and it was impossible to move it in either direction. A telephone message from a farmer revealed the plight of the passengers.

Conditions here have paralyzed business. Street car traffic has been abandoned and all railroad lines are blockaded.

BANK SCANDAL.

RICKEY IS HELD TO GRAND JURY.

MUST BE TRIED ON CHARGE OF EMBEZZLEMENT.

President of State Bank at Carson, After Preliminary Examination, Is Held in $10,000 Bail, Which Is Furnished—Woman Files Attachment Against Institution.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CARSON (Nev.) Feb. 19.—T. B. Rickey, president of the State Bank, was today bound over to the grand jury on a charge of embezzlement.

Justice Folsom fixed the bond at $10,000, which was furnished immediately. A new grand jury will be called tomorrow.

Before the justice court met this morning, a new sensation was sprung in the bank matters. Mrs. Sadler, widow of late Gov. Sadler, filed an attachment of $10,000 against the bank. The Sheriff at once took charge and placed a watchman in the bank.

Mrs. Sadler had the money as a deposit and has refused to trade or transfer the account. It is believed that proceeding is the forerunner of the appointment of a receiver.

The matters in the justice court where Rickey's examination was held, proceeded to the conclusion of testimony. No testimony of a nature other than already introduced was shown. Mr. Peterson, one of the directors, testified that he considered the bank building a good investment should the institution go to the wall. The attorney for the defense asked for either State Treasurer Ryan, Secretary of State Douglass or Gov. Sparks. A subpoena was issued on Monday for them, as they constitute the Board of Bank Commissioners, but it was not served. The defense asked time to place their cashier, Davis, on the stand. As he is in Tonopah, the justice refused to await his coming and summarily closed the case, stating that it had dragged long enough.

Atty.-Gen. Stoddard opened the argument for the prosecution, quoting authorities by which the defendant could be held upon a charge of embezzlement. He stated that there had been plenty of evidence shown to warrant the holding of Rickey to the grand jury.

Charts, for the defense, occupied the remainder of the morning session with his argument. He said that the evidence of Stoddard showed that the bank was solvent and declared that the proceedings had been brought by personal enemies of Rickey and not as a matter of public good.

The case was continued this afternoon, when the justice rendered his decision holding Rickey to the grand jury.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19.—Soto Shimbun, the Japanese daily newspaper here, has been attached for debts, amounting to about $2000, said to be due for paper, ink and other materials.

The Soto Shimbun has been strongly opposed to the action of the school board in the Japanese matters, and the editorial utterances have been sensational and decidedly antagonistic to San Francisco.

It published recently a pamphlet for free distribution, which contained a list of alleged offenses against Japanese.

WOMEN DISCUSS SUBJECT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19.—A mass meeting of women at the California Club today was devoted to discussion of the best methods of preventing a serious outbreak of the plague.

Many sugestions were made for the extermination of rats and the improvement of sanitary conditions. Among the speakers were Doctors Rupert Blue and W. C. Rucker, Rabbi Voorsanger, Fathers Caraher and McQuade, Rev. Bradford Leavitt and T. Cary Friedland, secretary of the Merchants Exchange.

The women present voted unanimously for a higher liquor license.

Five Men Narrowly Escape Death by Asphyxiation When Engine Is Stalled in Tunnel.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MISSOULA, Feb. 19.—Five railroad men, who were overcome by gas last night in the Mullan tunnel, narrowly escaped death by asphyxiation, and one of them is not yet out of danger.

An exceptionally heavy train, drawn by an engine and a helper, stalled last night in the tunnel. Conductor Dishman was in the caboose, and, realizing something was wrong, climbed over toward the engine, and found both crews unconscious. The train by this time was backing down the steep grade of the mountain, and gaining momentum every instant.

Dishman applied the air and stopped the train a short distance from Blossburg. He secured assistance, and efforts to revive the unconscious men were begun.

Engineer Farell and his fireman were taken to Helena, and it is said the engineer's condition is critical.

Father of Thompson, Who Killed Washington Judge, Trying to Have Son Released.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE, Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Chester Thompson, acquitted of the murder of former Judge Emory on grounds of insanity, and since that time confined in the State penitentiary at Walla Walla, may soon obtain his liberty, according to a report received in Seattle.

The report is that Will H. Thompson, the prisoner's father, is in Walla Walla preparing to bring proceedings for his son's release.

Superintendent Reed and Physician Lane of the penitentiary have assured Thompson they will support his petition to Judge Snell, who presided at the trial, asking for a hearing before a jury as provided by the Graves law, to determine if the young man has proved his sanity.

LEAN YEAR FOR SALMON.

Packers on Puget Sound Preparing to Operate Canneries on One-third Capacity Only.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TACOMA, Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A lean year is what packers of salmon on Puget Sound are facing. The year of 1908 will be a year of "big wind" but "nothing doing" in salmon catching. The year following, 1909, according to salmon statistics, will see enormous schools of sockeyes in the Sound, for the fish run in schools every four years.

"We will operate one of our three canneries on the Sound at half capacity this year," said General Manager Deming of the Pacific American Fisheries Company today. "The Alaska Packers' Association will operate one of its three sound canneries. The year before a big run is aways very slim, and all our arrangements for help, cans and general supplies will be on this basis."

The Northwestern Fisheries Company, the big Alaska concern, is preparing for an average pack in Alaskan waters.

PROHIBITIONISTS GETTING ACTIVE.

PLAN TO MAKE NATIONAL ISSUE BEFORE CONVENTIONS.

National Chairman Says Party Will Have Written Pledges from Million Voters not to Support Candidate Who Does not Indorse Principles of Organization.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Elated by the prohibition wave which is sweeping the South, Charles R. Jones of Chicago, national chairman of the Prohibition party, is in this city planning to make prohibition a live issue in the Presidential campaign this fall.

Mr. Jones held conferences today with Alfred L. Maniere, the leader of the movement in New York State, who is spoken of as the candidate for President, and with W. G. Brown and S. C. Wilson, the leaders in New Jersey.

"Before the convention of any party meets," said Chairman Jones, tonight, "we expect to have the written pledges of 1,000,000 voters, not to support the candidate of any party which does not declare in its platform for national prohibition. By that we mean prohibition by Federal enactment.

"That means a tremendous vote which will be taken from the two big parties and which may be decisive in the coming election. I expect to see prohibition made the leading issue in the Presidential campaign. I have not heard a single estimate made by our people which places our vote under 1,000,000.

"Four years ago we polled 280,000. Since then a prohibition wave has been sweeping over the country, gaining momentum every hour. We are gaining recruits and help from the most unexpected quarters, from quarters where heretofore we have been denied aid.

"Our present work consists in the widespread organization of national clubs. More than 1000 have already been organized in the Middle West and Pacific States. They pledge their members to vote for no party not openly for national prohibition. J. C. McCausland, with whom I have talked today, will begin at once to organize national issue clubs here. We will probably nominate a Southern man for President as the movement has been strongest there of late."

VIENNA HAS EARTHQUAKE.

VIENNA, Feb. 19.—An earthquake shock lasting two seconds occurred here at 10:16 o'clock tonight. No damage was reported, but so strong was the shock that the recording pencils at the seismographic station were displaced.

The Leybach station recorded earth shocks lasting four minutes.

BRINGS LIONS TO POPE.

ROME, Feb. 19.—Father Bernard, a missionary priest from Abyssinia, was received in private audience today by the Pope. The priest brings the Pope a present of two lions from King Menelik of Abyssinia and a message expressing the desire of the King to insure the security of Catholic missionaries throughout Ethiopia.

The Pope was especially pleased with a decoration of the Ethiopian star which was sent by King Menelik to both himself and the Papal secretary of star, Cardinal Merry Del Val.

Will Advise Small Expenditures on Coasts.

Scant Courtesy Given President's Desire.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Though consideration has not yet reached the voting stage, there is the best of authority for the statement that it is the intention of the House Committee on Appropriations to lop from $35,000,000 to $30,000,000 from this year's total estimates of $38,443,000 for fortifications, and that of the approximate $18,000,000 which the committee means to O. K., practically nothing will be recommended for Atlantic Coast fortifications and very little for fortifications on the Pacific Coast.

Nearly all of it will be proposed for fortifications and other defensive work in the Hawaiian and Philippine Islands.

Last year the War Department asked for $10,085,000 for fortifications and was given $6,826,000.

It is unofficially understood that this year's estimate of $38,443,000 had the approval of President Roosevelt. This total is inclusive of projects whose mechanical achievement would require years of work, and the committee is opposed to such early appropriation.

RESTORE MOTTO TO COINS.

President Overridden by House Committee and Representative Knowland Waxes Facetious.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—President Roosevelt was overridden today by the House Committee on Coinage, Weights, and Measures, when by unanimous vote it was agreed to report favorably the MacKinley (Illinois) bill requiring the restoration to gold and silver coins of the national motto "In God We Trust."

During the discussion, Representative Knowland of California, being in a facetious mood, moved that the committee further recommend the placing upon all clearing house certificates the biblical inscription, "I know that my Redeemer liveth."

DEFENDS NAVY BUILDING.

Senator Hale Declares Belief That Our Ship Construction Is Best Possible.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—That our present system of naval construction is the best possible, is the verdict of Senator Hale, chairman of the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs. The opinion was announced in the course of a speech in the Senate today and was given, as he said, as the result of thirty years' experience in naval construction.

The speech was made in accordance with a request that the Senate order printed the reports of Admirals Converse and Capps, prepared in reply to recent magazine attacks on the methods of construction and maintaining the navy of the present day.

DRAINAGE BILL.

FLINT'S MEASURE FAVORED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Committee on Irrigation has authorized Senator Flint to report his drainage bill, which carries an appropriation of $5,000,000.

The money is to be the proceeds from the sales of certain lands in Southern States dating back to 1891 and also the revenue from future sales.

Senator Flint thinks the bill will pass both Houses this session.

FOR CLOSING BREAK.

ESPEE PRESENTS CLAIM.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] H. T. Cory, of Calexico, who is in charge of Federal irrigation work in Imperial Valley, is in Washington to appear before Claims Committee in hearings on Southern Pacific claims for $1,000,000, for work in closing the breaks in the Colorado River.

SENATE RATIFIES TREATY.

WITH FRANCE AND PERU

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The Senate in executive session today ratified the arbitration treaty between France and the United States, signed on February 10.

A naturalization treaty between the United States and Peru also was ratified.

FOR CONSULAR SERVICE.

CLASSIFICATION FAVORED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations today voted to report favorably the bill classifying the consular service.

The committee also voted to report the amendments to the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill, making appropriations of more than $1,000,000 for the purchase of sites and erection of buildings for the consular establishments in Japan, China and Korea, and $400,000 for the purchase and repair of the building used for the American embassy in Paris.

FOR PORTO RICO.

COOPER BILL FAVORED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—An indirect recognition of Porto Rico as a Territory of the United States was determined upon today by the House Committee on Insular Affairs, by an amendment to a favorable report of the Cooper bill.

That bill, as originally introduced, provides that Spanish residents of Porto Rico, with certain specified exceptions, shall constitute a "body politic under the name of the Presidente of Porto Rico."

The committee amended the bill so as to read "under the name of the Territory of Porto Rico," and in that shape it was favorably reported.

SANTA FE CUTS FORCE.

ENTIRE SYSTEM AFFECTED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

TOPEKA (Kan.) Feb. 19.—It is announced here today that the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé Railway Company has ordered a reduction of 12 per cent. in the mechanical department all over the system.

Two hundred men were discharged this afternoon in the Topeka shops. Reductions were made in other Kansas shops.

men who applied for positions that they could go to work tonight and relieve the others.

EXPENSIVE TO CITY.

"The cost of cleaning the streets of Chicago today will be $3000," said Superintendent Doherty. "We have 7000 men working with 270 teams and fifty small carts. Last night we put on 375 men with ninety carts and it cost us $1220. If no more snow falls we will have the streets cleaned by Sunday.

"This is the worst storm we have ever had to contend with."

Increased suffering among the destitute and the invalid poor is predicted by charity workers as certain to follow the blizzard.

MANY PASSENGERS ARE STALLED IN THE SNOW.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LINCOLN (Neb.) Feb. 19.—The Rock Island westbound Continental limited express is still stalled in a snow drift near Prairie Home, 12 miles from Lincoln, but it is hoped to get it out some time tonight. Aside from the enforced delay, which has continued since 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the many passengers have not suffered great inconvenience.

The dining car is well supplied and the coaches are kept comfortable.

Snowstorm at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 19.—The temperature dropped down to 22 degrees above zero today, and a snow storm, driven by a hard northwest wind blowing twenty-six miles an hour, has set in.

Toledo Storm Continues.

TOLEDO (O.) Feb. 19.—The storm of last night is continuing today. Unless freezing weather comes quickly, a disastrous flood seems inevitable.

Worst in Twenty Years.

GOSHEN (Ind.) Feb. 19.—The worst snow storm in twenty years is raging here. Southbound trains from Michigan are blocked. Other points in Northern Indiana are reporting similar conditions.

Blizzard in Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 19.—The blizzard which started in this section yesterday continued with but slightly abated fierceness today. About a foot of snow has fallen in Milwaukee and vicinity.

Flood Refugees in Misery.

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) Feb. 19.—The flood situation in Southern Indiana is more serious today. Swollen rivers increased their depth during last night and thousands of additional acres of lowlands are inundated. The Ohio is rising an inch an hour. Rain and snow fell during the night followed today by a cold wind, causing much suffering among refugees.

Conditions in Michigan.

DETROIT (Mich.) Feb. 19.—The blizzard which swept down upon the lower portion of Michigan from the west yesterday afternoon still prevails with great severity and the snowfall ranges from 8 inches in Detroit to 18 inches in the southwest section of the State. Accompanied by a twenty to thirty miles an hour wind, the snow is drifting badly throughout the country districts and roads are badly blocked. Trains are late everywhere, although railroad officials generally express themselves as greatly pleased over their success in keeping the lines open.

LOSING FIGHT.

ENGINEERS TO STRIKE TONIGHT.

DISPUTE WITH SHIP OWNERS REACHES DEADLOCK.

Employers Certain They Will Be Able to Man Vessels With Independents Sufficient to Handle Business at Present—Position of Other Unionites Is Unknown.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19.—Committees of both the Marine Engineers' Association and the schooner owners, empowered to settle the dispute between the two organizations regarding the number of engineers to be carried on vessels, met today and decided to stand by the statements issued yesterday.

This action makes it certain that a strike of engineers will be on by tomorrow night at 12 o'clock, and after that time no steam schooners will leave this port with association engineers in charge.

The owners asserted tonight that should the engineers refuse to go on the ships they will be able to secure independent engineers sufficient to handle business at the present time.

No question of wages has entered into the controversy as yet but the engineers claim to have information that a reduction was contemplated by the owners. It is not known whether members of other organizations, such as the firemen, the waiters and deck hands, will be drawn into the struggle.

WORK FOR STRIKE-BREAKERS.

Five Dollars a Day and Board Catches Many Unemployed Who Will Go to Alaska.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In order to carry on a labor war against the Western Federation of Miners at Fairbanks, Alaska, agents in Portland are offering employment to 2000 men at $5 a day. Samuel Rudensy, agent of the Tanana Mine Owners' Association, said today:

"We have chartered three vessels that are to leave Seattle for Valdez within the next twenty days and we expect to carry the capacity of each. We are guaranteeing work from April 10 at $5 a day of ten hours with board. From Valdez the men will go by trail 376 miles to Fairbanks."

Many unemployed men in Portland are signing contracts under these conditions. It is certain a large force will go from here and gangs are also being signed up in other Northwestern cities.

UNIONITES START FIGHT.

GOLDFIELD (Nev.) Feb. 19.—A long expected clash between Western Federation miners and non-union men occurred at the shift change this afternoon at the Mohawk mine.

Thirty men on each side were engaged. Pickets from the union derided the non-union miners and the latter took the offensive. After a brief skirmish the union pickets fled, closely pursued. The mine operators' guards stopped the affray.

The mines are generally resuming with non-union men and members of the Nevada Miners' Union, which is recognized by the Mine Owners' Association. The Little Florence resumed this morning with seventy non-union miners from Utah.

WASHINGTON.

IMPEACHMENT IS DEMANDED.

Charges Against Judge Wilfley in Congress.

Petitioner Says He Showed Favoritism.

Disbarred Lawyers from His Court in China.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—A petition for the impeachment of Judge L. R. Wilfley of Shanghai, judge of the United States Court of China, signed by Lorrin E. Andrews, a resident of Shanghai, in his own behalf, and for other citizens of the United States living there, was introduced in the House today by Mr. Waldo of New York.

The petition, a voluminous typewritten document, prays for the impeachment of L. R. Wilfley for high crimes and misdemeanors in the conduct of his office as judge upon charges of corrupt conduct. Among the charges are the following:

That Judge Wilfley was guilty of "oppression and misuse of his powers as judge" in disbarring Attorneys Francis M. Brooks, Cecil Holcomb, W. I. Rogers, Edwin H. Lamme, Harry L. Hart, Lorrin Andrews, and W. L. Heen, "thereby ruining them in their standing and reputation in the community, depriving them of their livelihood, impoverishing them and leaving them citizens of the United States in a distant country without means of support for themselves, their wives and children."

That in defiance of the rules of the United States Supreme Court, he made a rule of his own by which no citizens of the United States holding a lawyer's certificate to practice would be allowed to practice in the United States court for China without first passing an examination to be held by Judge Wilfley himself.

That the said examination was a mere sham, without any intention other than to disbar and to ruin said attorneys whom he disfavored, and to secure the whole practice of the law and business before the United States court for China for his own favorites.

That he wilfully, unlawfully and maliciously refused for a long time to permit any one to practice before his court except T. R. Jernigan, E. Fessenden and Arthur L. Bassett.

REWARD FOR HEROISM.

SAVED FEDERAL PROPERTY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Representative Kahn today presented to the War Department the project of forming the civil service employés of San Francisco who heroically saved much Federal property during the fire into a branch of the reserve corps of the United States army.

The Department was much interested in the plan and has promised to take up the matter with the Adjutant General of California for further action.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.

Railroads Oppose Liability Bills.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Representatives of the several great railroads appeared today before the House Committee on Judiciary to oppose a favorable report on the Sterling and Bates bills relating to the liability of common carriers engaged in interstate commerce to their employés.

Provide for Next Census.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The House today resumed consideration of the bill to provide for the thirteenth and subsequent decennial censuses. Some opposition developed to the taking of a census of the Panama Canal zone, Guam and Tutuilla. After a protracted debate, the bill was amended, limiting the census to the States and Territories of the United States, the District of Columbia and Alaska, Hawaii and Porto Rico.

Brazil Reciprocates.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The State Department was today officially informed that the 20 per cent. tariff preferential granted to certain American exports by the government of Brazil January 1 will be in effect to date from January 1.

To Reclaim Swamp Lands.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The Department of the Interior's bill to appropriate the receipts from the sales of public lands in a number of States to the construction of works for the reclamation of swamp or overflowed lands belonging to the United States was ordered favorably reported by the Senate Committee on Public Lands.

Subsidy Bill Comes up Today.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Senator Gallinger today agreed to defer consideration of the Ocean Subsidy Bill until tomorrow in order that Senator Johnson of Alabama might speak on the Aldrich Currency Bill.

Bill for Postal Savings Banks.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Senator Knox today introduced a bill to establish a sysem of postal savings banks. The bill embodies the plan outlined by Postmaster-General Meyer in his annual report.

OFFICER HURT AT NIGHT FIRE.

"JACK" HENDRICKSON INJURED IN ESCAPING FLAMES.

Escape Cut Off in Second Story of Burkhalter Residence on Scarff Street and He Jumps—House and Contents Destroyed and Residences of Two Neighbors Are Scorched.

Cut off by flames while endeavoring to save property, Special Officer "Jack" Hendrickson was painfully injured at 2 o'clock this morning at a fire that destroyed the residence of Dennis Burkhalter, division superintendent of the Southern Pacific, No. 2309 Scarff street.

The residence of Charles Seyler, cashier of the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank, at No. 2305 Scarff street, was slightly damaged, as was that of Dr. Henry Howard, at No. 2317.

The fire is supposed to have been started by the crossing of electric light wires. Members of the Burkhalter family were awakened just in time to flee in their night clothing from the second floor. Two alarms were sent in and several engine companies responded. The firemen succeeded in preventing the spread of the flames, but the salvage at the Burkhalter home was practically nothing. The loss is estimated at $8000.

Special Officer Hendrickson, who was early on the scene, had entered the house in search of possible victims of smoke, and to save furniture. His exit was cut off by the flames and he was obliged to leap from a second-story window to save himself. He was hurt about the legs, but when taken to his home he appeared to be only slightly injured.

Court Orders General to Appear at 11 O'clock Today to Hear His Sentence.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 19.—The court has been trying Gen. Stoessel for the surrender of Port Arthur to the Japanese retired for deliberation at noon today, ordering Gen. Stoessel and the other defendants in the court-martial proceedings, to appear February 20 at 11 o'clock when sentence is expected to be pronounced.

Sentries have been stationed at the doors leading to the judges room, which have been provided with beds, etc., indicating that the judges anticipate quite a struggle in their efforts to reach a verdict.

The trial reached the last act yesterday, the prosecution waiving the privilege of putting in rebuttal to the defense. The last word was given to the accused general, who uttered only a few sentences in a firm voice and shouldered the entire responsibility for the surrender of Port Arthur.

"If the court decides the surrender was a crime," he concluded, "I ask for the death sentence."

LOVE'S LABOR LOST.

SACRIFICE MAY PROVE WASTED.

Mrs. Thaw Is Determined on Divorce Programme.

Proposes to Give Harry's Wife Snug Sum.

Prisoner Is Said to Favor an Injunction.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Evelyn Nesbit Thaw's "sacrifice upon the altar of love" will be a sad case of love's labor lost if Mrs. William Thaw has her way. The mother of the young man now in Matteawan is determined, if possible, to bring about the absolute separation of Harry Thaw and his wife.

There is no delicacy in the Thaw atmosphere. Things are reduced to the common denominator of dollars and cents and expressed in such terms, whether the things relate to the purchase of a horse or the side-tracking of a love story. Wherefore, New York was not surprised to learn that it had been planned to divorce the girl, give her $20,000 a year and "let her rip"—or, perhaps, become the drawing card for an enterprising vaudeville manager.

But there are things in the way. If current report is to be accepted, what young Thaw himself wants is not a divorce but an injunction. Evelyn has been no hermit, not even while the pall of the electric chair hung over Harry, and she was devoting her business hours to assisting in his salvation with all of the strenuous enthusiasm of her effervescent nature. She went whither she willed, with whom she willed and at such times as she willed when the Tombs had been closed for the night. Chinatown and other places where the lights were bright saw her at times, and with various escorts.

Nothing brought publicity from these trips until the other night, when several newspaper reporters, some of whom had covered the Thaw trial, and an artist who had sketched Evelyn in every conceivable pose for the Herald, saw her at the Café Boulevard with a man who was declared to be E. R. Thomas. Thomas denied being there, so did Evelyn. Thomas came to bat with an alibi. Evelyn was not so fortunate. In the face of her denial, it is proven that she was in the main dining-room of the café, with a man, whether he was Thomas or somebody who looked enough like him to fool the reporters and the artist.

Thaw read the stories of her late dining, and kicked up an awful roar, but, as aforesaid, it was the roar for an injunction, rather than for a divorce.

Thaw cannot file a suit for divorce or for anything else. He is non compos mentis under decree of the court. Pittsburgh friends of the Thaws declare that overtures for a separation have been made and accepted.

Mrs. Thaw is planning, according to report, to go abroad with her daughter, the divorced Countess of Yarmouth, and Harry, leaving Evelyn behind. But as nobody on earth can say what Harry Thaw will do when he is released, these plans are subject to all of the discount that anybody's imagination sees fit to make.

JAPAN'S REPLY RECEIVED.

TOKIO, Feb. 19.—The memorandum of the Japanese government in reply to that of the United States on the subject of emigration, mentioned yesterday by the Associated Press, was handed to Ambassador O'Brien today.

It is understood that it agrees in its general terms with a number of suggestions made by the American government and insures a further restriction of emigration by the practical prohibition of laborers.

San Francisco Will Have Imposing Fleet in Harbor Long Before Evans Arrives.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19.—The battleship Nebraska, Capt. Nicholson, arrived yesterday from Magdalena Bay as the vanguard of a fleet which will be in this harbor by aSturday, and which, though not so large as that on its way here under Admiral Evans's command, will be the most imposing array of fighting machines ever assembled inside the Golden Gate.

Admiral Dayton's "big four," the West Virginia, Maryland, Colorado and Pennsylvania, and Admiral Sebree's big armored cruisers Tennessee and Washington, will be here Friday, and will be joined in Man-o'-War Row by the California and South Dakota, now anchored between here and Mare Island. These, with the Nebraska, will make nine big first-class warships with about 800 officers and men on each vessel.

CHINO RANCH

32 Miles From Los Angeles, Near Pomona and Ontario

Land With Water $200 An Acre

If you can make your first payment for a tract on the Chino Ranch and get a start, are almost certain to make a success of it. Practical ranchers at Chino are meeting deferred payments on their holdings out of the profits from the crops they raise—sides making a good living. In over $800,000 worth of Chino Lands sold in the last years there has never been a single default in payment of either principal or interest. This is strong evidence of the possibilities of the Chino Ranch. You can buy this property on very easy terms.

One-Fourth Cash, Balance in One, Two, Three and Four Years, at Six Per Cent Interest

Chino Ranch Lands are exceedingly fertile. The water is sold with them—ownership of water rights, reservoirs and the entire irrigation system is vested in purchasers as they buy their lands. Some of the successful crops at Chino are Sugar Beets, Walnuts, Oranges, Apricots, Peaches, Alfalfa, Potatoes, Onions, Chili Peppers, Apples—and many other products.

Not only do these crops produce heavily at Chino, but there is a ready market for all that can be raised—the favorable location of the ranch makes satisfactory sales almost certain.

The town of Chino is only 32 miles from Los Angeles—a well settled community with good schools, and the advantages of modern country life. The practical rancher can build up a home and a fine, profitable place there without depriving his family of the advantages.

Come to our office and get full particulars. We have booklets which give facts as they are. Let us take you out to the ranch—the trip is an easy one and will inform you as nothing else can. Come in today.

RUMORS OF RECEIVERSHI

Missouri Pacific Preside Makes Denial.

All Gould Securities Slum to Low Levels.

Various Causes Are Assigne for the Decline.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The entire gossip of Wall street turned today to the Gould interests. It was asserted that a receiver would be asked for the Missouri Pacific. Mr. Gould denied this at once. But, in spite of this denial, the Gould issues hit the toboggan at such a sensational rate that all eyes went to that quarter and all tongues started to comment.

Mr. Gould's statement was as follows:

"There is absolutely not a word of truth in those reports, or any reports of that kind involving this property. Receivership proceedings have not been thought of, or even dreamed of, and there is not even the most remote possibility that they will be."

This statement did not alter things any, however, as this record of sales shows:

Denver and Rio Grande, 15; lowest since 1898, when it sold at 10.

Denver and Rio Grande preferred, 41; lowest since 1896, when it sold at 6.

Erie, first preferred, 26¼; lowest on record.

Erie second preferred, 19¾; lowest since 1900, when it sold at 15.

Missouri, Kansas and Texas, 17¾; lowest since 1904, when it sold at 16.

Missouri, Kansas and Texas preferred, 46; lowest since 1904, when it sold at 33½.

Missouri Pacific, 28½; lowest since 1898, when it sold at 22.

Western Union, 61; lowest since 1876, when it sold at 36½.

St. Louis Southwestern preferred, 24½; lowest since 1903, when it sold at 24.

Texas and Pacific, 16; lowest since 1898, when it sold at 13¼.

St. Louis and San Francisco second preferred, 19½; lowest since 1897, when it sold at 12.

Southern Railway preferred, 28½; lowest since 1896, when it sold at 23½.

In some quarters the belief was expressed that a very large loan in the world stocks was being liquidated, and it was also rumored that the sell-off was in connection with the Western Pacific, now in course of construction, whose $50,000,000 bonds were guaranteed by the Denver and Rio Grande. It was said that recently the construction work on the Western Pacific, now over half completed, had been sustained.

There were some who said that a shortage in earnings could better account for the decline. Missouri Pacific, for about $1,000,000 in interest payments coming due on March 1. Union Pacific Directors Decide to Raise $35,000,000 to Pay Off Floating Debts of System.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It was learned today that the directors of the Union Pacific had decided to sell at the earliest possible moment not less than $35,000,000 of bonds, to pay off floating debts. The bonds will be secured by a first mortgage on 1600 miles of branch lines in Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Iowa and Colorado.

The only other mortgage on the Union Pacific is the one placed in 1897 on the main lines. Practically all of the lines in question have been constructed since 1897. According to the recently issued annual report, the Union Pacific had, on June 30 last, loans and bills payable of $89,050,220, resulting largely from its stock market transactions.

Besides the fact that $85,625,000 was raised from the sale of convertible bonds, nothing definite is known regarding the Union Pacific's present floating debts.

TO CUT ENGINEERS' WAGES.

Reading and Susquehanna Railroad to Make Ten Per Cent. Reduction and Unionites Will Fight.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PEORIA (Ill.) Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Word has reached the heads of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen that the Reading and Susquehanna Railroad is to make a 10 per cent. cut in the wages of the engineers.

The management has put the question to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and, in discussing the probable attempt to cut wages, Grand Master John J. Hannahan of the brotherhood, states that any attempt to reduce wages will result in the convening of all the men east of Chicago, who will in turn demand a ten per cent. increase over the present wage scale.

Grand Master Hannahan believes the proposed act of the Buffalo and Susquehanna Railroad in trying to reduce the wages of its employés to be unjustifiable.

"Locomotive firemen," says the Grand Master, "are worth as much today as they were a year ago, and the brotherhood will present a solid front to secure the enforcement of the present wage schedule."

SUBURBANITE IS PARALYZED.

After Wading Through Snowdrifts Receives Telegram Telling of Summer.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "LOS ANGELES (Cal.) Feb. 18.—Lovely summer night. Am going to walk home by moonlight. Foothills ablaze with poppies and streets blooming with peek-a-boo shirtwaists. Loveliest weather of the season."

The suburbanite who received this telegram last night from Los Angeles at 10:45 o'clock is today under the care of four physicians, three strong-arm patient handlers and several specialists.

But can you blame him?

The strangest thing about it is the telegram was actually received in Chicago.

Suburbanite—he would be just as unfortunate by any other name—quit work at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, laboriously made his way to the station through snowdrifts, against a raging gale, only to find the trains were all one or more hours late in leaving.

When he reached home he plowed through great heaps of snow, lost his way in a prairie, stepped into an open ditch, got in snow up his sleeves to his arm-pits, lost his temper and his rubbers, and finally staggered into his home. Then his wife sent him after a loaf of bread.

At last he got into his warm, comfortable bed. Next came the messenger boy and the telegram. Poppies, sunshine and moonlight. [Assistance.]

NO CASUS BELLI.

REID RIDICULES TALK OF WAR.

DECLARES JAPANESE NATION NOT RULED BY FOOLS.

Argument That Great Britain Would Be Bound to Support Her Eastern Ally, He Declares, Is Nonsense—Not Even a Remote Possibility of Trouble.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—Whitelaw Reid, Ambassador of the United States to Great Britain, in a speech tonight at the dinner of the Pilgrims of the United States, at Delmonicos, declared that talk of the obligation of Great Britain to sustain Japan in war against the United States to be nonsense.

The Ambassador said "there is not the ghost of a possibility of war with Japan," and that there is every reason to think the Japanese sincerely our friends.

Our relations with Great Britain, the Ambassador said, are cordial and there are no serious complications.

The Ambassador received an ovation by the 400 members of the Pilgrims of the United States, and their guests. Joseph H. Choate, ex-Ambassador to Great Britain, was the toastmaster. Ambassador Reid said:

"In dwelling on our peaceful and cordial relations, I am not forgetting the nonsense you have read in the sensational press about the obligations of Great Britain to sustain Japan in war against the United States. If all that ignorant and foolish talk were not mischievous, you might dismiss it as merely another bit of yellow moonshine. For first, there is no war and not the ghost of a probability of war with Japan, any more than there is of war with Russia or with Thibet or with Paraguay and Patagonia.

"We have every reason to think the Japanese sincerely our friends, as we are theirs. If they are not, there is one thing you may be sure about—they certainly are not fools, and you have to think them entirely without common sense before you can imagine them capable of seeking war with a powerful and friendly nation half way around the globe, absolutely without a grievance or a motive.

"And, secondly, the treaty between Japan and Great Britain simply provides that, in case of aggression upon Japan's recognized territorial rights in the East, Great Britain would sustain her. Now, what grown man, outside a lunatic asylum, dreams we have such a hunger for more land that we are going to cross the Pacific and try to rob one of our oldest and truest friends in the Farther East—the very land we introduced to the western world and to which we certainly tried to be useful in helping to bring the late lamentable struggle to a close?

"You are right, no doubt, to blame the sensational press for its unpatriotic eagerness to make dirty half pennies by inventing and spreading this mischievous folly. But I beg of you, be just and blame still more that section of the American people, in considerable influence and I must think not considerable in numbers, who appear still so provincial, so credulous and so careless as to gulp down such stuff open-mouthed, like half-grown backwoods fly gobblers, and really seem to relish it."

Having ridiculed the suggestion that war between the United States and Japan was within the range of possibilities, the Ambassador departed from his prepared speech, to add:

"So far as the information and belief of the officers of the diplomatic service extends, there is absolutely nothing in it."

"I knew that we would get into difficulty if we left those words off, and straightway the trouble came. The prosperity of the whole nation went down in a pile when we ceased to trust God in that conspicuous and well-advertised way."

POLITICAL.

HAS PARTY BUFFALOED.

Bryan Accepted as Inevitable by Democrats.

Critics Will Quit With Good Grace as Possible.

Leaders' Last Hope for Victory Is in Unity.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Despite the occasional word, half-protesting, half-resigned, nearly all of the eastern and southern Democrats in the House and Senate may be said to have accepted William Jennings Bryan as the candidate inevitable, and from now on, with as good a grace as possible, they will refrain from criticism and will praise whenever praise is possible.

Through its leaders in Washington the Democracy seems to have made up its mind that unity is possible and that with unity there may be victory. The Johnson movement no longer is a movement. There are occasional noises suggestive of life and motion that come from Manhattan, but elsewhere are inertia and silence.

Mr. Bryan told his party that if it wanted him he would be a candidate and that if it didn't want him he wouldn't be a candidate. The majority wants him; the minority doesn't want him, but hereafter, apparently, it will not say it so loud.

With the appearance of the first symptom of Johnson activity on the part of the eastern Democrats Mr. Bryan let it be known that he wished the delegates of the States to be given instructions. He said to his friends that he desired to know in advance just where he stood. He has received proofs of support in some of the States and has had advance notice of support in many others. It is the belief of Democratic leaders here that the Denver convention will be little more than a ratification meeting.

JEFFERSON CITY (Mo.) Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Democratic State Central Committee, at its meeting here today, indorsed William Jennings Bryan for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency, but failed to indorse the administration of Folk as Governor or the candidacy of Folk as Senator.

The first thing the committee did after being called to order was to fill a vacancy in the Fourth District, caused by the removal of Ben Hellsley of the Fourth District. The Folk men had former President of the Police Board of St. Joseph Judge W. S. James, slated for the place, but for some reason did not present his name at the last minute and, when the name of Eugene Spratt of St. Joseph, a pronounced anti-Folk man, was proposed by E. G. Orear, the other member from the Fourth District, he was unanimously elected.

TRYING TO PLEASE BRYAN.

Illinois Democrats to Defer to Leader's Wishes in Matter of Selection of Delegates.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Bryan will be asked in Springfield this week to give his opinion of the method favored by the State Democratic organization for electing delegates to the State convention which must be held to choose national delegates. The Democrats are steering clear of dissension such as the Republicans are experiencing.

Chairman O'Connell of the Cook County Committee and Chairman Charles Boeschenstein of the State Committee will confer with National Committeeman Roger C. Sullivan tomorrow regarding Democratic plans.

"Whatever method is chosen for selection of State delegates, it will be one satisfactory to Bryan," said O'Connell. "Our task is made easy by the fact that he is the only candidate for the Presidency and delegates will all be for him."

TRICKED BY INSURGENTS.

Regular Republican Party of Alabama Loses Point by Shrewdness of Anti-Taft Men.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MONTGOMERY (Ala.) Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The "regulars" of the Alabama Republican party woke up up today to find that the "insurgents," the anti-Taft men, had filed an emblem and had been accepted by the Secretary of State, thus crowding out the majority organization which is recognized by the national committee as the regular party of the State.

The law requires that each party have an emblem printed on the ticket. The situation is complicated by the fact that the State officers must champion the emblem filed, it being the duty of the Attorney-General to fight any effort made to dislodge it.

It looks now very much like a contesting delegation.

FAIR FIELD.

NOT EVERYTHING CANNON'S WAY.

PIN IS THRUST INTO SPEAKER'S PRESIDENTIAL BOOM.

Chances Are That Primaries Will Be Held in All of the Ten Chicago Congressional Districts to Give the Voters Chance to Express Their Preference of Candidates.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A primary election for the selection of the delegates to the Republican National Convention seems to be probable in every one of the ten Chicago Congress districts. It is proposed to give the voters a chance to express their preference for Taft, Hughes or Cannon.

Under the decision of the State Central Committee the question of primaries was left to the decision of the Congressional District Committee.

Judge Willard M. McEwen startled some of his political acquaintances today when he declared himself in favor of giving the people opportunity to express their choice among the several Presidential aspirants. He was seconded in this by Corporation Counsel Brundage. Judge McEwen said:

"If the Republicans of my district want a primary the ward organization will defray the expense and the delegates to the Congressional convention chosen by the people will be appointed by the committee as the delegates. Under this plan any one who desires may have a delegate ticket in the field. In case the friends of the favorites do not want to take active part I favor placing before the voters in my district delegates tickets for Cannon, Taft and Hughes, and letting the will of the people be binding."

NEGRO VISITS FORAKER.

Florida Politician Asks If Uninstructed Delegates to National Convention Will Suit Him.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Chairman Dickinson, who presided over the Republican State convention in Florida, which elected uninstructed delegates to the Republican National Convention, and caused the friends of Taft to bolt, is in the city conferring with Senator Foraker about sending uninstructed delegates from the Southern States to the national convention.

Dickinson is a negro, and is opposed to Taft. He desired to ascertain the wishes of Senator Foraker and to learn if it will be satisfactory to him if uninstructed delegations are sent.

Senator Foraker told Dickinson that this would suit him.

Gov. Fort of New Jersey is in Washington conferring with the politicians regarding the Presidential situation. Fort will be a candidate for the Vice-Presidential nomination, and it was learned today that the New Jersey delegation to the convention will be instructed to vote for him for the second place on the ticket, but no instructions will be given regarding the first place. Fort tonight was the dinner guest of the President.

Two Men Escape After Committing $15,000 Diamond Robbery in Heart of New Orleans.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 19.—A $15,000 diamond robbery in broad daylight in the heart of the city, with hundreds of persons passing at the time, was perpetrated here this afternoon at the establishment of M. Waldhorn & Co.

Two men drove up in front if the store in a buggy. One of them alighted and smashed one of the large plate-glass windows in the front of the store. He quickly seized two trays filled with diamonds, and jumped back into the buggy and was driven off.

A large crowd started in pursuit, but the men, buggy and horse were soon lost to sight in a cloud of dust.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL

Few People Know How Useful It Is In Preserving Health and Beauty.

Costs Nothing to Try.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered willow charcoal and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but, on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

BOW-WOWS BARKING.

AWARD PRIZES IN DOG SHOW.

Judging to Be Completed Today If Possible.

Larger Classes Cause Delay in Completing Work.

Best Show Ever Held Here Is General Verdict.

With a grand and continuous performance of howls and barks that made the passersby think of forty city pounds, the fifth annual bench show of the Southwestern Kennel Club opened its four days' session, yesterday, in the spacious building at No. 415 South Hill street, and the dog lovers of Southern California may rest assured that it is the best show ever held in this end of the State, if not on the Coast. The class of dogs entered could hardly be improved upon, for the big majority of the animals are up to bench form.

A large crowd of interested spectators viewed the exhibits, yesterday and last night, and with few exceptions there was unstinted praise for the fine specimens of all the breeds shown. Some of the utility breeds looked shabby beside the real "show" dogs, but there was "class" in every department, for few scrub dogs are put in a four-point bench show.

There was an unusually large number of pointers and the competition was very keen and the same might be said of the English setters.

Comparatively few classes were judged, yesterday, owing to the fact that the entry lists of some of the breeds were so long and so much time was needed to judge these. The collies and the Boston terriers were not even thought of yesterday and these will probably take up the greater part of today, if but one judge handles them.

There are many high class Boston terriers and the good local ones will be up against Miss Crocker's fine string of four from San Francisco. The South meets the North in various other breeds and the winners will certainly be able to hold their own with any dogs on the Coast, or in the West.

The judging was gone through with in each end of the building at the same time and yet with two forces working only the Dachshunds, Irish terriers, St. Bernards, Great Danes, Russian wolfhounds, American and English foxhounds, pointers, toys, curly poodles, English setters and the spaniels were finished.

In addition to the large number of entries, the crowds of people that blocked the aisles and the continual barking of the many dogs made the building a bedlam of noise and confusion all day and night, for after the place closed at 10 o'clock last evening, the dogs kept on yelping.

The show is certainly a big success in the number and class of the entries and from the attendance yesterday, the financial end of it will be on the right side of the ledger, which is frequently an unusual thing for dog shows.

The list of awards made yesterday and last night, is as follows:

GREAT WORK.

HUXTABLE PLAYS IN FINE FORM.

FORMER CHAMPION MAY WIN IN THE FINAL MATCHES.

Most Difficult Roque Shot of Tournament Made by Wheaton, Who Caroms Ball Off Arch, Takes Side and Diagonal Cushions and Gets Object Ball at Seventy Feet.

Play in the second day of the mid-winter roque tournament gained in style and interest chiefly through the arrival and participation of R. Huxtable, yesterday. The former champion had not played for some time, but finding the reports of the first day's fray too much for him, took the first train and arrived in time to play three fine games and nearly finish a fourth with Greenslit. His great form makes him a likely candidate for final honors, which are nearly sure to be decided by his games with Greenslit and Streeter on Friday.

Strong, who is far from his usual good health and form, began well by beating Thomas, 32-20. Huxtable won from Strong, 32-9. Wheaton beat Thomas in a game showing some of the finest shots of the tourney by both players. Thomas excelled in line shooting, and with a little more acquaintance with the cushion borders, will be a dangerous opponent for all. Wheaton executed the most difficult shot yet made in the tournament from a mired position three inches behind arch 5. He caromed on the inside of the arch, took a side cushion, then a diagonal cushion and caught the object ball hidden near the home stake, after traversing seventy feet of ground. Points, 32-13.

Turner was victor over Huxtable after a hotly contested game, which was notable for the number of brilliant bank shots in which the opponents relieved each other of the balls, by a score of 32-26. Huxtable, who had now found his stride, walked away from Wheaton in the record game of the contest, making 28 points in his last two plays, including the entire circuit with one ball. Time, 30 minutes; score, 32-1.

When it is understood that there is a margin of only one-eighth of an inch more than the diameter of the ball in each of the twenty-eight arches this feat can be better appreciated.

The tireless Huxtable now engaged one of the hardest men in the contest, Greenslit, but that was a large part of his errand in coming. The result was a fight which kept all spectators on their feet until darkness compelled postponement of the near finish. Greenslit lacked but one arch, while Huxtable had the balls in a favorable position for completing the last half course with one ball.

Many interested spectators followed the events. Several delegations from other clubs were on hand taking notes in preparation for the coming summer tournament.

The finished games stand:

	Won.	Lost.	P.c.
Streeter	3	0	1.00
Huxtable	2	1	.67
Wheaton	2	2	.50
Strong	2	2	.50
Turner	1	2	.33
Greenslit	0	1	...
Thomas	0	2	...

Raquet Contests.

BOSTON, Feb. 19.—In the competition in the last preliminary round of the National Amateur Racquet championship the morning contest developed the first surprise of the tournament, when former Champion Payne Whitney of New York was defeated by R. Boylston in a hard five-set contest. The score, 15-13, 17-18, 11-15, 15-18, 15-10.

Schafer Takes Lead.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 19.—Jake Schafer of Chicago, secured the lead over Albert Cutler of Boston in their 1500-point 18-1 balk line billiard match here tonight, by taking the second game by a score of 317 to 170. The total score for the two nights' play is: Schafer, 600; Cutler, 470.

CRACK OF GUNS.

RIFLES' CAMP IS SELECTED.

Officers Appointed for Big Shooting Tourney.

Barbecue to Be Served for Two Days' Meet.

Permanent Organization May Then Be Effected.

General arrangements have been completed for the two days' target practice and barbecue of the Southern California Rifles at Redondo, Saturday and Sunday. The range and camp is located on the inland outskirts of Redondo, approached by the car lines from Los Angeles. A covered corral in a shady grove is being prepared for the camp, and a wide, shaded lane lies adjacent for maneuvers of the horsemen. A cooking camp will be arranged alongside.

The mounted men who are to ride down are to leave Los Angeles Saturday in three parties, the first assembling at 9 o'clock at Figueroa and Seventh streets, and are to ride out Figueroa and meet others who propose to join the party up town. Another party will leave the same place at 3 o'clock, thus arriving at Redondo in time for supper at the camp. A third party is to start at the same point at 7 o'clock in the evening for a night ride through. The unmounted men go down by electric line whenever they desire.

The camp is open officially at noon Saturday. Target practice is to begin at 1 o'clock, and continue until 5 o'clock in the evening. Although most all the preparations will be completed by the Redondo committee, under J. L. Norman, Capt. Eugene Plummer will assume command at noon and be in charge until 6 o'clock. He will arrange the appointments of the camp for the two days' stay and attend to the policing of the locality and the appointment of the working squads during his watch.

At 6 o'clock Capt. P. H. Hawkins will take charge and prepare the camp for the night. He will remain in charge until relieved by E. D. Neff of Pasadena, who will be officer in command until 1 o'clock in the afternoon, when he will be relieved by Capt. A. C. Freeman, who will be in command until the Rifles break camp in the evening.

The Sunday shooting will begin at 7 o'clock in the morning, after breakfast, and continue until noon. There will be a recess until 1 o'clock, when shooting begins again and continues until 4 o'clock.

Informal discussion of permanent organization will be in order Saturday afternoon and evening and Sunday morning. At 12 o'clock a formal session will be called, at which the election of the civil officers will be held and permanent organization effected or arranged for.

On Sunday the horsemen are to give exhibitions of expert riding and other games. Capt. J. S. Hendrickson has been appointed to arrange a programme and take charge of the exhibition.

Joe Singer has been selected to act as instructor of marksmen. C. F. Pierce will serve as secretary and treasurer during the shoot. The appointment of range officers and scorers will be left to the various officers in charge, and selection will be made from the shooters in attendance at the time.

The principal shooting will be at 200 yards, and a range has been selected and will be constructed today. A fifty-yard pistol range also will be constructed, and a 100-yard range will be provided separately for .22-caliber rifles. Several locations for 500 to 1000-yard ranges have been under consideration in the same locality, and if possible at least one of the ranges will be marked off for shooting Sunday, and certainly for use later.

L. J. Norman has been appointed commissary, with power to select his assistants and members of the local Reception Committee. The Redondo Beach Chamber of Commerce has taken an active interest through President C. H. Burnett, and Manager Thomas of the Pavilion have provided many facilities for the Rifles. Superintendent Maddox of the Los Angeles and Redondo Railway Company has arranged for the use of the land for the encampment and ranges.

President W. H. Leonard last night appointed E. D. Neff, A. C. Freeman and C. F. Pierce as an Armament Committee, with powers to arrange for affiliation with the National Rifle Association, through which it is asserted it will be possible to secure the new Springfield army rifle at something like cost. The committee also has been empowered to make recommendations for standard arms. It is the idea to have such recommendations adopted, and all members buying rifles and revolvers will be advised to purchase according to the recommendation. Those having sporting rifles and other models will not be barred from shooting, but will be assigned to separate classes.

THE EQUITABLE SAVINGS BANK
STRICTLY A SAVINGS INSTITUTION

During the late financial stringency we believe that none of the depositors of this bank suffered serious inconvenience, as every necessity, as far as known, was from the beginning amply and promptly cared for.

Checks were paid on "Special Ordinary" accounts at all times without interruption.

By January 1 conditions had so far improved that all restrictions on the withdrawal of money were removed.

Since that date all classes of deposits have been paid on demand without requiring notice of withdrawal.

BIGGEST EVER.

ENORMOUS IS ENTRY LIST.

Motorcycle Meet Will Have Record Field.

Hundred and Twenty-two Riders to Compete.

Time and Broken Records Predicted.

When the entries for the motorcycle meet at Agricultural Park on Washington's Birthday closed yesterday at 5 p.m. Los Angeles Motorcycle Club, 122 entries had been received for the five races on the programme. This is one of the largest fields ever presented in this country at a motorcycle meet, and the entry list is of such a character that it scores heavily in class as well as in numbers. Motorcyclists generally are enthusiastic over the prospects of the meet, and it is freely predicted that several world's records will be broken during the afternoon. Seven world's records were broken at the last meet, and with the enormous entry list this year, there is every indication that there will be fast time enough to break more records.

Major Harper will fire the starter's gun for the first race Saturday, and open the meet. There will be quite a representation of city officials present, the members of the Council especially having promised to be there. A special place in the grand stand has been reserved for their use. The Catalina Band has been engaged to furnish music between the events.

The officials for the meet are as follows: Judges, W. H. Whitsell, Frank Cornell and R. F. Thompson; timers, Charles Woods, I. W. Hardenbergh, W. Cochran, George Coyt and J. A. Gates; starter, R. C. Humphreys; clerk of the course, C. L. Smith; referee, C. R. Kettle.

The full entry list, with distances, [illegible] machines and their horse power, [illegible]:

Class A—Three miles, for boys with fully stock machines, single cylinder, First prize, pair leggings; second prize, pair gloves; third, pair peddles.

Class B—Three miles, open, for stripped machines, single cylinder, bore not to exceed 3 inches. First prize, lamp; second, tire; third, ammeter; fourth, cap.

Class C—Three miles, open, for stripped machines, twin cylinder, bore not to exceed 3 inches. First prize, lamp; second, tire; third, ammeter; fourth, cap.

Class D—Five miles, for fully equipped stock machines, any cylinder. First prize, sweater; second, lamps; third, auxiliary lamp.

Class E—Five miles, free-for-all. First prize, sweater; second, lamps; third, silver flask.

Class F—Five miles, for club members only, their own stock machines fifteen days previous to the races, multiple cylinders. First prize, challenge cup; second, box cigars.

Class G—Five miles, for club members only, their own machines fifteen days previous to the races; single cylinders. First prize, challenge cup; second, box cigars.

Class H—Five miles, free-for-all, for single cylinders. First prize, cup and pair gloves; third, pair goggles.

Class I—Five miles, free-for-all, for twin cylinders. First prize, cup and pair gloves; third, pair goggles.

Class J—Two miles obstacle race for single machines; tires to be deflated previous to the race; to be inflated by hand pump, inflate to replace pump. First prize, lamp; second, saddle; third, sweater; fourth, grips.

Class K—Two miles obstacle race for twin machines; tires to be deflated previous to the race; to be inflated by hand pump, inflate to replace pump. First prize, lamp; second, saddle; third, sweater; fourth, grips.

Class L—Cupid race for single machines.

Class M—Cupid race for twin machines.

Classified Liners.

Times Classified Rates: The rate for inserting "Want" ads in The Daily Times is 1c per word for each insertion; in the Sunday issue 1½c per word, each insertion; minimum charge 25c; except under following classifications the rate for which is 10c per line, minimum charge 50 cents; "Society Meetings," "Personals," "Special Notices," and "Baths and Massage."

"Liner" (classified) advertisements for Sunday insertion received over the counter or by telephone after 11:30 o'clock Saturday nights will be inserted under heading "Too Late to Classify."

Sunday real estate advertisements, to be classified properly, must be in The Times office before 10:30 o'clock Saturday nights. Rates 1¼ cents per word.

The Sunday circulation of The Times exceeds 70,000 copies, and more "liners" are regularly printed in its columns than in the five other Los Angeles newspapers combined.

Telephone your want advertisements. Ring up "The Times" any time of day or night and secure prompt and careful attention.

The Times cannot guarantee accuracy or assume responsibility for errors of any kind occurring in telephoned advertisements.

THE TIMES will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any advertisement ordered for more than one time.

SPECIAL NOTICES—

SUNDAY REAL ESTATE LINERS—Classified real estate advertisements for insertion in THE SUNDAY TIMES must be in the office not later than 10:30 o'clock Saturday nights. Other "want" advertisements for Sunday insertion will be taken over the counter until 11:30 p.m.

The great volume of liners printed in The Sunday Times, numbering regularly over 5000 separate announcements, makes this regulation absolutely necessary in order to get the big Sunday issue out on time.

To the Policyholders of

The Mutual Life Insurance Company Of New York

The work accomplished by the Company in 1907, under the new conditions, in respect of benefits dispensed to policyholders and in the furtherance of their best interests, has been especially satisfactory.

The Company paid directly to policyholders and their beneficiaries in death claims, endowments, dividends, annuities and surrender values	$43,959,245.40
It added to the net reserves held in trust for policyholders	16,368,679.39
Total benefits from sources named	$60,327,924.79
Total received from policyholders	57,151,041.71
The total benefits above named exceeded premiums received by	$3,176,883.08

The amount paid DIRECTLY TO POLICYHOLDERS during the year was 77 per cent. of the amounts received from them.

The total amount paid to policyholders, plus the increase in the net reserve held for them, was over 105 per cent. of the amounts received from them.

Increasing Dividends

The amount appropriated for dividends to be paid in 1908 is $8,311,002.02

This sum greatly exceeds the largest amount ever before paid in dividends in a single year by any company. The annual dividends to be paid in 1908 show a ratio of increase over those of 1907 such as can be approximated by no other company. The Mutual Life is the only company which has increased its dividend scale three years in succession—1906, 1907, 1908. Increasing dividends are possible because of increasing earnings and decreasing expenses.

In Gains for Policyholders the Company Remains in the Front Rank

Its gross earnings from interest and rentals for 1907 were	$23,103,953.59
Its gains from loading, mortality, surrenders and annuities were	8,760,440.79
The total earnings and gains were	$31,864,394.38

This is over 56 per cent. of the entire premium income, a remarkable showing rarely, if ever, equaled by any other company.

In Economy of Management the Company Stands Pre-eminent

The total expenses incurred in 1907 were	$8,554,375.11
Compared with 1906, this was a decrease of	2,031,618.13

The Financial Condition of the Company is Superb

Its investments are of the highest class—unimpeached and unimpeachable. In a year of extraordinary financial depression, not a share of stock owned by the Company failed to pay its regular dividend, and on $222,927,910.60 of bonds (book value) there was not a dollar of interest in default at the close of business on the 31st of last December. With assets exceeding its legal liabilities by over $57,000,000, even by the abnormally low market quotations of December 31, 1907—an excess greater by many millions than is held by any similar organization anywhere—the Mutual Life, the Oldest Company in America, is also justly designated the Strongest in the World.

Balance Sheet December 31, 1907.

ASSETS		LIABILITIES
Real Estate	$ 29,409,158.80	Net Policy Reserves	$420,094,742.00
Mortgage Loans on real estate	125,741,836.42	Other liabilities on policies	5,532,879.66
Loans on Policies	52,022,021.33	Premiums and interest paid in advance	1,828,360.34
Collateral Loans	11,805,000.00	Dividends payable in 1908	8,311,002.02
Bonds and Stocks, Market Valus Dec. 31, 1907	260,026,493.51	Miscellaneous liabilities	279,267.56
Cash	6,487,545.88	Held for future dividends	57,530,769.45
Premiums in course of collection	4,685,477.99
Interest and rentals, due and accrued	3,999,487.10
Admitted Assets	$494,177,021.03	Total Liabilities	$494,177,021.03

NOTE.—The admitted assets would be given greater by $15,989,158.97 were the bonds taken on the Company's basis of amortized book value; or $13,211,349.94 were the securities stated by the average market value (13 month rule), recommended by many commissioners at the Louisville meeting.

MORSE WINS A POINT.

Blocks Time Effort to Throw Him Into Bankruptcy by Inducing Creditor to Quit.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Charles W. Morse got his fighting blood up today and for a time blocked the effort to throw him into bankruptcy.

He got one of the three necessary creditors to withdraw from the scheme to make him a bankrupt. In consequence no petition in bankruptcy against Morse was filed, and the $300,000 assignment he made to O'Brien, Boardman and Platt and R. A. C. Smith, on October 20, is now an assured preferential claim. The four months' limit expired with the closing of the courts today and the assignment can no longer be set aside on the ground that it was made to defraud or deceive other creditors.

The creditor Morse induced to withdraw from the bankruptcy petition was said to be the Mercantile National Bank, formerly owned by F. Augustus Heinze and now controlled by men whom the clearinghouse put in when Heinze was driven out.

ALLEGED IMPERSONATOR.

L. P. Ryer was taken into custody last night and booked on suspicion. He is charged with having tried to get $12 from the proprietor of a restaurant by posing as a milk inspector. When searched, Ryer was found to have $60 in $10 bills in his possession. He claims to have received the money from a brother in the East for the purpose of buying a railroad ticket. He will probably have to face a charge of impersonating an officer.

BRUTAL.

FIGHTS HARD FOR HER LIFE.

Hollywood Woman Assaulted by Marauder.

Beaten on Head With Butt of Gun; Arm Broken.

Whole City Is Aroused by This Outrage.

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 19.—In a desperate struggle with an unknown man, last evening, Miss Josephine Dipner, 53 years old, sustained a broken arm and severe wounds on the head.

She was alone in the home of her brother-in-law, W. R. Babcock, at No. 217 North Whitley avenue and was sewing in a room on the second floor, when suddenly the door opened and a man entered, with the exclamation: "I've got you now." Then he struck her on the head with the handle of a revolver.

Miss Dipner grappled with her assailant and screamed for help. In the struggle she was struck repeatedly on the head and a blow on her arm broke it.

Finally the intruder darted from the room and disappeared and Miss Dipner rushed to a porch at the rear of the house and again called for help.

The assault took place about 8 o'clock, soon after Mr. and Mrs. Babcock had started for Los Angeles.

Neighbors, attracted by the screams of Miss Dipner, soon gathered at the house and the police were summoned. Deputy Marshals Clark and Erkenburg, assisted by a number of citizens, made a thorough search of the neighborhood without success.

The assailant, who secured entrance to the house by prying open a kitchen window, is described by Miss Dipner as of medium height, with dark complexion and smooth face. He wore a black slouch hat and dark clothes.

The Babcocks and Miss Dipner say they cannot account for the attack. They only recently moved to this city and state that they know of no one who would commit such a dastardly outrage. Miss Dipner, as far as known, has not an enemy in the world.

The police think that the man entered the house for the purpose of robbery, but a search made by Mr. Babcock, after he returned home, proved that nothing had been stolen.

Robbers have been of such frequent occurance here within the past few months that the Trustees decided, at a meeting this morning, that drastic means must be employed to bring them to an end. The police will receive orders to stop every unknown person found on the streets at night and citizens will be asked to aid in every possible way.

INFANT SLAYER PLEADS.

Mulatto Girl Admits Guilt—Counsel Hopes for Parole—Squaw of Murdered Indian Found.

SAN BERNARDINO, Feb. 19.—Miss Louise Williams, the mulatto who killed her infant by throwing it from a swiftly-moving Santa Fé train on the night of November 18, last, near East Cucamonga, this morning appeared before Judge Oster and pleaded guilty to manslaughter. On request of her attorney, Cramer B. Morris, the case was continued until next Monday morning to permit him to prepare a petition upon which he hopes to secure the girl's parole.

There are said to be strong mitigating circumstances in the case, one being the prisoner's youth (she being hardly 17 years old.) It is alleged that the crime was committed on the impulse of the moment, when she was suddenly overwhelmed with the shame of meeting her mother and sisters at Los Angeles, who had not learned of her ruin. It is also claimed that she is not strong mentally.

MURDER UNEXPLAINED.

Amarilla Conchita, the squaw of Liberato Rodriguez, who was murdered Sunday morning, was discovered today by the Sheriff and Deputy Sheriff Ward. Fred Garcia, a pure-blooded Indian, recently from Temecula, who had lured her from Rodriguez, is in the County Jail under suspicion of having slain Rodriguez and beaten the woman. The squaw refuses to make a statement.

BURGLAR SENTENCED.

J. D. Clymer, charged with having burglarized the East Highland postoffice a week ago, pleaded guilty before Judge Oster this morning, and was sentenced to serve three years in San Quentin. James Warren, accused of burglarizing Elks' Hall, was to have entered a similar plea, but at the last moment pleaded not guilty.

TO ARREST JAP BRIDEGROOM.

Bride's Parents Ask Police to Hold Daughter, but Couple Has Disappeared.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Instructions to arrest Kintaro Tanaka, the Japanese who married Miss Anna Bergman at Vancouver yesterday, have been received by the police of this place.

The telegram was from the parents of the girl, who resided in San José and also ask that she be held pending further advices from them. The oriental and his bride have not been located.

Miss Bergman gave her age as 18 when the license was issued and the authorities believed that to be her correct age.

The couple, after leaving Vancouver, returned to Portland and are now in hiding in this city.

ACCUSE SHERIFF OF MURDER.

Nevada Authorities Think Lincoln County Officer Killed His Own Twin Brother.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RENO (Nev.) Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sheriff Phil Smith of Caliente, Lincoln county, is being held to the Lincoln county grand jury, charged with the murder of his twin brother, John Smith, who was wounded late in December and who died a few days ago.

There is much mystery in the case. One evening in December John Smith visited the home of his brother, and while there was shot. At the time it was stated he had been shot by a thug, who was looking for the Sheriff.

Later it was reported by both brothers that the wounded man had dropped his revolver and was thus wounded. Now the District Attorney and other officers have caused the arrest of the Sheriff and have charged him with the murder of his twin brother.

ARMENIAN PRIEST ON TRIAL.

Head of Hunchakist Society May Face Murder Charge After Blackmail Case Ends.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—Father Levent Martougessian, the Armenian priest, who is said to be the head of the Hunchakist Society, will be placed on trial tomorrow, charged with the robbery and blackmailing of prominent Armenians.

It is stated, however, that when this case is determined, the priest will be charged with complicity in the murder of H. S. Tavasharjian, a wealthy Armenian rug merchant, who was murdered last summer by Bedros Hampartsoumian, now serving a term of imprisonment for the crime.

It is said to be likely that Hampartsoumian will be a witness against the priest. According to the police, he is simply a tool in the hands of a band of blackmailers, who used his patriotism and the name of the Hunchakist Society, formerly an Armenian revolutionary organization, in order to levy tribute from wealthy Armenians.

M'KINLEY BROUGHT BACK.

Fled to Orient After Confessing Complicity in Oregon Land Frauds and Is Captured.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19.—The steamer America Maru, which reached here this afternoon, has on board Horace G. McKinley, who, after confessing complicity in the Oregon land frauds, escaped to the Orient.

It was reported several times that he had been seen in China with "Little Egypt," the noted dancer, who recently died.

He was arrested in China, but just before the arrival of an officer from Oregon he broke jail and escaped. He was captured at Mukden, where he was turned over to Officer J. F. Kerrigan of Portland, in whose custody he now is.

Previous to his flight he had promised to testify for the prosecution being conducted by Heney.

RIDERS AT WORK AGAIN.

Make Town Marshal Prisoner, Terrify Inhabitants and Drive One Man Away.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

HOPKINSVILLE (Ky.) Feb. 19.—The town of Gracey, in West Christian county, was visited last night by a band of masked night riders.

After taking possession of the telephone exchange and making Town Marshal Waters prisoner, they terrorized the inhabitants by firing guns and pistols. Forcing James Wooten, a white man, who was occupying a room at a hotel to accompany them, the night riders took him to the outskirts of the town and ordered him to leave by morning.

After leaving a warning for the negroes to go to work, the band rode off into Trigg county.

Wooten was suspected of being a detective.

TO DIMINISH CRIME.

CHICAGO HAS NEW LAWS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—Crime will be decreased considerably in Chicago, it is believed, by the action taken yesterday by the Council Committee on Judiciary. The Aldermen voted favorably on three ordinances designed to put an end to the carrying of deadly weapons.

One of the ordinances obligates the city custodian every six months to take all weapons that come into his possession and dump them into the lake, at least five miles from shore.

Another ordinance requires dealers in weapons to pay a license fee of $50 a year, and the third forbids anybody to carry a weapon unless he is a sheriff, constable, policeman or coroner.

Even persons with collections of weapons, firearms and swords, or daggers, antique or modern, must take out a license under these new ordinances.

The ordinances place the ban on these weapons, pistols, bowie knives, metal knuckles, revolvers, dirks, derringers and slung shots.

There is no provision against rifles, shotguns or cannons.

The ordinances make it unlawful to purchase, or own, or borrow, any of these weapons without a license, and even with a license they may not be carried.

MURDERER UNMOVED.

HOPES TO ESCAPE DEATH.

AUBURN (N. Y.) Feb. 19.—Chester Gillette, under conviction for the murder of Grace Brown, was today informed of the decision of the Court of Appeals affirming the verdict of the lower court.

Warden Benham, when he received a long telegram this morning for Chester from his mother, decided to inform the condemned man at once, although he had not been officially notified of the court's action.

The prisoner did not show the least emotion, but asked to be allowed to confer with his attorneys to arrange for some future action.

The telegram from Mrs. Gillette was sent from Denver. She urged her son not to be discouraged as she had hopes of taking the case to a higher court.

CHAIN GANG YIELDS.

SICK OF BREAD AND WATER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

REDDING, Feb. 19.—After two days on bread and water, Shasta's chain gang of eleven men surrendered this evening to Sheriff Montgomery. They begged to be given the regular meal provided prisoners, and promised faithfully to go to work tomorrow morning on the rock pile.

LAWYER DENIES GUILT.

DODGES CROWD IN COURT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN JOSE, Feb. 19.—Although his arraignment was set for 2 o'clock this afternoon, Attorney Jackson Hatch, charged with felony embezzlement, quietly appeared with his attorneys before Justice Brown shortly after 11 o'clock this morning and was arraigned. He pleaded not guilty, and his examination was set for March 24.

CRIME BRIEFS.

Vandals Break Into Church.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19.—Thieves or vandals entered the Church of the Advent last night by breaking through the stained-glass window in the rear of the edifice, and after forcing and rifling the desk in the study of the pastor, Rev. C. M. Lathrop, threw the contents of the drawers around the room and left without being able to find anything that could be converted into cash.

FIGHTS BLIZZARD FOR BRIDE.

STERLING (Ill.) Feb. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Joseph Beaver proved today that love can find a way when railroads cannot. He was to be married today and this morning he found eight miles of snow drifts between himself and his bride.

He started on foot, and had to dig through the drifts from four to six feet. The wet snow ruined his clothes and froze his feet. He arrived at the bride's home practically exhausted.

THE MARKETS.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Cream squash arrived on the market yesterday morning, just in time to take the place of the summer squash, which have about disappeared. The new prices on the new vegetable will range from 10 to 20 cents a box. Brussels sprouts were scarce and advanced to 9 cents a pound. Peas also advanced to best amount on account of the absence of much Mexican stock.

There was considerable strength shown in eggs, and light receipts caused prices to go up 1 cent a dozen. Fancy candled stock sells from 30 to 32½ cents a dozen. Oregon eggs were placed on sale but failed to move. The potato market is slowly firming up, owing to the large portion of spuds now received being for seed instead of consumption.

Onion receipts were 25 sacks, which are considered very good at present. Minnesota and Colorado Globes were the only offerings of size, and they received little attention. They are moving well on the outside, and prices remain well up.

Pink beans were the only variety placed on sale despite the two carloads which arrived from the North. There were 667 sacks in the consignments. On the outside and among general trade the small white bean is the best seller at present.

Local sweets were the only variety put up and receipts were 121 sacks. None sold, although the prices were lower than usual.

Business in general was not very heavy, and considerable stock of different fruits, as well as vegetables, was left over. Apples moved slowly at unchanged prices, while citrus stock moved scarcely at all. Navel oranges were very plentiful, and there were some heavy receipts of Mexican limes, which are bringing from 12 to 15 cents a dozen, or $1 a hundred when taken in that large a quantity. Dried fruit is moving better again and there has been an especially good call for white figs. All of the other listed products have been moving well at unchanged prices.

LOS ANGELES STOCK EXCHANGE.

LOCAL STOCK MARKET SAGS.

LACK OF BUYING ORDERS CAUSES SLUGGISH SESSION.

Sales of Home Preferred Feature of Call—Six-Cent Assessment on Reed Crude Causes Decline—Associated Oil Stagnant — Bidding for Bank Stocks.

Another lethargic market opened on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday. Trading was restricted to three stocks only, and prices showed a tendency toward levels. The main reason was the almost absolute lack of buying orders, while selling orders in some of the favorite issues had a tendency to break prices in other issues through the sympathetic effect on the market.

Continued selling of Home preferred at comparatively weak prices was a feature of the dull session which is causing considerable comment. The stock was handled to the extent of forty-five shares at 49.50, showing no change from the selling price of the previous day, and closing, unchanged, at 49.50 @50.25. Some brokers advanced the theory that this offering of the stock in large blocks at really weak prices, is a move in the game to obtain higher telephone rates for which the companies are fighting through the City Council. However, there seem plenty of buyers in the market at present prices, nearly all stock offered, unless in too large blocks, being taken up quickly. The common stock remained stationary at 9.00@14.00.

Four shares of Santa Monica Bay Home Telephone preferred stock was sold during the call, seller five days, at 30.00. This is the first sale of the stock on the local board since it was listed last week. The company is in reorganization of the Southern California Home. The stock closed with a bid at 25.00, offered at 35.00. There was a strong bid for Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company, which closed at 165.00, with none offered. There was a fresh bid of 44.00 made for United States Long Distance stock, which was held firmly at 48.00, closing unchanged from the previous call. Other industrial stocks were inactive.

Two thousand shares of Reed Crude Oil were sold on yesterday's call, one lot going at 12, with the closing sale at 11. The stock closed slightly weak, at 12@15.

The reason for the weakness developed when announcement was made that an assessment of 6 cents a share was levied Tuesday. Reed Crude has been one of the most exceptional stocks in the local list. Several years ago the company owned a considerable acreage in the Kern River field, but sold it to the Associated, taking the stock and bonds of that concern as payment. These holdings were gradually sold out, and furnished the money with which the enormous dividends paid by the company were made possible. At the time of the purchase of the land by the Associated Oil Company, about 300 acres of unproved territory was not taken in. There is one forty-acre tract, especially, which is claimed to be extremely high-grade land, with producing wells on four sides of it, and it is now proposed to develop this.

There was a slight change in Union Oil quotations, but no sales were made. The stock closed at the bid of 220.00@230.00, the bid showing a gain of ½ point. Union Provident was unchanged, at 210.00@230.00.

No bidding was heard for Western Union Oil yesterday. The stock closing offered at 125.00. Associated Oil developed a decided tendency to seek lower levels, closing with a decline of ⅝ of a point in the bid and ½ in the ask, at 28.50@29.00. None sold, and bidding was slack. Amalgamated, which was handled to good advantage on Tuesday's session, selling at between 67.00 and 68.50, closed yesterday without a trade, at 58.00@70.00, showing a decline of ½ a point in the bid. Central was up ¼, at 81½ bid, with none offered, and Columbia closed at 86@90, one point down on the bid than on Tuesday. Globe Oil was off ⅝, at 13@15, and New Pennsylvania was bid for at 1.05 and offered at 1.20, down five points on the asking price, compared with the previous close. This is the first bid for several days. Mexican Petroleum was another interesting feature, being bid for quite sharply, and closing with an advance at 1.35½@1.40, up 1½ points on the bid, with the asked price unchanged. Olinda Land was off at 10@11, showing a decline of 1 and 1½ points, respectively. No quotations were made on Rice Ranch Oil.

There was little business in the bond list. A few changes were made, and one or two new quotations posted. Home first refunds were unchanged, at 79@82½. Union Transportation bonds show a decline of ½ a point, closing at 86½@90. There was a fresh bid of 89 made for Pacific Light and Power Company bonds, which closed at 90, with the Pacific Electric Railway bonds were bid for at 99 and offered at 107.

Further bidding for Merchants' National called attention to that stock, which closed at 350.00 bid, with none offered. This was two points lower than on Tuesday, but there seems to be quite a demand for it. A bid of 101.00 was made for Globe Savings Bank stock, which closed offered at 115.00. National Bank of California was up at 155.00 bid, with the asked firm at 210.00. Others remained stationary.

Little interest was manifested during the mining call. Trade only amounted to 2000 shares of stock. Johnnie Consolidated sold at 12, and closed at 11½@12, and Consolidated Mines changed hands at 1¼, closing at 1¼@1½. The news of the poor showing made by the property near Tonopah, which was investigated by the Clark Copper Company, caused a decline in that stock, which closed at 7½@9¾. Others were unchanged.

LOS ANGELES-NEVADA EXCHANGE.

MARKET GOES LOWER STILL.

GOLDFIELD LEADERS ALL SUFFER SAME COMPLAINT.

Jumbo Extension Goes Down Six Points and Later Recovers—Daisy Off Five Points, Fraction One, Florence and Merger Each Five. Little Trading.

Yesterday witnessed another very dull day on the Los Angeles-Nevada Stock Exchange, with the result that the sales list fell off very considerably from the normal level. The only feature was the serious slump in Jumbo Extension, which carried the quotation as low as 36 at one time in the day, and continued weakness of other Goldfield leaders. There was little demand for securities in outside camps, and cheap stocks were practically neglected.

Jumbo Extension, which sold on Tuesday at from 44 to 42, opened three points down from the minimum price of the previous day and, on morning sales of five shares, went as low as 36. In the informal, there was a half-hearted rally, which carried the quotation back to 42, the closing price of Tuesday. There seems to be no particular excuse for the fluctuations except the necessities of northern brokers, who seem to have selected the issue for manipulation.

Of the other Goldfield favorites, Daisy again took the lead with total sales of 4200 shares. Trading opened four points down from previous sales price at 1.07, and on transfers of 2100 shares went through the intervening points to 1.04 before the morning session was over. At the informal, first trades took place at 1.03, but there was an upward move towards the end which sent prices back to 1.06—a net loss of five points for the day. It is now said in some quarters that the recent rumors of a strike were not based upon fact or were grossly exaggerated in the interests of the scalping contingent.

Combination Fraction joined in the general cellar procession and, on opening trades, lost one point from Tuesday's close. It later went to 67 and, with total sales of 2300 shares for the day, closed with the sale of one board lot at 68—a net loss of one point.

Florence, which sold at 4.65 on Tuesday morning, opened five points down at 4.60 and later went to 3.97½ on a seller-ten raid by bear interests. Last sale of the day took place at 4.00—a net loss of five points. Merger on one sale of a board lot, was down five points from last sale at 4.50.

Johnnie Consolidated was a little stronger at 12, with light trading. Skidoo Blue Jay sold to the extent of 3000 shares at 12½ seller-five. There was some trading in Bonnie Claire at stationary quotations, and Red Hills appeared with a small sale at 25. The rest of the list was uninteresting, with no trading.

Notes.

The steamer Santa Rosa arrived this morning on her upcoast trip from San Diego, and proceeded to San Francisco and intermediate ports.

The steamer Yosemite is engaged to bring a cargo of ties from the Columbia River for the Santa Fe. She will make one more voyage to San Francisco before coming here, however, and will not make this port prior to March 15.

The steamer Santa Monica sailed soon after midnight for San Francisco, whence she will go north to reload.

The schooner King Cyrus finished discharging this morning and sailed this afternoon for the North to reload. The Irene took her place at pier No. 3, and began discharging.

The list of coasters now lying in the bay of San Francisco, including the fleet of the Alaska Packers' Association, now totals nearly two hundred vessels. At other ports on the Coast are from one to six vessels idle for want of charters.

GENERAL EASTERN.

WHEAT SUFFERS SEVERE BREAK.

OPENS NEARLY CENT BELOW TUESDAY'S CLOSE.

Decline Is Caused by Drop in Liverpool and European Markets Because of Enormous Offerings from Argentina—Corn and Oats Weak Along With Wheat.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—Wheat opened nearly 1 cent below the close of yesterday because of a severe break at Liverpool and European markets, because of enormous offerings from Argentina. The heavy snowfall in the Middle West during the last forty-eight hours also weakened prices, it being claimed that the snow will provide ample moisture for the fall-sown crop. Later the selling became urgent because of the probability that local receipts for the next few days will be greatly lessened by the severe storm. The close was firm. May opened ⅞@1 cent lower at 90⅝@⅞, advanced to 92¾ and closed at 92¼@92⅝.

Corn followed wheat. May closed at 60⅝.

Oats were weak in the early day along with wheat and corn. May closed at 52⅝.

Provisions were firm at the opening because of small receipts of live hogs, but the market weakened on selling by local packers at the close, May pork was 10 cents, lard was down 7 cents, ribs were 5 cents lower.

Cash quotations were as follows: Flour was easy; No. 2 spring wheat, 1.01@1.04; No. 3, 93@1.01; No. 2 red, 91½@94½; No. 3, 90@93⅝; No. 2 yellow, 86@87; No. 2 oats, 52½; No. 3 white, 50@51¾; No. 2 rye, 79½; fair to choice malting barley, 80@88; No. 1 northwestern flaxseed, 1.18; timothy, contract grades, 13.10; short ribs, sides (loose), 5.75@6.12½; mess pork, per bbl., 10.85@.97; lard, per 100 lbs., 7.07½; short clear sides (boxed), 6.12½@6.37½; whisky, basis of high wines, 1.25.

Boston Copper Market.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO FRED DORR.]

BOSTON, Feb. 19.—The market opened soft and was purely supported. Steady selling of Amalgamated for New York account was a feature of the day's transactions, and weighed heavily on the local list. Scattered liquidation in some of the better class of coppers caused wide declines, and the lower priced shares fell sharply under the lightest pressure. Traders were all bearish and continue to hammer stocks on every opportunity. The general market rallied in the last few minutes on covering of shorts, and closed not far from the opening quotations and with very little stock in sight.

News that all grades of copper have been reduced ½c in the bid and asked prices at New York, making lake, 12¾@12½; electrolytic, 12¾@12⅝; and castings, 12@12¼, had considerable effect on the market.

The close was at the following quotations:

New York Metal Market.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—The London tin market was unchanged, with spot quoted at £138 10s and futures at £138 10s. The local market was weak, owing to the arrival of French supplies, which will be available for delivery. Quotations range from 27.75 to 28.50. The London copper market was lower, with spot quoted at £56 12s and futures at £54 17s. It is claimed that leading producers have sold a large quantity of copper in the domestic market since the first of the year around 13 cents, but some uncertainty seems to exist in this respect and prices today were reported weak, with lake quoted at 12.25@12.50; electrolytic at 12.12½@12.37½, and castings at 12.00@12.25. The London lead market was lower, at £14. Locally, the market was quoted at 3.65@3.75. Spelter declined 5s. to £21 5s in London, but remained dull and unchanged, at 4.80@4.85 locally. The London [illegible] market was a shade higher, with standard foundry quoted at 67s and Cleveland warrants at 49s 7½d. Locally, no change was reported and the market is more or less nominal, with buyers and selling apart.

New York Cotton Market.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO FRED DORR.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—From a very weak opening, due to heavy declines at Liverpool, which turned strong at midday on light receipts and good outside buying for a reaction and final prices were one-fourth net higher. May closed 10c, July closed 9.94. Petroleum steady; wool, hops, hides quiet.

New York Coffee Market.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—Coffee futures closed quiet; net 5 points lower to 5 points higher. Sales were reported of 1300 bags, including: February at 5.90; March, 5.95; April, 5.95; July, 6.10, and December at 6.20. Spot coffee steady; No. 7 Rio, 8¼; No. 4 Santos, 8¾@9. Thrown from Wagon.

B. M. Johnson, a teamster living at No. 169 East California street, Pasadena, was thrown from his wagon at Washington and Main streets yesterday afternoon and sustained a dislocation of the shoulder. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital where his injuries were dressed, after which he was sent home. Johnson's horses took fright at a passing car and in trying to quiet them, he lost his balance and fell to the pavement.

Prohibition Banquet.

The Los Angeles Prohibitionists will give a banquet on Saturday evening at 6:30, at the Federation Club, for which C. J. Hall, secretary, has made elaborate preparations. The toastmaster will be Fred F. Wheeler, and responses to toasts will be made by C. R. Eby, A. K. Nash, Mrs. Mary A. Stewart, W. E. Roberts, C. E. Nash, R E. Blight and others. There will be a number of selections by the Quaker City quartette.

New Postal Stations.

Because of the rapid increase in postal business in the residence districts several of the present substations are considered inadequate for handling the rush of mail. Assistant Postmaster Harrison stated yesterday that the main office had invited proposals for two new stations, one in the University district on Wesley avenue and the other for Station K in the Central-avenue section of the city. "The present stations are too small for our needs," said Harrison. "The growth of postal business is amazing."

FIERCE BATTLE WITH MOORS.

French Forces in Morocco Defeat the Enemy in Hand-to-Hand Encounter.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PARIS, Feb. 19.—A dispatch received here from Vice-Admiral Phillibert, the French commander in Morocco, says that on February 16 and 17, the French had a serious battle with the Moors at a point fifteen miles southeast of Fedala.

The French had two officers and several soldiers killed and three officers and twenty men wounded. The casualties of the Moors were heavy. The French column, which was commanded by Col. Taupin, was attacked by the Moors in a narrow defile.

The encounter was marked by a series of fierce struggles at the point of the bayonet.

In the engagement three days ago between troops of Gen. D'Amedes's forces and the Madaghra tribesmen, the casualties sustained by the enemy were heavy.

Gen. D'Amedes was assisted by the Mzab tribesmen, who surrendered recently.

NEW BANK LAW UPHELD.

Oklahoma Wins Point in Court Proceedings Brought to Test Guarantee Deposit Legislation.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

GUTHRIE (Okla.) Feb. 19.—Judge H. A. Houston, in the District Court here, today sustained a demurrer filed by Atty.-Gen. West in an injunction suit brought by the Noble State Bank against the State banking board and the bank commissioner regarding the collection of a State bank tax on the ground that there were not sufficient facts in the petition to constitute a case of action.

This is the first test on the Oklahoma guarantee deposit law. In passing on the case Judge Houston stated that under the police powers of the State, given by the act, the defendants have the power to collect the tax, as the banks that are allowed to do business in the State are corporations and that they are as much accountable to the Legislature as any other corporation which serves the public.

TO REWARD CHAMPION.

PRESIDENT TO NAME SULLIVAN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Postmaster-General Meyer, after conferring with the President today about postoffice nominations, said the President would send to the Senate today or tomorrow the nomination of Daniel E. Sullivan to succeed himself as postmaster at Cripple Creek, Colo. When the President was campaigning in 1900 for Vice-President, he was insulted by a hoodlum at Cripple Creek, and it was Sullivan who promptly knocked the man down and settled the disturbance.

There is a world of satisfaction in buying the right thing at the right time, at the RIGHT PRICE.

Today we show dress materials of our own importation; fabrics that will not be seen elsewhere, loom effects, colorings and designs that should be seen by every woman who is interested in the doings of fashion. And the great majority of these luxuriously rich creations come in single, exclusive dress lengths, so there's no danger of them ever becoming commonplace.

Some are fine sheer wool voiles with graduated satin striped borders, broken by large coin spots and squares covering the entire length of the pattern. Copenhagens and navies, pretty browns and tans, apple greens and reds are strong favorites. Then there are the more substantial materials for tailor gowns and jacket suits in a variety of fancy mixed herringbone stripes quarter of an inch wide. But we can't begin to describe them all, come and see them, see if you've ever known their equal for beauty or style or value. Prices range from $22.00 to $5.00 a pattern.

Silken Elegance For Spring

Women who fail to be charmed with THIS exhibit of novelty silks will be hard indeed.

The new Pongees, the Tuscan Fantisies, the Mandarins and the entire family of rough, coarse threaded silks will be spread before today's buyers.

There are plain ones, Persian bordered styles, odd coin spots and stripes, single or two toned; solid colored stripes, bordered effects, and a host of other styles that are as new as they are pretty and fashionable. The various shades of blue and browns ranging from seal to the most fashionable sorts, are leaders in point of color. Here, too, many of the novelties come in but one dress pattern, positively exclusive. $1.10, $1.35, $1.50 and $1.75 a yard.

BOMBSHELL.

BLACK HEART FIRES THE FRENCH COLONY.

President Sentous of the Hospital Receives It, Suspects Beautiful Matron, and Scandal Breaks—She Threatens Vengenance.

THIS is the amazing, sizzling story of a spiteful little valentine. It has created the fiercest social scandal ever known in the French colony of Los Angeles.

It was received by Louis Sentous, president of the French Hospital, and one of the most prominent business men in this city.

He believed that the sender was Mrs. Peter Clos, the charming matron of the hospital. He accused her. A dynamite bomb placed under the corner-stone of the institution could have wrought no worse havoc.

The matron has been discharged, and threatens vengeance. Half the nurses have resigned out of sympathy for her.

As the hospital is a center of interest among the local French people, the prominent families have taken sides.

A week from Sunday there will be an election for directors. Friends of Mrs. Clos declare they will punish the present directors for having sided with Sentous.

On St. Valentine's Day, Mr. Sentous found in his mail the venomous valentine, a facsimile of which is reproduced on this page.

It reads as follows:

Curses upon you. May your friends laugh at you and turn against you. May you have many serious quarrels with near relatives. May disease rest heavily on you and yours, and may you grow meaner and more like the viper in your heart until you land in hell.

For some reason, Mr. Sentous suspected Mrs. Clos of being the author of the bitter screed, which bore on its face a black heart, under which were some peculiar scrawlings.

SHE CALLS HIM LIAR.

Mrs. Clos is one of the most beautiful women in the French colony. She was a nurse in one of the Paris hospitals, and came to this country at the invitation of the directors of the French Hospital in San Francisco. About three years ago she was induced to come to this city to become matron of the French Hospital.

After receiving the valentine, Mr. Sentous happened to meet her in the office of one of the other directors of the hospital. He showed the valentine and accused her of writing it. She denied it with heat. There were accusations back and forth; threats and defiance.

The climax was that Mrs. Clos called Sentous "liar."

Whereupon Matron Clos was promptly removed. When she returned to the hospital last Saturday night, the head nurse informed her that she (the head nurse) had taken command, and would thank her for the keys.

Mrs. Clos at first refused to leave and Mr. Sentous, arriving, is alleged to have threatened to call an officer and have her put out by force.

She stayed there over Sunday. When she walked out Monday morning two of the best nurses left with her in high indignation.

Another one is said to be on the point of leaving. As the force of the hospital consists of six nurses, this appears to have cut the attendants in half.

Mrs. Clos, on quitting the hospital attempted to retaliate. She wanted to take the case before the directors.

DIRECTORATE BACKS SENTOUS.

Whereupon a meeting of the directors was held yesterday. Neither Mrs. Clos nor her husband was invited, however, to appear before the board. The action of Mr. Sentous, in discharging Mrs. Clos, was confirmed by unanimous vote.

A week from next Sunday will come the election of new directors of the hospital. Whew! The things that Mrs. Clos and her friends propose to do to Mr. Sentous and his friends, the directors.

Both parties made statements to The Times yesterday concerning the case.

Mr. Sentous produced the valentine.

"Although that started the trouble," he said, "that was not the cause of the discharge of Mrs. Clos. You see I can't say positively that she wrote it or sent it. I merely suspected her.

"The fact is, however, that but for me she would have been asked to leave two years ago. I interceded with the other directors to save her position.

"I was led to believe she had sent it because I had had occasion to 'call her down' recently. The directors were dissatisfied with her conduct of the hospital. They thought she stayed away from her duty too much.

THREE DAYS BUYING BROOM?

"One day about a week ago, she said one of the directors sent her to buy a broom. She stayed all that day and the next, and the next, and when Saturday came she still hadn't got the broom. We thought three days rather too long in which to negotiate the purchase of a broom.

"She has made all sorts of trouble in the hospital since her discharge. She stayed around there two days, and when she left succeeded in getting two of the nurses to leave with her.

"I have not a word to say in harshness against Mrs. Clos. After receiving the valentine I met her in the office of the secretary of the board of directors, and we had words. She called me a liar. After that I discharged her.

"I placed the whole matter before the board of directors, and they unanimously indorsed my action in discharging her. I am sorry that this valentine was brought into the affair at all. I cannot imagine why any one should have such diabolical sentiments against me.

"I have lived in this city all my life, and there is nothing in my life that I have to hide; it is an open book. Naturally, I was incensed at having such fearful things thrust at me."

SWEARS SHE DIDN'T.

Mrs. Clos was informed by a Times reporter that the hospital directors had decided to sustain Mr. Sentous. She was considerably agitated.

"It was that valentine," she said, dramatically. "I swear by the great God and by the heart of my mother who is dead that I did not write it. The thing was dreadful. Mr. Sentous showed it to me. It was awful. It had a lot of bad words about hell in it.

"He and I had a terrible row. We met at the office of the secretary.

"I told him I did not write the valentine. I told him I am an honorable woman. Just as honorable as his wife.

"He told me not to dare say the name of his wife. I told him the name of Clos is just as good as the name of Sentous—if not so rich.

"When I got home, the head nurse demanded the keys; she says she is now the matron. Mr. Sentous came along and tell me I must leave. I tell him it will take more than one to make me leave, and he said he will have me put out; then I leave. I stayed, the fact is, until Monday morning. When I left, three other nurses leave."

"Two," corrected her husband.

"Three," she insisted. "There is another one you don't know about who is getting ready to leave now.

"When I left, I demanded of Meester Louis Sentous a letter of recommend, telling how I had taken care of the hospital for three years. He said he would not give me any at all.

"He said I would have been discharged long before but for his influence. I said to him, 'Very well, why didn't you let them discharge me then. You didn't hear me begging for letting me stay. Why didn't you discharge me? I can get plenty places. I had much experience in a fine hospital in Paris. I have recommendations from plenty Los Angeles surgeons. I don't beg you to let me stay.'

"TO DEFEND HER HONOR."

Mrs. Clos says "to defend her honor" from the imputation of having written this atrocious valentine, she proposes to make an issue of it.

"Wait," she says, "one week after next Sunday, comes an election of the board of directors of the French hospital."

She was informed that she was charged with being neglectful of her duty. She gave one ravishing glance at appeal to high heaven for protection.

"Oh," she gasped. "I was at that place, matron, steward, house surgeon, resident physician. I was everything. At the time he speaks of I had been up for thirty-five hours without rest or sleep on a bad confinement case. By so doing I had missed my day off. I simply took the day after the confinement case was over."

Threatening Black-Heart Written Valentine, received by Louis Sentous, president of the French Hospital, whose portrait appears below. Above is Mrs. Peter Clos, the beautiful matron of the hospital, accused of sending the ugly missive and discharged, and who now threatens vengeance. Heart turned up to show the venomous scrawling beneath.

WANTS INJUNCTION MODIFIED.

Asserted Imperial Valley Will Materially Suffer If Terms Are Rigidly Adhered to.

The question of the interpretation of the decree of Judge Wellborn in the case of the New Liverpool Salt Company against the California Development Company, was raised yesterday in the Circuit Court, by counsel for the defense, who held that the defendant has a right to ask for exact construction to be put upon the injunction issued to restrain it from allowing more water to run through its canals than is required for the "substantial" needs of the settlers.

Numerous authorities were cited by Attorney McCutcheon of San Francisco, counsel for the plaintiff, and by Attorney John S. Chapman, who represents the development company.

The defendant maintains that a liberal construction of the terms of the restraining order will allow a reasonable use of the water taken from the Colorado River for domestic and irrigation purposes. It is asserted that it is impossible to regulate the flow in such a manner that none of the waste water shall reach the Salton sink.

Another question to be settled is whether the injunction shall be suspended pending appeal. Decision may not be reached by the higher court for months. If the terms of the injunction are rigidly enforced, it is asserted that the Imperial Valley will suffer material damage during the approaching spring and summer months.

The plaintiff is fighting strenuously against any modification of the restraining order and holds that the decree must be observed despite possible injury to commercial and agricultural interests.

Governor's Staff Members Told to Work.

Rapid Inspection Begun by Army Officer.

Col. Herron's Knees Give Way Suddenly.

Col. Thomas Wilhelm, U.S.A., began the most important inspection ever made of the militia of this section last night.

The first inspection was that of Brig.-Gen. Wankowski's staff, and the members of the Governor's staff living in Los Angeles. It consisted of a series of heart-to-heart talks and instructions.

The inspector particularly addressed himself to the Governor's staff officers, who are usually considered to be merely ornamental political appointees. He requested these Governor's staff aides to get busy. He told them they will be expected to visit the commands of the National Guard in this vicinity as representatives of the Governor, and that they must make regular reports of their military activities to the adjutant-general.

DRAMATIC EFFECT.

Col. Rufus H. Herron of the Governor's staff added an unconsciously dramatic effect to the remarks of the inspector by fainting in the midst of the officers. While standing rigidly at "attention," with others, Col. Herron's knees suddenly gave way beneath him, and he would have fallen had it not been for the quick support

SITE FOR NEW ORPHEUM.

Half-Million-Dollar Corner at Fifth and Main Streets May Be the Place.

The northwest corner of Fifth and Main streets may be the site of the long-planned new Orpheum Theater. This is information received from practically unimpeachable sources, and indicates that the vaudeville house is figuring very seriously on this magnificent corner.

The property consists of a lot 120x160 feet, on which is an old two-story frame building now occupied by a café. It is probably worth about $500,000, and is owned by the Rowan-Bilicke Syndicate, which owns the Hotel Alexandria and the new Security Building. When asked for confirmation of the news, R. A. Rowan of R. A. Rowan & Co., agents for the property, said:

"There is absolutely no foundation for the story. We have been approached by the officers of the Orpheum Circuit, but nothing has been done to give any color to such a rumor."

Martin Beck, general manager, and Morris Meyerefeld, president of the Orpheum Theater Company, also denied the report, but admitted that there are three sites under consideration for the new theater. The deal probably will be closed by the end of the week, and work will be begun at once on plans for the building.

SMALL BLAZE, SLIGHT DAMAGE.

A small fire in the foundry of the California Tool Works at No. 114 College street called out the department last night. The damage was slight as the flames were discovered before they had gathered much headway. The foundry was deserted at the time the fire broke out and it is supposed smouldering sparks from the blast furnace were responsible for the blaze.

SPEAKER AT OCCIDENTAL.

Mrs. Robert J. Burdette will be the speaker at the weekly assembly at Occidental Friday morning at 11 o'clock. The friends of the college are invited to attend the exercises.

The fourth in the course of lectures for business women, at the Young Women's Christian Association, will be delivered on Friday evening by W. G. Lincoln, on the subject of "Salesmanship." Miss Yette Nordskov will sing.

NO GREETING AT SEA.

Secretary of Navy Suggests That Local Plan for Meeting Fleet Be Abandoned.

The Navy Department frowns on the plan of Philip D. Wilson and a number of local associates to charter a steamer and meet Admiral Evans and his fleet at Magdalena Bay. Mr. Wilson received a letter yesterday from Victor H. Metcalf, Secretary of the Navy, in which reasons are given for the objections, and the entire project of steaming out to meet the fleet will be abandoned.

Mr. Metcalf explains that the fleet will visit Magdalena Bay primarily for target practice and that there should be no interruption or distraction that might divert the minds of the officers and men. Mr. Metcalf suggests that the greeting be deferred until the actual arrival of the battleships in a United States port.

Mr. Wilson, in reply to Secretary Metcalf, states that the charter of the steamship has been canceled and that the trip will not be undertaken. The party had intended to go to Magdalena Bay in the President of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company and greet Admiral Evans there.

Mayor Harper, on behalf of the people of Los Angeles, and as chairman of the Fleet Committee, sent a telegram yesterday to Admiral Dewey at Washington, inviting him to be the guest of the city on the arrival of the fleet. "It would be an honor we should appreciate," said the Mayor in his telegram, "if you can arrange to be with us on probably the most important occasion in the history of the Pacific Coast."

As Admiral Dewey already has accepted the invitation of San Francisco to be present there to welcome the fleet officially, Mayor Harper simply bid him come to Los Angeles as a guest, not wishing to have it even appear that Los Angeles would dim the affair planned by the northern city.

FINE FIND FOR FELLOW FINED.

TWENTY-DOLLAR SPEED PENALTY BRINGS BIG RETURNS.

Seattle Man Who Went Too Fast in Auto to Suit Alhambra Justice Pays the Price, but Gets Rare Gold Coin in Change That Not Only Wipes Out Loss, but Swells Purse

This is a story of how Richard Stevens Eskridge, Esq., fresh from the wilds of Seattle, plunged from happiness into gloom and back into happiness again, and how he enjoyed and made money by being arrested for speeding his automobile.

Mr. Eskridge, who is accustomed to running his automobile as he pleases through the forests and wildernesses in different wards of Seattle, arrived in Los Angeles the first of the week, accompanied by a thoroughly-tamed sea-going automobile. He took a suite at the Alexandria. Tuesday morning he sallied forth to seek new fields to conquer, and went out Alhambra way. He passed beneath the bending pepper trees and flashed by old San Gabriel Mission at a rate which disturbed the classic shades of the valley.

An untutored Marshal measured his speed by a motorcycle, and arrested him on the charge of running his auto about seventy miles an hour during the slow periods.

Eskridge fumed and raged, but the Marshal was obdurate, and the autoist was compelled to give bail for his appearance before Justice Ruth.

This was the ending of the happiness and the beginning of the depths of gloom for Eskridge. Voicing maledictions upon Los Angeles county officials, he appeared yesterday morning before Justice Ruth, and, assuming a haughty bearing, asked what the damage would be. He was told it would be about $20.

Eskridge deigned no reply, but produced a $50 bill and laid it on the desk. In exchange he was released from custody and received a number of pieces of coin, including a $10 gold piece. Then he speeded back to the Alexandria.

The gloom now begins to lift. Eskridge walked down Spring street to a curio store and was seized with a desire to purchase a curio. He selected it and laid down the $10 coin in payment.

The curio dealer examined the coin closely. Then he became agitated. Eskridge got interested. Inquiring the cause of the agitation, he was told that the coin was dated 1849 and was one of the very rare gold coins minted in California; that its value to any collector of coins was $80.

Eskridge secured the return of the coin, paid for his purchase in silver, and marched back in triumph to his hotel. He figures that the $20 paid for speeding the automobile was well invested.

WOMAN ARTIST DEAD.

Mrs. E. E. Edwards, Long a Resident of California, Succumbs at Hospital.

Mrs. E. E. Edwards of No. 917 Valencia street, wife of Col. E. E. Edwards, died at the Pacific Hospital yesterday afternoon. She was well known in Los Angeles, and in Orange and Santa Ana. She was 62 years of age, and had lived in California since 1881. Born in Burlington, Iowa, she was the daughter of Col. Isaac Lefter, who gained fame as the author of the bill which resulted in the building of the turnpike from Wheeling, W. Va., to the Mississippi River. Married in 1863, Mrs. Edwards spent her honeymoon near Springfield, Mo., where her husband engaged in fighting guerrillas.

Upon coming to California Mr. and Mrs. Edwards settled in Orange, and after living there for many years removed to Santa Ana. She was an accomplished artist, and many of her paintings of California scenes have been particularly admired.

There remain, besides the bereaved husband, a daughter, Mrs. Lulu Chase, of Omaha, who was visiting her mother during the last illness, and was with her when death called, two sons, Wilkie Edwards of South Carolina, and Leroy Edwards, a local attorney.

FOR CLUB AND GYMNASIUM.

At a social and smoker of the men of the parish of St. Athanasius Episcopal Church, held in Guild Hall on Custer avenue, on Tuesday evening, a movement was started for the establishment of a clubhouse and gymnasium. Another meeting will be held at the same place on Tuesday evening, March 3, to which all the men of the community are invited. At this time it is thought some definite step will be taken.

PUBLIC SERVICE—OFFICIAL DOINGS.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Opposition from saloon-keepers to the inspection by the health officers of their free lunch counters may lead to an amendment of the city's pure food laws.

Wholesale liquor dealers outside the saloon zone are preparing to test in the courts the validity of the ordinance requiring them to move inside or go out of business; they have enjoyed immunity for almost a year.

The shock of an inspector sending in a voluntary resignation broke up a meeting of the Board of Health yesterday.

Judge Conrey yesterday afternoon announced that he will hear this morning the motion of defendants' counsel to set aside the indictments of the twenty-three men accused of illegal registration at Ocean Park. Twelve witnesses testified for the people in the Dennett Childs trial yesterday in Judge Conrey's court.

Judge Hutton yesterday heard evidence in Mrs. Cora Bess's suit against her son, T. L. Johnson, to set aside a deed to her homestead, alleged to have been secured from her by Johnson by false pretenses.

Judge James yesterday took under advisement E. D. Jackson's suit against John W. Lincoln, an Ocean Park real estate dealer, to secure an accounting for lots sold for Jackson.

Judge James denied George W. Lyons's application for an injunction to restrain the city from awarding its printing for 1908 to the Los Angeles Daily Journal.

The sending of a "comic" valentine, accompanied by an abusive letter has caused a women's war on Mateo street, and yesterday the Prosecuting Attorney's office was asked to issue a complaint charging criminal libel.

Three East First street gamblers were heavily fined in the Police Court yesterday.

Attorney J. Marion Brooks, who got a gun when he heard Kentucky made light of yesterday, was arrested for carrying a concealed weapon, and will be tried today.

AT THE CITY HALL.

ON TRAIL OF "COME-BACKS."

COUNCIL MAY AMEND CITY PURE FOOD LAW.

Attorneys and Police Judges Have Swatted Present Ordinance Until It Is Punched Out of Shape—Saloons Object to Inspection of Free Lunch Counters.

The City Attorney's office, the City Prosecutor's office, the District Attorney's office and the police court judges have combined to mix up the restaurant ordinances so that the restaurant inspectors have been compelled practically to suspend business. Chief Inspector Schwegel said last night after the health board session that it is useless to try to secure convictions under the law.

It appears that each judge and each attorney has placed a different interpretation on certain sections; there are now fourteen cases pending in the courts, but the inspectors admit that there is but scant prospect for securing convictions under any of them.

Inspector Schwegel has secured the coöperation of the District Attorney's office as well as of the staff of the City Attorney in preparing a new ordinance. He says that the one coming will have all the strong points of the present law with the weak ones strengthened sufficiently to stand the test of a police court defense.

One of the sections of the present ordinance subjected to a bitter attack is that conferring on the health inspectors jurisdiction over free lunch counters in saloons. This section was added three weeks ago, it has become unpopular already with the liquor interests.

The saloon keepers have retained attorneys to make a test case of this section on the first arrest of one of their number for violating it. They assert that the restaurant laws do not apply in cases where food is given away.

The restaurant inspectors are now working in conjunction with the District Attorney's office in enforcing the provisions of the new State pure food law that went into effect on January 1. The State provides a sum of money to be used in securing convictions under the new law and an arrangement has been made by which the restaurant inspectors are to represent both the city and the State.

In the new ordinance it is proposed to strengthen the sections referring to "come-backs." The ordinance as originally adopted condemned all the leavings of the table to the garbage barrel, but a coterie of restaurant keepers induced the Council to pass an amendment so modifying the law that a restaurant keeper may serve certain portions of his bill of fare until they are wholly devoured.

ANOTHER TEST CASE.

TO ATTACK LIQUOR LAW.

Attorneys representing a score of wholesale liquor dealers, so-called, are preparing for a test case to knock out the ordinance passed by the Council ten months ago requiring the wholesalers to move within the saloon limits or to go out of business.

When this ordinance was passed, the Council very considerately provided that the wholesalers outside the zone should receive a year's time within which to secure locations inside the saloon zone. It now appears that the liquor men on the outside have made no preparation to move into the business district; they are going to stay where they are while their attorneys fight the law on the ground that it is class legislation, confiscation of property and worthless on general principles.

The liquor men figure that the lawyers should be able to keep this case in the courts for a year at least; they have enjoyed practical immunity during the last twelve months by reason of the ordinance; they hope to remain unmolested for another twelve months and to win when the case is finally decided.

The saloon men are jubilant over the prospect of two years of plenty, unmolested by the reform forces. The Anti-Saloon League has announced that it expects to present an initiative ordinance attacking the saloons at the city election two years hence; while they are waiting the saloons are not to be molested, so that they may become as bad as possible and the people may be worked up to the point of wiping them all out at one stroke.

This means two fat years for the saloon-keepers; some of them are a bit unnerved by the prohibition cloud hanging on the eastern horizon, but most of them figure on making their pile and selling out before the blow falls.

It has already been announced that there is to be no organized effort to increase the saloon licenses. The temperance element is working on the hypothesis that if the license were doubled the revenue from the saloons would be so great that the taxpayers would never vote to close them up and stand for higher taxes.

SHOCK FOR BOARD.

ONE INSPECTOR QUITS.

The health board experienced quite a shock yesterday afternoon when Stock Inspector Leon Young tendered his resignation; such an act is almost without precedent in the history of the health department.

Young's position pays a salary of $150 a month. It has been regarded as one of the sinecures at the City Hall. Young said last night that he is resigning to give his entire attention to his private practice as veterinary surgeon. The shock almost killed the Mayor's secretary, who had not been apprized that it was coming, and, consequently, didn't have a substitute ready to take his place. It is possible that the board may not fill the position until July 1, in order to decrease the running expenses of the health department.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

SURPRISE FOR PROSECUTION.

NEW MOTION TO SET ASIDE ALL INDICTMENTS.

Attorneys for Defendant in Alleged Illegal Registrations at Ocean Park Claim That Omission of the Names of Three Witnesses Renders Nugatory Grand Jury's Returns.

Counsel for Dennett Childs, on trial in Judge Conrey's court for alleged illegal registration at Ocean Park, sprung another surprise yesterday afternoon by again moving that all the indictments of the twenty-three men be set aside on the ground that not all the names of witnesses examined in their cases were appended. Judge Conrey refused to entertain the motion yesterday afternoon, but said he would hear argument this morning.

This new turn of the defense was due to testimony elicited from some of the witnesses for the people on cross-examination yesterday afternoon. H. F. Tallman, day clerk at the Hotel Decatur, Ocean Park; Louis Dupuy, night clerk, and Thomas O. Evans, proprietor, stated that they had given testimony before the grand jury in the cases of other defendants beside Childs. It is asserted that their names are not appended to the indictments in question, as required by law.

While Mrs. Amelia Hagg, No. 937 Stanford avenue, was testifying yesterday she suddenly asked for a glass of water, which Chief Deputy District-Attorney Hartley Shaw handed to her. As she was placing it on the stand at her side, she fell in a faint, and E. A. Meserve, Childs's counsel, picked her up and carried her into the judge's chamber, where she soon revived. Mrs. Hagg testified that she had seen members of the Childs family about the house, No. 927 Stanford avenue, for over a year.

Mrs. Anna Deets, who keeps a grocery store near by, testified that the Childs family had traded with her for more than twelve months. Charles J. Millen, a grocery clerk, said that he had seen Childs taking a car several times in the neighborhood. John Powers, a vegetable dealer, said he had supplied the Childs family with vegetables for over a year, while Miss Blanche Reed and Miss Post, school teachers, testified that Childs's daughter has attended the neighborhood public school since the fall term opened. Ella Clark and John Powers, neighbors, testified that they had seen Childs about the district.

Mourel Taylor, a school chum of Childs's daughter, testified that she had seen Childs at the house and that he was there setting off fireworks last Fourth of July. Miss Emma Erbes, a neighbor, said she had seen Childs about the house.

H. F. Tallman, day clerk at the Hotel Decatur; Louis Dupuy, night clerk last August, and Thomas O. Evans, proprietor, testified that Childs occupied room No. 116, August 30, and that he had ordered a bottle of whisky sent upstairs. The whisky was placed in evidence. They produced cards from their registration index which showed that Childs had engaged the room for September. Evans testified that he had not paid for it, and other cards were produced to show that the room was rented to several other parties during September. It was brought out in the course of their testimony that the sheets of the hotel register containing the names of Childs and other interested parties had been torn out by persons unknown.

The cross-examination of Evans and his employés was sharp and long-drawn out, and, as in the case of all other witnesses, objections were entered to all testimony produced.

DEMANDS PROFITS.

SAYS AGENT TOOK CREAM.

Greatly dissatisfied when he learned that John W. Lincoln, an Ocean Park real estate man, had made $1000 profit on the sale of a lot in Santa Monica and two lots in Ocean Park, that he had commissioned him to sell for him, E. D. Jackson of Minneapolis brought suit for an accounting. Judge James, after listening to the evidence yesterday, took under consideration the question whether the profits were rightly Lincoln's or Jackson's.

Both parties testified that the latter had bought the lots in 1902, and that in May, 1903, on his return to Minnesota, he gave Lincoln a verbal order to sell them at a minimum price of $825 for two lots and $425 for the other. In February, 1904, Lincoln notified Jackson that he had sold the lots, and forwarded to him $1128, which was then satisfactory to Jackson.

But when Jackson returned to California last fall and found that the real estate man had made $1000 profit on the three lots that Lincoln had carried himself for some time after paying Jackson, the latter made an investigation, and now says that he told Lincoln to sell them at the highest market price. Lincoln denies this, and says the transaction was carried out according to the verbal agreement.

HEARING POSTPONED.

OLDER TRIAL GOES OVER.

By stipulation between counsel for Fremont Older and the District Attorney, the preliminary hearing of the Older libel suit before Justice Summerfield, which was to have been heard this morning, has been postponed until March 5, next.

When the case is called in the township court today the stipulation will be made public. It is now freely admitted in official circles that the case probably will never come to trial. The real reason for the postponement was not made public yesterday, but the other cases along the same lines also have been postponed in the San Francisco courts.

Editor Older is charged with criminal libel against Luther Brown, an attorney of Los Angeles. Constable Ben Cohn and Constable Frank Cochran of the local township court kidnaped him in San Francisco, but he was freed by habeas corpus when the train reached Santa Barbara. Older brought suit against Brown on this score and the fight has been on ever since, with half a dozen postponed hearings.

CITY SUSTAINED.

COURT DENIES INJUNCTION.

A decision adverse to George W. Lyons in his injunction suit against the city to restrain it from awarding the 1908 printing to the Los Angeles Daily Journal, on the ground that the Los Angeles News made a lower bid, was handed down by Judge James yesterday.

The court held that the contract has been let to a newspaper of general circulation, having a daily issue, while the Los Angeles News is a weekly publication, which could not, in advance of its conversion into a daily newspaper, as contemplated should its bid have been accepted, be guaranteed to have any circulation as a daily. The opinion states that a newspaper of "general circulation" within the meaning of the law is one furnishing general news matter, circulated among different classes of people and having a bona-fide subscription list. The decision is signed by all the Superior Court judges except Judge Wilbur.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

WAS JAILED. Alleging that he was imprisoned falsely, R. E. Edwards yesterday filed a $10,000 damage suit in the Superior Court against the city of Redondo Beach and its officials. He says he was arrested last August on a charge of doing business at Redondo without a license, and later served five days in the County Jail, from which he was not released until he paid $5 fine. He says he paid his license and that his arrest and imprisonment were illegal.

SUES PASADENA. The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé Railroad Company yesterday filed suit in the Superior Court to recover from the city of Pasadena $1603, collected as tax on the corporation's real estate in Pasadena during 1906.

CASE DISMISSED. At their request the attachment suit of James H. Shankland and Jefferson P. Chandler against Mrs. Louisa W. Sensor for a balance of $221 alleged due in January, has been dismissed in the Superior Court. The plaintiffs acted as Mrs. Sensor's counsel in the Haddock will contest.

CROSS-COMPLAINT. Alleging that he was induced by the false representations of Samuel H. Williams and Joseph Brownstone to buy forty-five lots at Oceano Beach, San Luis Obispo county, for $7392, Frederick Day yesterday filed in the Superior Court a cross-complaint in the suit brought by the Oceano Beach Land and Improvement Company against Williams, Day and Brownstone. He asks that Williams and Brownstone repay $1378 expended by him, and be ordered to surrender the contract of sale.

DENIES ADOPTION. Denying that she ever adopted Louis Calvez, known as Louis Blondeau, and asserting that he says he has been adopted by her that he may secure part of her estate, Mrs. Marie Blondeau yesterday petitioned the Superior Court for an order to perpetuate her testimony. She asserts that while living at Cordova, Argentine Republic, she and her husband took the child and brought him up, allowing him to assume the family name, but did not adopt him.

COMPULSION CHARGED. Asserting that Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Osborn in August, 1907, gave, under compulsion, to Mrs. Myrtle F. Maag Putnam, a deed to a Portland-street lot owned by O. D. Osburn, the latter and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Osborn yesterday filed suit in the Superior Court against Mrs. Putnam, her husband, Henry Roeder and W. H. Dutton, asking that the deed be set aside. It is alleged that Mrs. Putnam secured the deed by threats to have Thomas Osborn imprisoned for an offense which the latter says he did not commit.

TRIALS SET. William B. Bagwell pleaded not guilty to a charge of rape and Judge Smith yesterday set his trial for April 8. Charles Lawson pleaded not guilty to uttering a fraudulent check, and will be tried March 13.

CASE DISMISSED. On motion of the District Attorney, Judge Smith yesterday dismissed the charge against Max Carlton of burglarizing the Young Men's Alliance, January 4.

PLEADS GUILTY. M. J. Glassberg yesterday uleaded guilty to a charge of forging Isabell Lorimer's name to a $40 check on the United States National Bank, Denver, February 4. He will be sentenced by Judge Smith Friday.

IS SENTENCED. J. McCoy was yesterday sentenced by Judge Smith to sixty days in the County Jail for the petty larceny of gas pipe from the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company.

FINE POINT. Judge Rives yesterday took under advisement the question whether the validity of the will of Joseph Chamberlain, by which his $30,000 estate passes to the children of his son, William, is affected because the dead man, in signing the document, left about an inch of space between the signature and the testamentary clause, while the code provides the signature must be affixed directly at its end. The legality of the will is not questioned in other respects.

BOUND OVER. Walter Hoff Seeley was yesterday bound over to the Superior Court on a charge of embezzling $450 from Richard Ferris, following an examination before Justice Selph, in the course of which several clerks of financial institutions testified as to details of real estate transaction in which Seeley and Ferris were interested. It was stated that Seeley secured a $1300 check in escrow at the Los Angeles Abstract and Trust Company with other money for the purchase of a home for Ferris as the latter's agent, and deposited it at the Central National Bank to his own account. Seeley offered no evidence and was released on bond.

BOY GONE. Sheriff Hammel has issued a circular notifying police officials of the State of the disappearance of George L. Carter, 16 years old, from his Los Angeles home, January 6. The boy has an inch scar on his forehead, has brown hair and eyes, a dark complexion, and weighs about 130 pounds.

INCORPORATIONS. Articles of incorporation were filed with the County Clerk yesterday by the Ebell of Long Beach, a social club, the Cashier Cash Register Company, capital stock $50,000, the Pacific Brass and Hardware Manufacturing Company, $25,000; Biescon Brothers, capital stock $50,000, and the Southwestern Machinery and Supply Company, $25,000.

FLESH, white, pink, brunette. Satin skin cream is made in four dainty tints. 25c.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

WOMEN AT WAR OVER LETTER.

MATEO STREET IS AROUSED BY VALENTINE EPISODE.

Matron Who Receives Uncomplimentary "Comic" Sends It to Husband of Person She Suspects, Accompanied by Epistle Claimed to Be Criminally Libelous.

Alleging that Mrs. Sam Smith of No. 1014 Mateo street wrote insulting letters to her husband, Mrs. Nancy Young of No. 1018 Mateo street yesterday made complaint to Prosecuting Attorney Ford, asking for a warrant charging criminal libel.

The entire district where the women reside has taken sides in the case, and if it is thrashed out in court, the neighbors say they will all be there.

Mrs. Smith alleges that Mrs. Young sent her comic Valentines with very suggestive poems attached. The former mailed them to Mr. Young, who works at the Pacific Coast Planing Mill Company. The latter presented them to his wife, thereby completing the circuit, and the sparks began to fly.

The comic Valentines were turned into the prosecutor's office yesterday afternoon. One burlesqued a woman who had the shopping habit. The figure on it was a "fright" and the following classic was printed beneath: "Yours is the class that merchants are decrying, Pricing all the goods but never buying."

Some extra lines had been added in pencil but had been obliterated. In sending this Valentine to Mr. Young, Mrs. Smith is accused of having written a letter to the effect that if Mrs. Young would spend more time "in attending to her own business and in keeping house properly, instead of getting out on the street and trying to straddle the car tracks for the benefit of street car men, she might get along better."

Another Valentine sent to Young bore the picture of a tall, scrawny woman and the wording beneath was: "Such an awful mug."

Mrs. Smith alleges Mrs. Young sent her that.

Each woman claims to be the aggrieved party and both demand justice. With Solomon-like foresight, Attorney Ford postponed the issuance of a complaint and sent word to Mrs. Smith to call upon him and recite her side of the story.

Attorney Brooks Arrested.

Attorney J. Marion Brooks was arrested yesterday by Patrolman Beaumont and arraigned before Justice Chambers in the Police Court on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon. A small revolver taken from the attorney's hip pocket was filed as evidence. Brooks was released under $20 bail and will appear in court today to plead.

He is the president of the Kentucky Society. It is alleged that some men who hang around a cigar stand on South Broadway made remarks regarding Kentuckians which Brooks did not like so he went to his office, armed himself, and returned to the stand. The officer arrived there about the same time and arrested him.

Gamblers Fined.

S. Adler, H. Slater and H. C. Hollenbeck, arrested in an East First street gambling-house, pleaded guilty in Police Court yesterday. Adler was fined $150 and Slater and Hollenbeck $75 each.

Socialists Demur.

Socialists thronged Justice Chambers's Police Court yesterday when four of their leaders were arraigned on a charge of speaking on the streets without a permit. The accused men and women were to have pleaded but their attorney filed a demurrer alleging that the complaint was faulty. They will attack the charges against them on the ground that they have a constitutional right to freedom of speech and that the police commission has no power to grant or deny them a license.

City Employe Convicted.

Prosecuting Attorney Harry Alexander yesterday secured the conviction of George W. Barnett, a city employé, accused of cruelty to animals. The jury in Justice Austin's Police Court found him guilty.

It was alleged that he kept fourteen calves in a place so small that the little animals almost died. At the time of his arrest Barnett was aiding the work of cleaning up the city and while he was inspecting premises in one section of the city, the officers swooped down upon his corral and ordered that it be put in fit condition. He will be sentenced today.

NEITHER FEELS HURT.

Postmaster Encounters Champion Pugilist, but It Is a Friendly Meeting.

"I have just encountered Champion James J. Jeffries," announced Postmaster M. H. Flint yesterday. "We met in friendly contest, however, or I would probably be now in the hospital. He is on the committee for the entertainment of the sailors of the big fleet. We discussed preliminary plans for giving sparring matches and athletic contests of all kinds at Chutes Park. Jeffries will officiate as referee and he will prove to be a great attractions to the sailor lads."

Flint is chairman of the committee, and he is arranging an elaborate and interesting programme.

MAN HELD UP BY BOYS.

Two Lads, Supposed to Be Race Track Loungers, Rob Pedestrian from Vernon.

Two boys, supposed to be loungers about the race track, held up Charles Scheider of Vernon at Cheney street and the Salt Lake tracks night before last. They secured several dollars and a pearl-handled knife.

Neither of the highwaymen was over 16 years of age and both were of diminutive stature.

"Gimme a match pard," remarked one of the boys in a treble as he accosted Scheider. As the man started to feel in his pockets, the other lad confronted him with a revolver.

The two then searched him and took his money.

"GREATER UNIVERSITY" SPREAD.

Over five hundred students, members of the faculty and the board of trustees of the University of Southern California, will partake of the "Greater University" banquet to be given this evening at Levy's. President George F. Bovard will be the toastmaster, and the theme will be "The Greater University," with responses by Dr. Robert J. Burdette on "The Public;" Dr. W. W. Beckett, "College of Medicine;" Wiledd Andrews, '08, "College of Law;" Dr. B. F. Eshelmann, "College of Dentistry;" Rev. E. A. Healy, "College of the Campus;" A. J. Wallace, "Board of Trustees." An elaborate menu has been prepared, and special music will be furnished by orchestra and the University Glee Club.

MORE SONS OF HERMAN.

A new lodge of the Sons of Herman was initiated last night, at Herman Hall, with a charter membership of seventy-five. John Pope of San Francisco, grand president, assisted by George Ottinger, president of the Los Angeles Lodge, No. 12, conducted the installation. After the installation the new lodge and its guests to the number of 150 were guests at a banquet served at the Pacific Electric grill, at which the leading members delivered speeches. Joseph Blust was toastmaster. H. Gotleber is president of the new lodge; R. W. Schwarz, vice-president; G. Pitrie, treasurer; F. Ryder, corresponding secretary, and H. Mechelke, financial secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Lawson and three boys, of Pittsburgh, are guests at the Hotel Hayward. Mr. Lawson is connected with one of the large industrial concerns of Pittsburgh.

Tears Sob Hysterically at Corwell Trial.

Emotional Scenes During Address to Jury.

Real tears flowed from the eyes of [illegible] H. Appel yesterday as he addressed the jury which for five weeks had been listening to evidence in the case of Estelle Corwell for the murder of George T. Bennett on the night of [illegible] last. He was eloquent without bitterness, but with a maximum of pathos in his moment and of gall and wormwood the next.

Out of the tangle brought up became the mother of the dead man that at one time she flew into a frenzy of rage at Appel and while he was bending over the table on which he had spread his transcript Mrs. Bennett tried to kick it over on him. She was restrained by a woman friend and it is expected that [illegible] and she has occupied during the trial will be changed today.

Attorney W. H. Beach took up the [illegible] in the opening argument for the prosecution. He was exceedingly clear of fact and did not make any attempt at eloquence, reading for the [illegible] from the transcript of the testimony. But commenting upon this [illegible] Attorney Appel for the [illegible] of manufacturing evidence, [illegible] he referred to the engagement given Mrs. Corwell by Bennett in February, 1901. This, he [illegible] had been made for the occasion.

[illegible] and women almost fought to [illegible] the courtroom to hear the [illegible] to the jury, and many [illegible] brought their lunch to stay all [illegible] There was a delegation from the [illegible] of Law, U.S.C., present to [illegible] experience."

Mr. Appel opened for the defense [illegible] his respects to the attorneys for the prosecution, but especially to [illegible] Beach.

VINDICTIVE WORDS.

"Is this outsider, who comes [illegible] I don't know where, who has [illegible] here to seek laurel wreaths [illegible] expense of the life of this defendant, who imputes to me fraud in this case" and the speaker turned [illegible] and glared at the young man sitting [illegible] arm's length of him.

"I protest with that," continued [illegible] "he has attempted to picture [illegible] defendant as a harlot—this poor [illegible] who was for years the white slave [illegible] of a man now dead."

Between its summer smells and its winter blizzards we absolutely fail to understand why any one chooses or is able to live in Chicago.

Brother, do you remember when you also used to wobble around, back yonder, with the same kind of icy winds pasting you in the face?

The California husbandman will reap a splendid harvest this year. The California bachelor can do the same thing by marrying a rich girl.

In our relations with Japan and other nations it is seen that diplomacy is a wonderful thing when properly backed up by a fleet of warships.

Politics is filled with disappointments and we think there is one great big one due those who are out with their knives after the tuft of Taft.

Napoleon's saying that the world will some day be all Cossack or all republican is hastening on with the Cossack part of it sinking into the background.

The great question that seems to be agitating that portion of our beloved country lying east of the Rockies, at the present time, is: Why is a snow shovel?

Berlin has totally eliminated its slums. Why doesn't Los Angeles do the same thing? It is easier to do a thing of the kind here than it was in Berlin.

Without any desire to rub it in or to jab anybody until the sores open again, we still can't help remarking that it looks to us like a little backdown on Japan's part.

The swords have not yet been beaten into plowshares; but not long ago the revolvers taken from prisoners in a Portland jail were melted up and made into a stove for the police station.

An effort is being made to send the California delegation to the Democratic National Convention uninstructed. The idea is probably to wait until they get there, when Mr. Bryan can instruct them personally.

The latest political information indicates that Bryan has made a truce with Hearst, and that between them they will control the Democratic party. Happy for Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson that their bones are dust!

It is rumored that Fighting Bob will retire when he has brought the fleet to California. We'd hate to see him do it, but we shall be glad to have him settle down here along with the other eminent men who are making their homes in Los Angeles.

From her proud position in the middle of the world California can view events in the Far East and also keep an eye on what is going on in the Near East, which is to say the States of the Union abutting on the blizzard-tossed Atlantic Ocean.

Bryan has promised that he will nominate Hearst's Mr. Jackson of New York for the Vice-Presidency. Bryan and Jackson, eh? To make those old Democrats who are still voting for Andrew Jackson think they are still having a look in, we suppose.

The time will come when the people of the West will have little more to do with the East than to take an occasional trip back there to see Plymouth Rock, the Bunker Hill monument and other old relics of that kind which add interest to our country's early history.

The people of Japan would like to fight, but are held in restraint by the Elder Statesmen. It reminds us of old Luke Clark—God rest him—who said he had 500,000 men in Ireland armed and ready to rise against the British government. "Then why don't you begin?" asked some one. "The police won't let us," Luke replied

A GENUINE HARBOR DANGER.

A The resolution relating to the inner harbor at San Pedro, introduced in the United States Senate by Senator Flint and referred to the Committee on Commerce, looks dangerous, mischievous—like a cunning scheme that must be defeated. It apparently places the virtual control of the future development of the harbor in the power of the majority of the frontage, that is the Southern Pacific Railroad, the Salt Lake Route, the Inter-Urban Railway and the Bannings.

Elsewhere the terms of the resolution are printed in full, together with an explanation of its purpose and effect as construed by those who have long watched over our harbor problems. It is the opinion of the harbor experts that if such a law were enacted it would tie up indefinitely the expansion of the inner harbor. The Secretary of War is to do so and so upon the recommendation of the owners of the majority of the frontage. And pray you who are the owners of the majority of the frontage? The transportation companies, of course. And are they to unreservedly control the destiny of the people's harbor?

It is true that authority is vested by the resolution in the Secretary of War—but he personally knows nothing about the harbor and is to be guided by the wishes of the owners of the majority of the frontage—clever phrase! "Majority of the frontage" may sound fair and equitable to the Senate, but it has a different ring on the Pacific Coast, where conditions are known. The measure seems to be a ruse. It is open to violent suspicion.

It appears that the harbor commissioners are on the scent. They will meet today to look further into the proposition. It goes without saying that the Chamber of Commerce and other local bodies will make themselves heard in an effective manner in Washington. San Pedro, too, will be on the alert. The whole Southwest is interested in the future of this great harbor and will protest against surrendering its domination and destiny to a few corporations, which apparently is the end and aim of the Flint resolution.

An attempt may be made to stamp the resolution with another significance and to give assurance that it is harmless. Such assurance will not assure. As it now stands, it is a vicious resolution. It must be side-tracked. Southern California cannot listen for a moment to such a repugnant proposition. If fully informed, Congress will not assent to it.

SHOWS AND HOTEL RATES.

S Hotel men and lodging-house keepers at Seattle are said to be forming a combine to raise rates for rooms and board when the Yukon Fair shall draw its big crowds next year.

Short-sighted selfishness, say we. The best way is to sit and wait and let the demand and the supply establish rates. Even then some notion of fair play for the visitors should be kept in full view. The "cards should not be stacked" beforehand, nor should the last cent, nor the last by several hundred, be wrung from the helpless hands of those who visit the exposition. It will take about a week to let all America know if Seattle people are "hogging it all" or not.

St. Louis four years ago was bad enough, but not bindingly bad. Rooms in private houses were let at not too exorbitant rates and a pretty good dinner might be had at the gates of the exposition grounds for 50 cents. The transfer companies were more exacting. They charged a dollar for every trunk, large or small, from the depots to any part of the city, and 25 cents additional to take them from the wagons up one flight of stairs.

Portland, three years ago, treated the visitors to that show with conspicuous kindness. Rents were left at normal figures and meals were served at most reasonable prices. Note that the Portland fair was a great success.

We shall have enormous crowds in Los Angeles this summer. We have ample accommodations to lodge and feed fifty thousand. It is probable that rates will be about normal for rooms or meals. Families in limited numbers can find furnished houses in the city and at the beaches.

If any one should unwisely try a "trust" movement to deny visitors a square deal, and a square meal, a protest will be made. Los Angeles people are keen about such things and always find a way to compel attention. In case of any attempt at unfair play the people would open their homes to visitors at fair rates, and break up a "trust."

SOUTHWESTERN CENTER OF MINING INTERESTS.

After long years of waiting, Los Angeles has come into its own as one of the leading centers of mining interests in the country. As a matter of fact, the first gold mined in California was in Los Angeles county. The first successful development of oil in the State was in Los Angeles county. The mineral deposits of Southern California are most varied in their nature and exceedingly rich in volume. The adjoining territories east of Southern California are the treasure-house of the world in mineral ores.

Including mineral oil in the mining industry, the great development of this resource during the last thirty years created the first large industrial opportunity in the city of Los Angeles. From small beginnings thirty years ago in Pico Cañon the oil production of California has mounted to about 40,000,000 barrels for the current year. Most of this comes out of wells in what is properly known as Southern California.

The obstacle in the way of attracting mining industries here in past years was lack of transportation. In spite of the fact that the wagon haul was about 250 miles from up in Inyo and Mono counties forty years ago, the Cerro Gordo and other mines in that territory drew all their supplies from Los Angeles and much gold dust and gold ore found their way into this little pueblo as its market place.

These obstacles have been entirely removed, so that with three lines of railroads—the Southern Pacific running through Southern Arizona by way of Yuma, the Santa Fé through Northern Arizona by way of The Needles, and the Salt Lake route and feeders through Southern Utah and Nevada, coming down through Southeastern California—Los Angeles has become the natural center for the many and rich mining interests of this territory lying between Salt Lake City and Tucson. The line of railroad coming up from Guaymas, Mexico, to join the Southern Pacific at Nogales gives access to Los Angeles for the mining interests of Northwestern Mexico.

This explains the assembling in this city on Monday evening of more than 200 leading business men, who around a great banquet table heard reports of progress and plans for future development in mining enterprises of various kinds. It was a distinctively representative gathering, including not only the actual operators of mines, but business men of Los Angeles who handle merchandise in a large way and leading bankers who control our financial interests. The three branches of business enterprise must naturally go together. The advantages of Los Angeles being the center of this mining activity are not confined to the mere operating of the mines and uncovering of the ore deposits. These mines draw their supplies in the way of machinery, tools and foodstuffs from this city, adding very largely to the ledger accounts of the business houses. Those operating the mines and oil fields in this great southwestern territory look to the bankers of Los Angeles for the necessary financial backing to carry on their many schemes.

With the active development of mining interests in the recent past and the centering here of these interests we have naturally organized a Chamber of Mines and the banquet was in celebration of the birthday of this organization. In addition to the Chamber of Mines we also have here two mining exchanges. The secretary reported that during this time there had been disposed of at the call sessions of the new organization a matter of 6,000,000 shares of stock of a value of $1,250,000. As indicating the possible scope of the operations of the Chamber of Mines, the heads of that institution expressed the hope that during this year the membership of the new exchange would reach the number of 2000.

For the future, perhaps the most important matter discussed at the meeting was the establishing of a smelter for the reduction of crude ores. This subject has been handled in a number of able articles in The Times during the past month. The encouragement of the project given by this paper was referred to with cordial recognition at the meeting of the members of the Chamber of Mines around their banquet table. It is impossible to fully foresee the far-reaching possibilities in the establishing here of a smelter capable of reducing large quantities of crude ores of the several metals which abound throughout this southwestern country. There is perhaps no other territory in the world so rich in crude iron as Southern California in a semicircle stretching easterly from this city as a center of the radius, a distance of from 100 to 150 miles. Crude iron is not by any means the only ore found in the territory, and beyond the Colorado River the number of crude metals lying in inexhaustible quantities is very great.

A smelter near this city to reduce these ores to a metallic condition would be followed by the establishing of many industries to work the metals into useful shapes in the way of tools and machines. The possible objection to the establishing of a smelter because of the noxious fumes generated need not stand in the way of the enterprise. The establishment can be placed in such a position in reference to the city that with the wind which blows steadily from two quarters of the compass all the year round, the fumes may be carried away from the city and in directions where their injury will be little or nothing.

Contemplating a smelter as a coming fact and the various industries sure to develop out of the establishing of such an industry, the future seems most brilliant from the mining and industrial point of view for the city of Los Angeles and the surrounding territory.

TRYING TO BUNCO FATHER TIME.

Distressed by the amount of time which Britishers, and especially Londoners, waste abed, a disgusted gentleman named Willet recently wrote to the newspapers suggesting that all clocks in the United Kingdom should simultaneously be put forward so that a man getting up apparently at 9 o'clock in the morning would really be doing so at 7:40. Mr. Willet, figuring on the assumption that the army of Londoners would slip out of its night robes with military precision at exactly twenty minutes to eight, estimates that each person would thus gain one hour and twenty minutes of daylight, and as there are six million or so people in the metropolis, they would, by this simple means, rob their beds of 8,000,000 hours; in other words they would each day save over 5555 days.

This remarkable method of beating old Father Time has commended itself to William Pearce, member of Parliament, who has drawn up what he calls a daylight saving bill by means of which he proposes to ask the House of Commons to legally institute a new British time. But Mr. Pearce does not go quite as far as the man to whom the great idea first came. The parliamentarian knows that in the winter, when the cold blasts from Greenland's icy mountains descends upon unprotected England, no true Londoner who does not have to will crawl from beneath the warm blankets just to satisfy the blankety blank whim of a crank like Willet, so Mr. Pearce has made his measure apply to the summer months only. He figures that an extra hour and one-third on the cricket or tennis field, or "spooning" in the park, or "punting" on the Thames with beauty at the prow, would appeal immensely to the generation which is just about coming of age.

But Willet and Pearce have run up against a peculiar snag at the outset of their campaign for saving daylight. If there is one thing which offends the accurate taste of a Britisher it is to see somebody wearing evening dress in broad daylight. The managers of the big hotels have pointed out that if the hour for rising is made earlier it follows that the time for dining must follow suit, and they remark, "People would dislike walking about in evening dress by daylight." They might have gone further and have said that society simply couldn't wear its low cut "togs" in the face of the sun. The idea is not only preposterous but absolutely wicked.

Fortunately for those who feel themselves compelled to wear evening dress the British House of Commons has a killing way of disposing of freak bills which may happen to come before it. The house appoints Wednesday in each week as "private member's day." It meets an hour or two earlier that day in order that the fun may commence early and be finished in time for the members to go home to dinner. All private bills must be passed by 5:30 p.m.; if at that hour some honorable gentleman is on his feet engaged in the gentle occupation of "talking the bill out" it is effectually "squelched." It is safe to say that when Pearce's daylight saving bill comes up one of these Wednesdays some member will let daylight into it.

"I DONE IT," SAYS WILLIE.

MISCHIEVOUS REFERENDUM.

"We Are Likely to Get More Than We Want of It," Says San Francisco Paper.

[San Francisco Chronicle:] It is doubtless a glorious thing for the people to rise in their majority and take the management of their own affairs into their own hands, but it depends altogether upon the character of the community concerned whether they make a success of their own government or merely serve as a shocking example. We probably have a sufficient number of the uneasy and visionary in this city to keep us continually stirred up with such fool propositions as that of buying out the United Railroads and other public service corporations with the proceeds of a bond issue which the Supervisors must apparently submit upon the petition of 15 per cent. of our electors.

There is, of course, no danger that the city will become entangled in any such scheme, for it would require a two-thirds vote of the electors to secure a bond issue. And there is the further protection that it is probably legally impossible to buy any public utility without the consent of the owners. Theoretically we can condemn and take over any public utility, but if we propose to do that we must have the money ready to pay into court, and until the condemnation suit was finally settled, we should not know how much money to raise, and it is unlikely that any court would undertake a condemnation suit unless it was shown that at the end the money would be ready for the expropriated. The ignorance of the promoters of the scheme is shown by their imagining that the United Railroads could be expropriated for $5,000,000, the California-street line for $1,000,000, the Pacific States Telephone for $1,000,000, and the Home Telephone for $300,000. As a matter of fact, we could not sell the bonds of this city required to make these purchases at any price. We have not the credit.

The proposition will, of course, have to be submitted, and probably at a special election, which will cost some money which would be more profitably expended on streets. The principal damage which it will do will occur from the evidence given by the filing of the petition that—if the signatures are honest—we have in the city 14,600 people of such caliber. It may endanger also the sale of the bonds whose proceeds we need for vital necessities.

HOROSCOPE FOR

Thursday, Feoruary 20, 1908.

Open thine door and spread thine merchandise.
Good Jupiter aids all new enterprise.

Jupiter is in benefic aspect with the moon, whose age is 18 days this 51st day of the year. The moon is on the Equator this night. The sun enters Pisces.

Push all affairs, particularly in the morning.

A splendid day for opening new places of business, whether wholesale or retail. New undertakings of all kinds are under good signs.

Buying is likely to prove satisfactory in its results.

Weddings in these twenty-four hours are lucky.

A lucky day for baking and trying new recipes.

Try on new gowns or hats in the afternoon. A good time for matching colors.

There is a swift shadow cast along the roads for this day. Take heed against fast vehicles.

The woman whose birthdate this is must guard against an action taken on impulse. If unmarried, she must be careful about a new circle which she will be invited to enter.

Fair success and modest promotion will come to the man whose birthdate this is, but only by dint of unusually close attention to his work.

The girl born today will have a strong religious spirit, and wise training will develop her into a noble character.

The boy born today will have many critical public trials to meet, but a great success awaits him at the end if he is trained to steady, unswerving purpose.

More Bad Spelling.

Nothing daunted by the defection of President Roosevelt the simplified spelling board sends out a second series of words whose spelling it advises to be mangled or distorted. There are seventy-five of these helpless language victims to be added to the list of 300 originally recommended. It is an awkward lot—"ake" instead of "ache," "eg" instead of "egg," "lim" instead of "limb," and so on. They will have hard work to break their way into our language. Now that Mr. Roosevelt has given it up, great interest will attach to the next production of the Boston Superintendent of Schools.—[Boston Post

THE PROBLEM OF PORTU

By James Main Dixon.

The American public knows but little of Portugal, less, surely, than it ought to know. The Portuguese navigator, Magellan, who first rounded Cape Horn and gave his name to the straits which our battleship fleet sailed a short time ago, and he died in the Philippines. The greatest of the republics of the southern continent is Portuguese in race, language and institutions. At one time Lisbon bore to the west of Europe the relation of importance that New York bears to the eastern seaboard of this republic, or that San Francisco bears to our own Pacific Coast.

A Portuguese, Vasco da Gama, first sailed to the south of Africa into Indian waters; and Portuguese Bay, Goa and Macao remain as results of that enterprise, the survival of a widely extended empire. At one time, 400 years ago, Portugal was in the forefront of human progress, the most progressive, open-minded and intelligent of European kingdoms. Today she lags in the rear—a by-word for sloth and inefficiency. Few men know Portugal, perhaps, best by the sacred wine that bears the name of the ancient harbor, Oporto Cale, the original city of the land. Port is not really a very good wine, but when men began to drink it two centuries ago, it was unpatriotic to drink the wines of France or Spain, and when special treaties favored the Portuguese brands. The connection between Portugal and England has always been close.

The greatness of Portugal began in the fifteenth century and culminated at the close of the sixteenth. No country ever owed more to the personal qualities of her rulers and governors. Receiving from both sides of the Pyrenees some of the most brilliant knights and statesmen in Europe, who were wedded to equally able and accomplished women, the little kingdom, carved out of the ancient Keltic province of Gallicia, became great in spite of its physical insignificance. From the hardy stock of Keltic peasantry, led by a polished and adventurous knights, that people found excellent mariners and colonizers in the time of Prince Henry the Navigator and King Manuel the Fortunate. Lisbon, situated at the mouth of the Tagus, as New York stands at the mouth of the Hudson, became an emporium for the Asiatic and South American commerce. The people suddenly found themselves wealthy. The swift accession of wealth helped to sap the virility, but more than any other factor in the degeneration of the people was their failure to keep the race pure. Ambitious young Portuguese went abroad, where they intermarried freely with alien and subject races. The half-breed Portuguese of China ports today are numerous; they are of equivocal position, and can never be accepted in the merest underlings.

Much of the best stock was thus lost to the country. Meanwhile the home stock degenerated. To Portugal belongs the dishonor of having established the African slave trade in 1444 on, negro slaves were brought to Lisbon and sold in the market. Many were drafted immediately to the farms and vineyards of rural Portugal. The ancient peasantry drifted into the cities, and thus a condition resulted similar to that in ancient Rome, where labor in the fields was the exclusive calling of "villains." When the Japanese mission under Marquis Ito visited Europe twenty years ago they saw little or nothing of European civilization in Portugal; it seemed to them to stand at the very lowest rung of the ladder.

The tragic death in Africa of the head of the old dynasty, which was accompanied by the destruction of his whole army, led to the annexation of Portugal by Spain. This event occurred but a few years before the sailing of the Armada; and Portuguese ships and fighting men suffered in the disaster equally with the Spanish. Sixty years of Spanish rule did little to benefit the country. It regained its independence in 1640, and struggled on until the wars of Napoleon. Then the royal family, leaving affairs in the hands, sailed for Brazil. In 1826 Dom John signed all his rights in Portugal to his daughter Maria de Gloria, and became Emperor of Brazil. Her succession to the throne was disputed by the Absolutist uncle, Dom Miguel, and civil war followed. Finally, however, he gave up the struggle and abandoned all claims to the throne, and received a pension.

The King recently assassinated was a descendant of this Queen Maria, whose consort was a Prince of the Saxe-Coburg family. Carlos was in many respects, an estimable man, with many virtues and accomplishments, but he was a poor financier, and extravagant in his habits. The dynasty has always favored constitutional government, more or less liberal character. If a people enlightened and liberty-loving as the Portuguese have decided that the future of the country is safer with a constitutional monarchy than a republic, how is it possible that the Portuguese, educated and only partially "white," can escape anarchy, if, in the present crisis, they decide by the public? There is still a reactionary Miguelite party, and, unless the Constitutionalists are successful, it is likely that a republican régime would be unstable to withstand pressure, and that it would supervene, the country fluctuating between the lawlessness of a flimsy republic and the vengeance of an antiquated absolutism. King Manuel is following the traditions of his country in being up the Liberal-Conservatives and has a young King, Dom Manuel.

Fads of the German Empress.

The fads of the German Empress, who manages matters pertaining to her own family, are for horses and the keeping of a diary. Her stables are filled with handsome and well trained horses. She always insists that they shall be well trained and taught to behave at the drums or military music and the sound of a gun. The Empress is fond of high-spirited horses and a daring rider. She is fond of her own form, which she wears on all great occasions mounted on a horse.

One of her smaller fads is the keeping of a diary. In this interesting diary are recorded her daily experiences since the time when she was a small girl. The Empress carefully guards it and keeps it in a little cabinet in her room under lock and key.

The devotion of the Empress to charity is known, and much of her large private income is spent for the benefit of poor children, in founding schools, sanatoriums and hospitals for the unfortunate.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE

The Entertainment Committee appointed to welcome the tars of Admiral Evans's fleet is planning to pack the entire seating capacity of the principal theaters outright for at least four nights of the fleet's visit. Needless to say, the sailors will fill the houses, and there would be no vacant chairs.

If this plan is carried out—it is one of the embryotic stage yet—it will be the largest presentation of theater seats to any body of visitors ever made here. It will be much larger than the entertainment gift made in the same way to the visiting Shriners last year.

Appropriate pieces will grace the lyrical stages—light opera and farce comedy predominating.

Mr. Berry has both the Idora Park Opera Company and the Princess organization—San Francisco music comedy aggregations—in mind as possible companies for his season to follow the Ferris stock engagement.

He will probably go north in a day or two.

The Italian grand opera company which has been playing in the City of Mexico this winter, is now concluding its season, and wishes to come up into the United States. A week at the Auditorium, before March 15, is a possibility. The chief lyric tenor of the company is the well-remembered Agostini, while the second tenor is Attilio Salvaneschi, who was here during Lambardi's engagement at the Auditorium inaugural.

A delightful musicale is programmed at C. Modini-Wood's St. James Park residence this morning. The list of numbers is in two divisions, the first containing selections from sacred and secular oratorio, and the second, songs of Shakespeare. In the first part will be excerpts from works of Bach, Handel, Rossini, Mendelssohn, Bruch, Elgar and Parker. The second classification is a comprehensive grouping of familiar settings to the Shakespearean lyrics.

Mme. Teresa Carreno will reach Los Angeles tomorrow morning, and will be heard in her first concert here at Simpson Auditorium Saturday afternoon. Tomorrow she will rest during the entire day, as she has endured a fatiguing transcontinental trip. During the coming week she will be the guest of honor at a number of social and semi-professional functions which have been arranged in her honor.

The Occidental School of Music, under the direction of Prof. Dwight C. Hicks, will present a number of pupils in recital tonight at the Frank R. Long recital hall on South Hill street.

Joe Montrose assures us that it is Katherine Asherman, and not the scene-painter, who is designing Maude Gilbert's hand-painted dress for the original production of "The Society Pilot," which will come about the first of April.

Katherine Asherman, as readers will remember, painted some dresses for Ben Shonts, who became a Duchess the other day.

Mrs. Gertrude Nelson Andrews says that in "Eagle Tavern," which will be the last play of the Ferris season, she has assumed and held real New England atmosphere.

The Andrews family has lived in the town of Wales, Mass., for four generations. It is a small mill town about 25 miles from Boston, but not on any railroad, and hence has communication with the outside world only through the primitive stage coach. It has retained the same life that was common in stage-coach days. The Andrews homestead is just such a one as Mrs. Andrews has shown in the play, and the furnishings, pictures, furniture and the like are actual copies of the originals, made from photographs taken there. The surroundings, also, will be shown exactly as they are in reality.

Probably the most noteworthy transformation of real person to stage presentment in the play is offered by Mary Croke, the servant. This woman lives and is still a servant in the Andrews family. When the drama was written she consented to be transferred to the mimic world of the footlights, and was put in, name and all. On the opening of the play in Brooklyn she was taken to that city by Mrs. Andrews and stationed in a stage box that she might "see herself as others see her." She did, and exclaimed in horror:

But she admitted the truth of the characterization.

The scenes attendant on the arrival of the stage coach have been witnessed by Mrs. Andrews many a time, and Ben, the tavern keeper, still lives, the original Eagle Tavern in the little town in the Bay State. Many of the other personages are alive there today.

Sittings in Church.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 19.—[To the Editor of The Times.] It is one of the hopeful signs of the growth of our religious life at the present day, that so many of the churches have free sittings, a condition, which, of course, is to shall become universal.

I would like to bespeak the sympathy of churches which have already done away with pew-renting—for the sake of the crippled, and suggest that a number of seats, in proportion to the size of the congregation, be reserved free for strangers; also, that they should be placed, and well toward the front, as those advanced in years have often sight, or dulled hearing.

These seats need only be reserved until a few minutes before the opening of the service, if deemed more advisable, and being permitted to occupy a pew after that time.

In a large city, how often it is necessary to stand in line for a weary hour or more, and be sure of a sitting once to enter an auditorium, where a full hall or an auditorium, where a well known and much-loved speaker is to be heard. The aged and infirm, are unequal to such an ordeal, nor to climb the stairs to the balcony and gallery which is generally the only alternative, as the seats on the lower floor are first filled.

These conditions now exist, many necessarily absent themselves from service which it would be a pleasure to attend.

A church where the sittings are free, could not a guild or an organization set aside some pews? Sometimes one who could afford a pew, finds it of no advantage, as to the distance from the speaker. Could not an elderly stranger personally appreciate that wherever he went for some unknown reason his seat was free in the entire house best suited his needs?

Such a plan is already in existence, I have never heard of it. Although I am not aged, nor crippled, neither am I beyond the bounds of any line of sympathy, and therefore, I sympathize with them. Will not some church at least try the experiment.

The Andrews family has lived in the Berkshires, Mass., for four generations. It is a small mill town about 150 miles from Boston, but not on any railroad, and hence has communication with the outside world only through the primitive stage coach. It has practically retained the same life that was common in stage-coach days. The Andrews homestead is just such a one as Mrs. Andrews has shown in the play, and the furnishings, pictures, books and the like are actual copies of the originals, made from photographs taken there. The surroundings, too, will be shown exactly as they are in reality.

Probably the most noteworthy transformation of real person to stage presentation in the play is offered by Aunt Dorcas Croke, the servant. This woman herself is still a servant in the Andrews family. When the drama was written she consented to be transferred to the mimic world of the footlights, and her part was put in, name and all. On the opening night of the play in Brooklyn she was taken to that city by Mrs. Andrews and stationed in a stage box where she might "see herself as others see her." She did, and exclaimed in horror, "Well, I never thought I was such a darn fool as all that."

Miss Andrews admitted the truth of the characterization.

Many scenes attendant on the arrival of the stage coach have been witnessed by Miss Andrews many a time, and Uncle Ben, the tavern keeper, still lives in the original Eagle Tavern in the little town in the Bay State. Many of the other personages are alive there now.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

Sittings in Church.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 19.—[To the Editor of The Times.] It is one of the signs of the growth of our religion at the present day, that so many of the churches have free sittings. This condition, which, of course, is to small become universal.

I would like to bespeak the sympathy of those churches which have already done away with pew-renting—for the benefit of the crippled, and suggest that a part, in proportion to the size of the congregation, be reserved free for the poor; also, that they should be near the front, and well toward the front, for those advanced in years have lost sight, or dulled hearing.

This need only be reserved until minutes before the opening of service, if deemed more advisable, and not being permitted to occupy a seat after that time.

In a large city, how often it is necessary to stand in line for a weary hour or more, in order to secure a seat, and be sure of a sitting in an auditorium, where a favorite and much-loved speaker is to be heard. The aged and infirm, are not equal to such an ordeal, nor to climbing stairs to the balcony and gallery, which is generally the only alternative, as the seats on the lower floor are filled.

Although now exist, many necessitous refrain themselves from serving, which it would be a pleasure to do.

The church where the sittings are free is not a guild or an organization, but has some pews?

Would one who could afford a pew, finds it of no advantage, sitting the distance from the speaker, and not an elderly stranger perhaps, realize that wherever he went for some unknown reason his seat was taken, the entire house best suited to him?

The plan is already in existence, I have heard of it. Although I am not poor, nor crippled, neither am I deaf, but long line of pews, and therefore, I sympathize with those who will not come church at present, for the experiment.

Mr. Healy is a prominent druggist of Goldfield, at which city the young people will make their home.

CORONER IS BUSY.

Two Verdicts of Accidental Deaths Returned and Another Inquiry to Be Conducted.

A verdict of accidental death was returned yesterday following an inquest over the body of Rev. Edward Bode, who was killed by a street car at Belmont avenue and Court street, Sunday night.

The testimony showed that the aged pastor stepped into the street and becoming confused walked directly in front of the car and was instantly killed. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon in the chapel of the Pierce Undertaking Company and interment was at Rosedale.

An investigation into the death of James Evans of San Diego, yesterday, showed that he came to his death by accidentally taking an overdose of morphine. Evans had suffered with neuralgia and had been in the habit of taking the drug to deaden the pain.

An inquest will be held today over Bernard Grosse, an aged bachelor who was found dead yesterday in his room at the United States Hotel, No. 168 North Main street. Heart disease is thought to have been the cause of his demise.

Grosse owned a bee ranch near Palmdale and had other valuable property in the county.

TOURIST GUESTS' SIGNED UP IN NOVEL WAY.

Great Success of Annual Reception by the Women's Christian Temperance Union—Dr. Henry Says Los Angeles Has Drawbacks That You Can Feel.

A large crowd attended the tourists' reception given in Blanchard Hall yesterday afternoon, by the Women's Christian Temperance Unions of the city. This is an annual event, inaugurated seven years ago, and it has proven popular with visitors, several hundred of whom were in the audience yesterday.

The salutation, as each entered the hall, at the hands of two-score ladies with paper pie plates swinging to their arms, was: "Are you from——?"

If you were from any place, you had the privilege of writing your name on one of the plates, and maybe you had to answer the salutation forty-six times.

Every seat in the hall was filled, and during the exercises, two dozen little girls dressed in white and each carrying a basket of flowers, were presented on the stage and received with the Chautauqua salute, after which they went into the audience and handed a bouquet to each guest. Whoever had them in charge, said they would "scatter the flowers," and a couple of the youngsters, began to throw the little bouquets on the floor.

The first words of greeting to the strangers were spoken by Dr. J. Q. A. Henry, during which he lauded the "City of the Angels" and also mentioned some of its drawbacks.

"True," he said, "we have 200 saloons, but there are 200 churches to help nullify and offset the influence of the saloons. Great Britain has 42,000 churches, but she has 175,000 dramshops.

"We have sunshine and flowers and balmy air, and to people who say we have some drawbacks, I say: 'Yes, we have some, and with the thermometer about 25 deg. below zero in the East, you begin to feel them.'"

On behalf of the Loyal Temperance Legion, a welcome was delivered by Oscar Elvrum, and Mrs. Mary C. Sampson, State secretary, spoke for the State. The latter said, in closing her address, that by the time the visitors came again she hoped to "report California gone dry."

Mrs. Hester T. Griffith, county president, said to the guests: "I bring you greetings from the largest organization of the Women's Christian Temperance Union in the United States."

The young women were represented by Miss Bertha Phelps, and the world by a lady visitor who has been twice around the globe.

Mrs. Elizabeth Craig, a picturesque orator from Texas, made the response to the various welcomes, on behalf of the visitors.

In the absence of Mrs. C. P. Wheat, who is ill, the meeting was presided over by Mrs. Carrie Blewett, secretary of the city federation.

The music consisted of two violin solos by Miss Florence Pain, and a selection by the Boyle Heights L. T. L. orchestra.

A roll call of States was made, and many responses came from people in the audience, where almost every State in the Union was represented. A social hour followed, during which the ladies served fruit punch.

BANQUET OF EASTERN STARS.

An elaborate luncheon in honor of Miss Cora Hickman and her sister, Mrs. D. H. Imler, was given by Mrs. John H. Train and Mrs. Herman C. Mertens at the home of the former, on East Avenue 56, Saturday. The guests were all members of the Order of the Eastern Star. Mrs. Morton and Misses Lemke and Ludhardt represented Hollenbeck Chapter. H. J. Whitley Co's DIAMONDS

Twenty Per Ct. Off.

Every piece of Diamond Jewelry in this entire vast stock is offered —till March first—at 20 per cent. less than its actual money value.

It's an investment opportunity such as we have never known before in Los Angeles—as sound and solid as United States Government Bonds.

It's like discounting gold coin—and worse—for diamonds are constantly growing in value and 20 per cent. from our prices means 20 per cent. from the actual worth of the diamonds. Our intimacy with European diamond markets—our method of direct buying and extensive selling—enable us to offer diamond values that cannot be surpassed. Our position in this regard is supreme—it is unassailed.

And now comes word from our Mr. H. J. Whitley, who is in Europe, that he has consummated an extensive purchase of diamonds—and to keep our stock at normal we must step in and make this sensational offer.

It is extreme—but it is imperative—we must do it. The profit is yours.

On a $500 diamond you save $100. On a $100 diamond you save $20. On a $50 diamond you save $10. Every diamond goes — big and little.

Will you let the opportunity pass?

CHAPTER I.

...in large motor swung along with ...easy velocity and assurance of ...enormous bird, Camilla Lancing ...and gave coolly into the warmth ...for the wraps.

...Haverford was driving, and ...looked back every now and then ...as if his guest was comfortable. ...Is this too quick for you?" he ...asked; and Mrs. Lancing only ...favored him with a smile.

"You can never go too quickly for ...me," she answered.

...little town where they had been ...staying lay far, far away in the dis...tance now, its ugliness softened by the ...haze of sun and haze, and the ...road through which they were pass...ing very open; in a degree bleak. ...Inland marshland, and rough ...ground, and on the other beach ...wide stretches of wet sand, and ...the endless, murmuring sea, bear...ing a shimmering surface the cold ...blue of the setting November sun. ...Lancing sighed involuntarily as ...she looked dreamily away to where ...land and sea seemed to meet, but ...there was an unconscious tribute to ...the vastness of the circumstances ...in which she found herself.

...The smooth swinging movement of ...the car fascinated her. As she now ...and then closed her eyes, she felt as ...if she were being carried away from ...all constituted life to her at other ...times from excitement and pleasure ...and variety, from sordid and obtrusive ...cares, from the fever of hope and ...the active charm of chance. It was ...a delightful sensation.

...Presently as the road curved the ...sea showed almost to approach the ...land, and the white-crested waves ...were within a few yards of it with a ...loud rushing of the incoming and ...outgoing water making a musical ac...companiment to the humming sound ...of the motor. Then they passed from ...these lines, and the road began to ...wind inward. The sea was shut from ...view by a wall of chalky hillocks cov...ered with stubby grass, and only the ...grey outlook remained.

...Once before, for a brief while, the ...sun had worn a soft, an almost rosy ...light; but as the sun vanished this ...light went also, and now the land...scape stretched into the distance gray, ...apathetic and monotonous.

...The speed of the car lessened as the ...road grew steeper; a thin mist be...gan to gather ahead of them. To Mrs. ...Lancing's imaginative eye this mist ...took the form of a flock of fleecy white ...birds just hovering before winging ...their flight.

...The car pulled up here and, re...leasing his place to the chauffeur, ...stepped into the body of the car.

..."Are you very cold?" he asked, anx...iously. "As you know, I am very much ...afraid, Mrs. Lancing, that this road ...will take us back an hour or so. It ...was foolish of me to come this way. ...The country is new to me, and the ...map is certainly about the worst we ...have struck lately."

...He tucked himself in tucking the ...rug more securely about his ...companion, despite her protestations that ...she was quite warm enough, and quite ...comfortable.

...The road was certainly very bad. ...Although the car disposed of the ...ground with an air of superb ...ease, a certain amount of jolt...ing was inevitable.

...Mrs. Lancing only laughed, how...ever, as she was tossed up and down ...forcibly by the elastic movement ...of the springs.

..."It is a matter of perfect indifference ...to me what time we arrive home," she ...said. "What is the effect motoring has ...on me, it engenders a heavenly sen...se of irresponsibility. I simply ...don't care a pin what happens. My ...only desire is to go on, and ...on."

...Mr. Haverford sat down in the ...car and looked at her with the ...greatest pleasure; she was so de...lightful to look at. The tone of her ...hair was a rich brown; she had on a ...hat of some rough fur, but round ...her throat and shoulders she wore a ...collar of the softest sables; there was a ...touch of sables on her brown hair, ...which held the brown gauze veil ...in place in a cunning bow under her ...chin. A bunch of white flowers which ...Haverford had given her at ...Yelverton was tucked in among the fur ...somewhere, and was the only break ...in the harmonious whole. She turned ...to him as she spoke lightly; she had ...learned the trick of moving her small ...head, which was characteristic and very ...pretty.

..."It is, of course, this sounds horribly ...selfish to me! Shall we be very ...late? I am so sorry if you are sorry, ...and I don't think it matters. ...Nobody else would expect us when ...they have us. Fortunately"—Mrs. ...Lancing laughed—"dinner is a move...able feast at Yelverton, or, indeed, ...wherever Agnes Eynnton pre...sides."

...Haverford frowned this very ...slightly. "I should I am not troubling in ...the very least about Mrs. Brenton or ...her dinner; I am thinking entirely of ...you. This is the first time you have ...entrusted yourself to my care, you ...know, and I want everything to go ...smoothly."

..."Can anything go crookedly with ...you?" asked Camilla Lancing; there ...was the faintest tinge of impatience in ...her voice.

...Haverford laughed.

..."Oh! I supose so," he said. "I have ...certainly had more than my share of ...luck up to now, but one never knows ...what is waiting for one round the cor...ner." Then he half rose and looked ...ahead. "What a mist!" he said. "I ...hope we are not in for a sea fog. I hate ...fog of any sort."

...They drove on in silence for a few ...moments, and the mist gathered in...creasingly about them; the flock of ...birds had melted away, and the white ...velvety film floated about them like ...smoke. Everything became indistinct; ...even the broad outlines of the chauffeur ...were veiled and vague.

...Camilla Lancing spoke first.

..."Now, please don't worry about me," ...she said, half-petulantly, translating ...his silence adroitly. "I am absolutely ...comfortable. Naturally"—she added ...with a laugh—"I know that if I had ...done my duty I should have insisted on ...driving back with Agnes, though she ...declared she did not want me; but it ...is so nice not to do one's duty every ...now and then. Did you ever hear of ...the little boy who always asked to be ...allowed some wickedness on Sundays, ...as he had to be so good all the days of ...the week? I share the sentiments of ...that little boy, Mr. Haverford."

...The car pulled up here again, and the ...chauffeur got down and lit the power...ful lamps. By now they had passed ...completely into the embrace of the ...white fog; the air was raw, and the ...damp cold very penetrating.

..."But perhaps you mean you wanted ...me to go back with the others." Mrs. ...Lancing murmured softly, as they ...moved onwards again.

...Haverford just looked into her eyes, ...that even through the mist and her ...veil shone brilliantly.

..."You know perfectly well I was not ...likely to do that," he answered blunt...ly, and yet there was a kind of re...straint in his voice. Mrs. Lancing ...caught that restraint, and with a sud...den impatient contraction of her brows ...moved almost imperceptibly nearer to ...him; she arranged her veil with her ...small, white-gloved hand, and then ...left it lying for an instant on the out...side of the rug. It was very close to ...his; but Rupert Haverford did not ...touch the hand, neither did he enfold it ...as he might so easily have done pro...tectingly in his large, brown, strong ...one.

...Mrs. Lancing bit her lip.

..."There is no mistake, we are in for ...a fog," she said jerkily, and she slipped ...her hand as she spoke back into the ...warmth of her big sable muff. It was ...not the first time that this man had ...unconsciously repulsed her; there were ...times indeed, when, in her irritation, ...she called him a prig. But she mis...judged him; Rupert Haverford was not ...a prig, he was only a very straight...forward, practical, in a sense, simple-...minded man, who like an explorer, ...was advancing step by step into an ...unknown world, meeting and ming...ling every day with elements which ...were not only new to him, but which ...belonged to a range of things about ...which he had never had occasion to ...think hitherto. Camilla herself was ...prominent among these new sensa...tions; she was at once a bewilderment ...and a fascination. There had been no ...woman of this class in his life up to a ...couple of years before; indeed, women ...of any kind had played but a nominal ...part in the busy, uneventful, and cer...tainly unpicturesque existence which ...had been his lot since early boyhood.

...Mrs. Lancing, of course, knew briefly ...the outlines of the story of this work...ing man and his sudden and unex...pected accession to wealth, and recog...nized clearly enough that Haverford ...was as far removed in thought and ...social education from the various men ...who fluttered in and out of her life ...as the sun is from the earth; but she ...had little discrimination. With her it ...was never a question of character or ...quality; fundamentally she decreed all ...men were alike, strong in prejudice, ...weak in temptation, selfish, and even ...tyrannical; vain and sentimental, un...comfortably moral at times, but amaz...ingly loyal, and, as a rule, sensitively ...moved by the potent charm of a woman ...of her temperament and attractions.

...She liked men very much, she had ...many men friends, and few women ...friends, although the spontaneous ef...fervescing sympathy, which was per...haps her most marked characteristic, ...made her very attractive to women, ...and accounted for her wide popularity; ...there was something so disarming, so ...delightful about Camilla Lancing. ...Beauty alone would never have given ...her a quarter the power she possessed; ...it was her ready interest (absolutely ...genuine for the moment,) her quickness ...in associating herself with those things ...which were paramount with the per...sons who approached her, that made ...her irresistible to all sorts and kinds ...of people.

...She had the tact of a delicately fash...ioned nature, and a vast amount of ...endurance.

...But she was neither reasonable nor ...patient, and the more she saw of Ru...pert Haverford, the more necessary he ...became to her, the less patience she ...had with him.

..."He puzzled her; he piqued her; he ...annoyed her; he made her nervous.

..."What were his feelings towards her...self?

..."He is so horribly slow," she mused ...now fretfully, "he ponders every word ...he says. I suppose he is terribly afraid ...of making a mistake. I am sure his ...money oppresses him. He must have ...been ever so much nicer when he was ...working as a foreman, or drayman, or ...whatever he was before all this money ...came to him."

...She kept her eyes turned resolutely ...away from Haverford. For perversely ...enough, though he was so slow, so ...silent, so dull, he was exceedingly good ...to look at. Old-fashioned, or rather ...out of the fashion, he might be, but ...his manners were irreproachable, and ...his speech cultured, and he dressed ...very well.

...It came to Camilla as an inspiration, ...as the car moved on cautiously through ...the cold white fog, that he was only ...shy and perhaps stupid.

IMPERIAL TRUST.

KAISER MAY BUY OUT STANDARD.

GERMANY CONSIDERS FORMING AN OIL MONOPOLY.

Imperial Treasury Department Exports Studying Plans to Take Over American Company's Business in Empire as Well as Other Establishments Abroad.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BERLIN, Feb. 19.—The imperial treasury department is considering the possibility of government petroleum monopoly. No decision has yet been reached but experts continue to study plans for the taking over of the business in Germany of the Standard Oil Company as well as that of this company's Russian and Roumanian holdings.

Baron Von Zedlitz, leader of the free conservatives in the Prussian diet, who has made a special study of the subject, says the empire would have to make an initial outlay of $18,000,000 for oil plants, tanks and the necessary tank steamers and cars, and that yearly profits of from $10,000,000 to $12,500,000 are to be expected. The Baron is of the opinion that the government can deal successfully with the probable refusal of the Standard Oil Company to supply crude petroleum at a reasonable rate, and he thinks the requirements of the government in American oil would be supplied by the Texas rivals of the Standard.

Experts have found that the oils of Roumania, Galicia, and Russia cannot be used successfully with the burners generally employed in Germany with it a considerable mixture of American petroleum, consequently the projected monopoly must include the buying of about 200,000 tons of American oil a year.

The imperial treasury finds this matter full of difficulties but its examination will be continued along with the study of the possibilities of creating a state monopoly in alcohol.

ASPHALTUM EXPLODES.

In Fire That Follows Big Refining Plant Is Saved by Smart Employees.

Fire which threatened to destroy the $250,000 plant of the Union Consolidated Refining Company, Nos. 420-22 North Avenue 22, started last night at 9:30 o'clock. For twenty minutes the flames played about the big oil tanks, and a destructive blaze was averted only by the effective use of extinguishers, which kept the flames back until the engines arrived. The loss is about $300.

While Ben Thompson, night stillman, was taking a sample of asphaltum from still No. 1, the fluid leaked and an explosion followed. In a few minutes the whole tank was enveloped in flames, and Thompson had a narrow escape. He was slightly burned on the hands, but remained to fight the fire until all danger was past.

Following the explosion, Thompson gave the alarm. Engineer George S. Dimitry sounded the big whistle, and also turned in a call. Employés of the concern and people living near helped to prevent the spread of the fire.

About sixty-five barrels of asphaltum in still No. 1 were ready for pouring off. The pipe leading from the tank melted by the heat and the asphaltum spouted out and was burned. For a time it seemed as if the larger buildings were doomed.

After the arrival of an engine and a hose company there was a short, fast fight, and the blaze was out. Water was played on the hot tanks for an hour afterward to cool them off. Foreman W. S. Miller estimated the damage at $300.

The Practical Gas Construction Company of Chicago, made a voluntary assignment Tuesday and will go out of business. Assets are given at $60,000 and liabilities at $30,000. President J. A. Bower states business has been poor lately and therefore it was decided to close the factory, which employs 350 men.

ORNAMENTALS USEFUL.

Members of the Governor's staff present were Lieut.-Col. William M. Garland, Lieut.-Col. Frank M. Chapman of Covina, Commander E. J. Louis of the Naval Militia, Lieut.-Col. George E. Pillsbury, Lieut.-Col. R. H. Herron, Lieut.-Col. Sherman Pease, Lieut.-Col. Van Nest.

All of Gen. Wankowski's staff were present.

Most of the Governor's aides were in full-dress uniform. Those who were not were informed that they will not be permitted to take any part in the festivities attendant upon the reception to the fleet unless they are in correct military attire.

Some of the aides who have had no military experience did not get their uniforms on right, and were criticised for the disarrangement of their sword knots.

At the conclusion of the inspector's address, Commander E. J. Louis of the Governor's staff stepped to the front, saluted and informed Col. Wilhelm of the organization of the local members of the Governor's staff into an association for helping the national guard.

Col. Wilhelm referred pointedly to the possibility of war while urging the bridgade staff officer to perfect themselves in their business.

URGES STUDY OF DUTIES.

"God knows when war may come," he said. "I want every staff officer to study his duties with reference to troops in the field."

He urged the commissary and quartermasters to make themselves masters of the details of issuing army rations.

Adjt. Gen. Lauck also made a short address, in which he spoke of the convention of the adjutants-general of of the different States to be held in Los Angeles next year. He also spoke of the important bill about to be presented to Congress, which will make the National Guard the permanent second line of defense.

If this bill passes it will make the military arrangements that obtained at the time of the Spanish War impossible.

Militia regiments will then go into war service as a whole, general officers retaining their commands instead of being set aside. Militia regiments will be kept together in militia brigades and will retain their State name and number. On going into war service, they will be called for an indefinite term—"for the war."

Tonight Col. Wilhelm will inspect the Signal Corps; Friday night, Troop D; Monday, Company F; Tuesday, Company A; Wednesday, Company C.

INVESTIGATES DEFUNCT BANK.

Comptroller Ridgely Confers With the Stockholders of Big Kansas City Institution.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 19.—W. B. Ridgely, Comptroller of the Currency, arrived here this morning from the East to go over with the stockholders of the failed National Bank of Commerce their plans for reorganization of that institution. Tomorrow the stockholders of the bank will hold an election to choose directors, who subsequently will elect a new president.

Mr. Ridgely has been asked to assume the direction of the reorganized bank. He has persistently said that he had no intention of leaving the office of Comptroller of the Currency.

CANAL JOB APPROVED.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Some time ago President Dolan of the steam shovelers' and dredgers' union went to Panama to see how the shovel men were getting along under the new arrangement as to hours of duty and pay put in operation by Secretary Taft.

In a letter to the President, dated Canal Zone, Feb. 7, made public today, Mr. Dolan says that as a practical man he feels that this is one of the best equipped and handled jobs that has ever been carried on in the world.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

SORROW.

SONS WAIT BY FATHER'S SIDE.

CROSBY S. NOYES IS MAKING A BRAVE FIGHT FOR LIFE.

Distinguished Patient at Hotel Raymond, Pasadena, One of Best Beloved Newspaper Man in World. Election on Bond Issues—Raymond Hotel Employees' Minstrels.

Office of The Times, No. 24 S. Raymond Ave.

PASADENA, Feb. 20.—At the Hotel Raymond lies sick one of the oldest and best-loved newspaper men in the world, Crosby S. Noyes, who spent a life time in building up one of the most conservative, energetic, carefully edited newspapers on the globe, the Washington Evening Star. His sons have hurried to his bedside. Two of them, Thomas Noyes and Frank B. Noyes are already here. Theodore Noyes is on his way from Washington and will be in Pasadena tomorrow night. Crosby S. Noyes, is 83 years old, and he has worked himself from reporter into a position where he may be termed the dean of the newspaper profession in the United States. He never lost touch with his newspaper whether he was in China, Japan, Europe or Africa, and his extensive travels only began at that period of his life when his sons were able to take the burden of his work. Frank B. Noyes is the president of the Associated Press and the general manager of the Chicago Record-Herald. Theodore Noyes, who is expected here tomorrow, is his father's

Frank B. Noyes,
president of the Associated Press, visiting Pasadena.

representative on the Washington Evening Star.

The father is very ill, but rallying bravely, and these sons who are among the leaders of molders of public thought, sit by him hour by hour and day by day, reading to him the news of the day and receiving his admonitions as to the management of the greatest craft on earth, the furnishing of information—current history—to the people who have to vote right and think right on the matters that make up daily life. Frank B. Noyes, president of the Associated Press said last night: "I think my father is the wisest man I ever knew." The two sons sit by their father's bedside with a grief too deep for expression.

Frank B. Noyes last night was asked by a reporter for The Times to give his impressions of conditions in the East. He answered: "While my father is desperately ill, verging toward the grave, it would be manifestly improper for me to discuss politics, finance or commercial affairs." He thinks, however, that prosperity for the whole country is assured. Gathered from definite but impersonal expressions to his associates, his summing of the situation in the East is a rosy hope for the future, immediate and prospective.

Mr. Noyes is one of the sincerest admirers of the President. He attributes to him sincere convictions, general good-will to men, and extreme conscientiousness. He thinks Taft is just as strong—and even stronger in some directions.

TO VOTE ON BONDS.

Today the voters of Pasadena will pass on the proposed $50,000 issue of sewer bonds for the East Side and the $50,000 issue for the lighting of streets. The places of voting are:

Precinct No. 1—All of First Ward. Polling place, No. 185 East Colorado street.

Precinct No. 2—All of Second Ward. Polling place, City Hall.

Precinct No. 3—All of Third Ward. Polling place, No. 10 South Euclid avenue.

Precinct No. 4—All of Fourth Ward. Polling place, southwest corner of Fair Oaks avenue and Green street.

Precinct No. 5—All of Fifth Ward. Polling place, Painter's bowling alley.

All of Precinct No. 15 and all of Precinct No. 16 as described in Section 1 of Ordinance No. 745 of the city of Pasadena, adopted February 5, 1907, being the territory annexed to the city of Pasadena July 12, 1906. Polling place, No. 1240 East Colorado street.

BREAKS ELECTRIC LIGHT.

Last evening Morehouse Stevens, a resident on Orange Grove avenue, happened to raise his cane too high, and broke one of the electric lights. He was arrested.

EMPLOYEES' MINSTRELS.

At the Hotel Raymond last evening the employés gave a minstrel performance for the benefit of their sick fund, to which the guests were invited. This aggregation of talent will repeat the programme tonight.

AUTOIST RELEASED.

William Kellar and Frederick Butts, who took the auto of Walter Barnes and went on an excursion last Thursday, were placed on parole by Judge Robert McDonald yesterday.

YOUTH LEAVES HOME.

Young James Bartlett has disappeared. He is supposed to have gone to the race track at Arcadia and to have become infatuated with sporting life.

PLAY AT COLONIAL GAMES.

At the Maryland last night the women and men enjoyed a "calico party." The costumes were more interesting than country entertainments. Janice Meredith, Dolly Varden and many other interesting characters of fiction were represented.

Phelps for wall paper and paints. Artists' materials at Wadsworth's. Massage, Swedish movements, at residence. Miss Sigrid Ruth. Home 778. Hotel Vista del Arroyo. Three-room suite; one room with bath.

WHO IS HE?

FOUND FLOATING, UNCONSCIOUS.

MAN RESCUED AT SAN PEDRO, BUT SOON DIES.

No Evidence as to Whether He Sought Death or Fell in Water Accidentally — Inquest Today—Customhouse Report Interesting—Semi-official Steamship Announcement.

SAN PEDRO, Feb. 19.—An unidentified man about 50 years of age was found floating unconscious in the inner harbor this afternoon near the foot of Fifth street. The discovery was made by Ralph Anderson, a young real estate agent. Apparently the man had been in the water but a few minutes, and when pulled on board the sloop Edith, there were faint signs of life. Dr. Albert Winn worked over him for an hour, but was unable to resuscitate him. The body was removed to the Lucas undertaking parlors, and an inquest will be held tomorrow.

Whether the victim fell into the water accidentally or committed suicide cannot be determined. Nothing of value was found on his person. He was dressed in a dark suit of fairly good material, had gray hair and mustache and would weight about 130 pounds. On the inside band of his hat were the perforated letters "P. B." The hat was sold by a Los Angeles merchant.

In the pockets of the coat a card was found, on which was printed: "J. W. Brand, picture painting, 317 S. Fremont. Phone Main 4278." The only other mark of identification was a storekeeper's receipt from the Los Angeles Gas and Electrical Company, for nine months, dated December 24, 1907, and signed "Brand."

John Iman, a policeman, states that he has noticed the man fishing from the Southern Pacific wharf for several days.

CUSTOMHOUSE REPORT.

The report of the customhouse for the month of January makes an excellent showing, particularly in the items of foreign imports. There arrived 87 coastwise steamers, 3 foreign ones, 14 schooners, 1 barkentine, 1 foreign ship and 1 foreign bark, a total of 108 vessels, having a net tonnage of 57,962 tons, and carrying in crews 2067 seamen.

The domestic imports were 24,456,000 feet of lumber, 8,721,000 shingles, 202,000 laths, 1208 piling, 1221 poles, 8262 ties, 1977 tons of grain, 1432 tons of flour, 765 tons of paper, 2828 tons of merchandise and 3630 passengers. The exports were 1195 tons of merchandise, 21,138 barrels of oil and 3757 passengers departed.

A detailed statement of foreign import is interesting and includes 3,475,180 pounds of pig iron, 127,450 Japanese oak ties, 5,271,820 pounds of cement from Antwerp, 1,867,225 pounds of coke, 114,000 pounds of phosphates, 2000 pounds of arsenic, 3000 pounds of oxalic acid, 1466 cases of mineral water, 2553 cases of liquor, 5 barrels of whisky, 200 cases of sheep dip, 100 cases of ginger ale, 62 cases of granite, 109 cases of earthenware, 300 drums powder bleaching, 261,189 pounds of alum, 129,000 pounds of fire brick, 58,740 pounds of steel plows, 980 cases of ale and 1480 cases of stout.

CABRILLO'S NEW COMMANDER.

Capt. P. B. Blanchard today succeeded Capt. Gustav Johnson as master of the Catalina Island steamer Cabrillo. Capt. Blanchard recently brought the steamer Virginia from New York, around Cape Horn to San Francisco, carrying 15,000 tons of coal for the United States government, to be used in coaling Rear-Admiral Evans's fleet upon its arrival.

SCHEDULE CHANGED.

It was announced semi-officially here today that, beginning next week, the Pacific Coast Steamship Company's steamers Santa Rosa and State of California will call at this port going each way between San Diego and San Francisco.

CAMPAIGN IN FULL SWING.

Ocean Park Independence Club Nominates—Fire Engine House Completed.

OCEAN PARK, Feb. 19.—The Ocean Park Independence Club has nominated I. A. Ewing and J. B. Sands on the Non-Partisan ticket for City Trustees. Five are to be nominated and elected, and the tacit understanding is that the Progressive Party will indorse these two and name three others. Should such action be taken, it is probable there will be only two tickets in the field at the April election.

The new fire engine house is practically completed, but there is not much to put in it. Frank Watson, chief of the department, has recommended the purchase of a team to draw the gasoline fire engine, which is said to be ready for business, but which is too heavy to be drawn by hand. He has also recommended the installation of a $3000 combination chemical engine. The fire committee is to make investigation as to the merit of these recommendations.

OREGON SOCIETY.

At a meeting to be held in Burbank Hall on Monday evening the organization of the Oregon Society of Southern California will be completed. At the same time the unfinished part of the recent Oregon banquet programme will be presented. A bit of old-time hospitality is promised, and there will be a renewal of acquaintances. Arrangements will be completed at this time for the Oregon outing, to be held at some beach, or in the mountains, on Pioneer Day in June.

SANTA MONICA.

SANTA MONICA, Feb. 19.—At a fire which destroyed two residences at Eighth street and Michigan avenue, last night, an old soldier, Dr. Matge, was burned to death. Although he had been a familiar figure on the streets for a long time, little is known about him.

FOREMAN'S SUDDEN DEATH.

COVINA, Feb. 19.—J. E. Robbins, section foreman for the Pacific Electric Company, died suddenly today. He was 37 years old and leaves a widow and two children. He will be buried in Los Angeles Friday.

SHE FASTS FOR HEALTH'S SAKE.

CHICAGO TEACHER EXPERIMENTS AT LONG BEACH.

After Nine Days of Orange Juice Diet, She Takes Long Walks and Seems Strong—City Wants Band. Savings Bank Committees Confer Without Result—New Ordinance.

LONG BEACH, Feb. 19.—Miss Etta Priscilla Grove, a teacher in a school in Chicago, who is spending the winter here, with her sister, Miss Jessie Grove, and occupying rooms at the Cynthia Annex, has undertaken a fast which she hopes will rival the famous one of Dr. H. S. Tanner, who is at present in this city, and under whose directions she is. This is her ninth day of abstinence, and Miss Grove says she has no sensation of weakness. She believes that fasting improves health. While she has eaten no solid food, she has taken the juice of two or three oranges daily. She spends much of her time out of doors, and enjoys long walks, accompanied by her sister.

Miss Priscilla fasted once for five days in Chicago, and again for ten day in New Jersey, and was benefited each time.

OPTION TO BAND.

The Amusement Committee of the Council today tendered to R. A. Eno, local representative of Moore's Band of Los Angeles, an option to furnish music for the city for nine months, provided that by next Monday the band can show a bona-fide subscription list of not less than $400 a week. The organization shall consist of not less than twenty-five members, and shall give six afternoon concerts and three night concerts free to the public. In return, the privilege of giving three dances each week in the Auditorium will be granted. The band must give $2500 bond to carry out its contract.

COMMITTEES CONFER VAINLY.

A committee appointed by the directors and stockholders of the Citizens' Savings Bank met a committee of the depositors this morning, and thrashed out the matter of the proposed receivership. It developed that the stockholders want a local man appointed, while the depositors are equally determined that the receivership shall go to a trust company. As neither side would withdraw from its position, nothing was accomplished. During the conference it is said to have been admitted by the directors that no hope was entertained of the bank's reopening.

MAY LOWER WATER RATES.

Members of the Council are holding nightly caucuses in an endeavor to get the new ordinance fixing water rates in shape for presentation tomorrow. Some of the Councilmen are of the opinion that rates are excessive and discriminating, and favor lowering them. It is understood that the ordinance will also provide for a meter, when desired by the consumer. As a result of its investigation, the Council favors a municipal water plant, and will take action as soon as taxpayers present a petition asking for it.

COLLAPSES AT BARBER'S.

P. L. Kimball, just arrived from Arizona, collapsed in a barber's chair today while being shaved. He was given temporary treatment and taken to Los Angeles later for hospital care.

In order to allow of building improvements north of Third street, between Cedar and Elm, the Board of Public Works will recommend to the Council that fire district No. 1 be altered with the north limits running along Third street. The ordinance requires all buildings in this district to be fireproof.

E. H. Dublin of Langdon, N. D., today hooked a 425-pound jewfish while trolling, and landed his prize after a desperate fight.

MACHINE DITCHED.

The big digging machine belonging to the county went into the ditch this morning at Eleventh and Orange and is deeply mired in the mud.

The launch J. C. Elliott was given a successful trial trip today with her new 80-horse-power three-cylinder engine. The Elliott and Nellie will be inspected Thursday.

The Friends Church, which, under the direction of Rev. Andrew Mitchell, has made great growth in the past two years, has secured his services for another two years.

OFFICIALS INSPECT.

Fire Chief Shrewsbury, Chief of Police Williams and Sergeant Kutz made a tour of the moving picture shows today to investigate the facilities for hasty exit in case of fire. They also inspected alleys in the business district and ordered rubbish cleaned up.

Dr. Preston S. Kellogg and wife of the Long Beach Sanatorium left today for San Francisco, whence they will go to the Philippines, where Dr. Kellogg will serve two years longer as civilian surgeon for the United States government. He has already served seven and a half years in that capacity.

TOURISTS AT REDONDO.

REDONDO, Feb. 19.—Manager Woolacott of the Hotel Redondo, referring to the tourist influx, stated today that the present season compares favorably with any prior one in his experience.

The following are registered at the Hotel Redondo: Mrs. W. J. Preston Miss Bessie Saul, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Waldon and George E. Snyder, of Chicago; the Misses J. M. and M. H. Smith of Pittsburgh; D. POMONA.

POMONA, Feb. 19.—A committee of the local merchants' association, which has completed a canvass among the business men of the city, announces that this year there will be no closing of stores on Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day or July 4, as all of these holidays come on Saturday. It is the consensus of opinion that the closing of stores on last days of the week would work too much hardship especially to the country customers.

The Pomona Valley branch of the Los Angeles County Medical Society enjoyed a pleasant meeting at the home of Dr. Frank Garcelon last evening. Papers were read by Dr. Hanna, Scott Turner and Dr. J. K. Swindt.

Mrs. R. Gittings, who has purchased a lot from Hoffman & Ulery at the corner of Fifth and Park avenue, will build a bungalow.

HARMONY AT AVALON.

AVALON, Feb. 19.—The announcement, made yesterday, of the agreement between the Meteor Boat Company and the Banning Company, was confirmed today by representatives of both concerns. It is understood that the Meteor Boat Company, in consideration of landing privileges on the Banning Company's property, will accept a limited number of passes and all combination tickets issued by the latter company.

A new waiting room at the foot of Catalina avenue will be built for the use of glass-bottom boat owners and passengers upon the power boats Cleopatra and Empress. A ticket office will be installed in the new structure.

Crowds Throng Offices.

European Medical Experts at 745 So. Main Street Are Visited by Scores of Sick People Daily. Their Treatments Bringing Health and Happiness to Many Los Angeles Homes.

Creole Belles and Alabama Minstrels the Bill at the People's Theater This Week Attracts Thousands.

The offices of the European Medical Experts at 745 So. Main street, are crowded daily during their office hours with those who come from near and far to consult these eminent physicians and learn the truth concerning their cures. On file at this office are thousands of testimonials from happy persons who have been cured of all sorts of chronic diseases.

During the remainder of this month all those who take treatment will be treated for the cost of the medicine alone. This gives the rich and poor alike an opportunity to be cured at a very low cost. There will be a charge of $1.00 for consultation to those who do not hold consultation cards.

The show given by the Great Fer-Don's Stock Company of 30 people at the People's Theater on Main street, between 5th and 6th Sts., is proving an interesting attraction, and hundreds are being turned away owing to the large crowds and unable to secure admission. More than two hours' show are given for ten cents to all parts of the house.

PASSING OF MRS KILLIAN.

MONROVIA, Feb. 19.—After a long illness, Mrs. J. S. Killian died yesterday at the California Hospital in Los Angeles. She and her husband came from the South a quarter of a century ago and purchased a ranch in the El Monte district. They were the first to engage extensively in walnut growing in that section and the Killian groves are among the largest individual holdings in the State. They were also the first to develop wells for irrigation in the El Monte district and practically revolutionized the agricultural condition of a vast area. There are four sons, one a recent graduate and the other an under graduate from the University of California. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 1:30 o'clock p.m. Interment will be in the Live Oak Cemetery.

Salvationists Want Fund for Hom Given Unconditionally — Wish May Be Complied With—Druggis Seek Liquor Licenses—Wood Deale Injured—Odd Fellows' Drill Teams.

REDLANDS, Feb. 19.—The Salvati Army, through its new district co mander, Col. Charles Miles of S Francisco, has at last given a defin answer to the local Advisory Comm tee for the Salvation Army home fur which was contributed by Redlands c zens. The pledge cards contained clause to the effect that if ever th building was not used for the purpo for which it was designed, it wou revert to the city. The army too exception to this clause after the mo ey had been secured and for week and months the matter has been di cussed. And now the army's answe is a positive refusal to accept th building on the terms contained in th pledge card.

In view of this, the local committe has now decided to submit the ques tion, "What will you do about it?" t contributors.

Col. Miles states that a building ha never before been accepted with an such stipulations and that the army is unwilling to establish a precedent A committee consisting of R. Holtb ers, Dr. E. E. Major and Col. Miles was appointed to draw up a circular letter to be sent to all contributors asking whether they will be willing that their contributions should be used if the fund is turned over to the army unqualifiedly.

DRUGGISTS WANT LICENSE.

At a meeting of the Trustees, this afternoon, C. W. Fleming, C. C. Abbey, D. Goff, W. L. Spoor and Mont P. Babb, all local druggists, asked for licenses to dispense liquor upon prescription as provided by ordinance. It seems that they have a lawful right to such a license, but it has never been granted them for some reason. At the last meeting of the Trustees the matter was discussed. The druggists stated that they had been told that it was of no use to ask for licenses as they would not be granted.

REDLANDS NOTES.

A. J. Haney, a wood dealer living at No. 21 Webster street, while loading wood on a wagon at East Highland yesterday, was hit by a piece of wood, which fell from the chute overhead, inflicting an ugly gash on the head and rendering him unconscious.

A. B. Hendricks will begin breaking ground on his Moreno Valley ranch in a few days, preparatory to the planting of 300 acres to orange trees. He recently bored a well in the town of Moreno and secured almost a hundred inch flow, which will be used for irrigating purposes.

Arrivals at La Casa Loma are: Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Shinn, Spokane; Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Fields, Riverside; Mrs. Anna F. Swift, Mrs. Charles Fernald, Mrs. B. Swift, William E. Swift, Chicago; C. WEDDING BELLS IN PLEASE VALLEY

SAN BERNARDINO'S CITY CLERK BECOMES BENEDICT.

Bride and Groom Both Social Favorites Throughout County—Latter Prominent in Fraternal as Well as Political Circles—Wholesale Slaughter of Birds.

SAN BERNARDINO, Feb. 19.—In the marriage of Miss Clara Dunlap to Harry L. Allison at Rialto today, Pleasant valley was interested, but particularly residents of the town of San Bernardino and of Redlands. Both bride and groom are great favorites.

Mr. Allison, who is credited with being one of the most popular young men of the county, is serving his second term as City Clerk of San Bernardino. His friends are ambitious that he will win a more important official position in the future. He is not only well known in political, but also in social circles.

The ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Dunlap, parents of the bride. Mr. Dunlap is a prominent fruit grower, having large interests at Redlands and Rialto.

The young couple will spend a week in Los Angeles and the beaches, and upon their return make their home in a cozy bungalow that has just been built for them in this city.

The marriage licence in red roll, two years, was delivered at the Dunlap home by automobile with the compliments of the Deputy County Clerk, R. M. Armstrong, after its exhibition through the business section. Among the gifts was a silver tea set from city officials.

SLAUGHTER OF BIRDS.

The slaughter of thousands of quail and other song birds through the state has been discovered by Deputy Sheriff at Cucamonga, and wholesale arrests are anticipated. Ontario officials are working on the case declare that the extermination of these birds is said to have been in progress for years.

It is charged that Italians on one of the largest vineyards in the county have driven brush into an arroyo, and that at the mouth of the gulch spread a fine net of weave that the smallest bird could not escape. When ready for slaughter, fifty or more formers commence to beat the brush in the direction of the net, which is fitted with a series of elastic threads. As the birds dash against it, their heads slip into the meshes and they are imprisoned. The Italians, it is alleged, ring their necks and throw the bodies into sacks.

TREASURE CAR PROTECTED.

A freight wreck on the Salt Lake, in Southern Utah, Monday, delayed overland traffic eighteen hours, and resulted in a peculiar method of protecting a car of rich ore consigned to Salt Lake City from one of the Nevada mines. In the wreck the trucks were torn from beneath the car, and owing to its rich cargo the company dared not leave it unguarded. In order to get the main line clear, this car was shunted along the track by an engine for seven miles, and placed on a sidetrack, under armed guard.

NEW PASTOR WELCOMED.

Rev. A. G. Fessenden and family were tendered a welcome, last evening, at the First Presbyterian Church, the occasion being Mr. Fessenden's advent to this city as pastor of the church. The reception was attended by all the clergymen of the city and their parishioners. A musical programme was rendered. Mr. Fessenden comes here from the Mount View Presbyterian Church of Los Angeles.

Boston W. Smith, organizer of the chapel car movement in this country, will address the children of the city at a rally, at the First Baptist Church, Thursday afternoon.

TEMPERANCE RALLY.

An enthusiastic temperance rally was held this evening at the First Methodist Church. Addresses were made by William Murphy, his son, Thomas, and prominent business men. It was the finale of a campaign which has been in progress during the past two weeks. Judge Bledsoe acted as chairman. Francis Murphy, Jr., rendered several inspiring solos.

HUNTERS INTERESTED.

Action to Determine Whether State Game Preserve Covers Upper Newport Bay.

SANTA ANA, Feb. 19.—The trial of the suit brought to determine whether the State had a legal game preserve covering the upper part of Newport Bay was set this morning in the Superior Court for March 16. Judge West after reviewing the proceedings in the lower court decided that there were sufficient errors in the record to call for a trial in the upper tribunal.

The action was instituted after A. A. Lester had subjected himself to arrest for killing a duck on the preserve. He was found guilty in the lower court and fined $10.

In the coming trial there will be an attack by the defense upon the legality of the preserve. Hitherto the game warden refused to allow any one to hunt on the upper bay, and it was claimed that the preserve covered the whole of this and not merely the part to which James Irvine had a State patent. At Lester's examination it developed that the State Fish Commissioners do not lay claim to anything except the patented land.

REAL ESTATE PROBLEM.

If the prospective purchaser of a piece of real estate makes a deposit and then decides not to buy, who gets the deposit—the owner of the lot or the real estate man, and how should it be divided, if divided at all?

This question is involved in an appeal case from the justice's court at Anaheim. Joseph P. Gibson turned a lot over to J. W. Enfield and W. A. Ross to sell. A man deposited $40 and then backed out of the deal. The real estate men gave Gibson $15 and kept $25. Gibson sued for the $25, and Justice of the Peace Howard decided that the real estate men ought to be allowed to keep the money. From that decision Gibson appeals to the Superior Court.

POLICE SUSPICIOUS.

A man who gives his name as Joe Murphy and who claims to have been a baseball player and coach, was arrested here on suspicion last night. He had attempted to borrow money on a gold watch on which was engraved: "Presented to J. P. Murphy by his little band of workers." The prisoner claims that the watch was presented to him by a baseball team. The police thing the inscription suggests a Sunday-school class rather than a ball team, and an investigation is being made.

Co. L, N.G.C., of Santa Ana expects to have an indoor target shoot with a team from Co. F of Los Angeles Sunday. The local company recently installed an indoor range, with targets reduced in size.

The Y.M.C.A. Executive Committee has organized a campaign to raise $20,000 for a building here. The officers of the association are A. J. Crookshank, president; J. P. Baumgartner, vice-president, and Ed Tedford, secretary.

ELSINORE.

ELSINORE, Feb. 19.—Three miles of cement pipe are being made here by the Temescal Water Company's employés, to be substituted for their open ditch, beginning below the city pumping plant and extending down the Temescal Cañon. A large number of men are employed at the camp on Spring street.

A carload of lemons and two of oranges have been shipped to Riverside buyers from orchards on Grand avenue.

The Sunset Telephone Company has been absorbed by the Home. The line extends almost around the lake and to Wildomar and the service is excellent.

Considerable street work is being done and the main roads are being put in excellent condition. Elsinore has some of the finest automobile roads in the State.

Olive oil and pickles are being made at the Lakeland ranch on Grand avenue. C. H. Alvers of St. Louis, owner of the ranch, was here recently.

Mrs. C. Fetterly is critically ill. Her sister, Mrs. John Brockman of Los Angeles, and Miss M. Brockman of New York, arrived yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Custer and daughter, Mrs. Herbert Miller, of Streator, Ill., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Defenbaugh, at the Hotel Bundy.

A. E. Stiles of Los Angeles is a guest at the Bundy. He owns acreage in Warm Spring Valley, which he is planting to eucalypti.

S. A. Hill of Riverside is spending a few days here.

Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Haughawout and son, Leo, and Mrs. M. Buck, who were guests of the doctor's mother, returned to Los Angeles this morning.

Among arrivals at the Bundy Hot Springs Hotel are: Joe Gilmore, A. E. Stiles, L. G. Crocker, J. McNulty, G. A. Flood, W. H. Manhuie, Mrs. E. F. Cohn, Los Angeles; Homer Broadt, Carl Noake, San Francisco; W. H. Selsor, Pasadena.

Among arrivals at the Lakeview yesterday were: William Rymerson and wife, Miss C. Smith, C. A. Fellows and wife, Arthur Kutal, C. A. Applefary, E. Dennis, Bert Phillips, Mrs. Alex C. Blair, Mrs. W. C. Strickler, Dr. Lucas, A. K. Warren, Los Angeles; Benjamin Wilson and wife, Ontario; Joe Hughes, Long Beach; J. H. Haverich, G. A. Smith, S. A. Hill, Riverside.

TO OPEN OLD TOLL ROAD.

Riverside Supervisors Take Action. Home for Grouse—Poolroom Ordinance Passed.

RIVERSIDE, Feb. 19.—Action was taken by the Supervisors, today, toward opening up the picturesque old toll road in the San Jacinto Mountains, between Florida and Idyllwild. This road has been abandoned for about seven years. It reduces the distance from Hemet to Idyllwild about five miles, and there is a general desire on the part of San Jacinto and Hemet people to have it made a county road.

At the meeting of the board, D. G. Webster, A. Domenigoni and County Surveyor Pearson were appointed viewers. They will go over the road and make a report at the next meeting as to the work to be done. It is proposed to reduce the grade by putting in a number of switchbacks at the steepest portions. The thoroughfare passes over the lands of the Idyllwild Sanatorium Company, A. Domenigoni and the government forest reserve. Mr. Domenigoni has in contemplation the building of a hotel on his mountain ranch near Idyllwild.

HOME FOR GROUSE SELECTED.

The Hungarian grouse, which are expected to arrive in Riverside county in a few days, will be taken to a well-wooded cañon six miles southeast of the Rawson ranch, in Crown Valley, for propagation. This was decided upon by the Riverside County Game and Fish Association, at a meeting last night. The cañon has a stream flowing through it, is bordered by willows and oaks, and is comparatively free from coyotes and wild cats. This home for the grouse was selected upon the recommendation of Capt. C. H. Vosburgh, county game warden, and a committee of hunters who have spent some time investigating various locations. It was also decided at the meeting to begin the work of trapping quail in sections of the county where they are destroying the crops, and liberating them in the foothills near Riverside, where these birds are scarce.

PLUNGES THROUGH WINDOW.

Later reports received as to the escape of Edward J. Ebey from Sheriff F. P. Wilson, on his way to San Quentin, confirm the impression that Ebey is wanted elsewhere on charges more serious than that of the theft of a freight car, for which he was sentenced from Riverside county. Sheriff Wilson, who has returned to Riverside, states that in order to make his escape, Ebey plunged through a heavy plate glass window as the two were going to another car for a drink of water. Wilson made a dash for his prisoner but was not able to catch him. He made a search of the tule marsh, in which Ebey disappeared, but without success. All of the peace officers in that section have been notified.

SWEEPING ORDINANCE.

In order to prevent the selling of intoxicants in pool rooms, under the guise of temperance drinks, the Supervisors today passed an ordinance prohibiting the selling or distributing of drinks of any kind in any billiard hall or pool room in Riverside county. The ordinance also makes it unlawful to hang curtains or maintain screens at the windows, or allow minors to play in or frequent any pool room.

A flutter of interest has been caused by the announcement that Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan and a party of three ladies are to arrive here Thursday, for a short stay at the Glenwood Tavern.

VENTURA.

VENTURA, Feb 19.—Mrs. Nelle Newby Cullom, widow of the late Shelby M. Cullom, clerk of the Supreme Court of Arizona, was married in Chicago, today, to Mr. Paul Brizzard, a well-known merchant of the Territory. The ceremony took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Gale, on the lake shore. Mrs. Brizzard is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Newby of this town, and is well known in Pheonix, Los Angeles and Ventura. Mr. Brizzard, who has long been in business in Phoenix, is a man of large interests there and is also the chief partner in the mercantile house of Brizzard & Co., at Arcata, Humboldt county. The couple, after a tour of the East, will live in Phoenix until Mr. Brizzard disposes of his interests there, and then they will make their home in Arcata.

Ventura Council, royal and select masters, gave a banquet last night at Masonic Hall to Grand Master C. W. Norton of Stockton and Grand Lecturer Henry Arncroft of San Francisco.

Nervous women should profit by Mrs. Barton's experience with Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Mrs. Helen Barton, of 27 Pearson Street, Chicago, Ill., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was all run-down, and on the verge of nervous prostration from overwork and worry, and ill in bed, when I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After I had taken it a week I commenced to get better. I continued its use, my nervous trouble disappeared, and I am completely restored to health. I hope Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will benefit other women as it has me."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

DR. MILES, The Master Specialist.

If You Are Suffering From Any Weakness or Any Other Disease Peculiar to Men, Seek My Expert Services at Once.

PAY AFTER I HAVE CURED YOU

I want to impress it upon every weak man that I can make him strong, vigorous, healthy, alert and free from every taint of disease and weakness. I have limited my specialty in practice to only a few of the more important disorders, so that I could KNOW these thoroughly, my experience along this one path for twenty-five years qualifies me to say positively that such troubles as Lost Vigor, Varicocele, Hydrocele, Stricture and "Weakness" can be cured perfectly—so as to stay cured. Of course I use different methods than the ordinary physician. Most of these are original with me and were devised for just such cases as the ordinary courses of treatment fail to reach.

My Fee in Any Uncomplicated Ailment of Men is Only..... $10.00

Dosing the system with powerful stimulants and tonics in an effort to restore functional vigor can have but one final result. The condition is rendered worse than before. "Weakness" is merely an indication of a low form of inflammation in the prostate gland, and this inflammation is but aggravated by stimulating remedies that excite temporary activity. I employ the only scientific and fully effective treatment for "weakness" which effects a permanent cure by restoring the prostate gland to a sound and healthy state. I obtain complete results in every case I treat. Interesting literature and a beautifully engraved chart free if you will call.

Examination Free

I offer not only FREE consultation and advise, but of every case that comes to me I will make a careful examination and diagnosis without charge. No ailing man should neglect this opportunity to get expert opinion about his trouble.

The Magic Power of Electricity

Makes Wrecked Men Vigorous, Strong and Manly

"I Feel Great"

How often that is said by men who have been cured of nervous debility by the Dr. McLaughlin Electric Belt! They say it every day. Men who have been weak, gloomy, irresolute and who had no ambition in their natures at all, are now holding up their heads in pride, with the knowledge that perfect strength is restored; that they are as good as any man that walks and better than any man of their size. You know you are weak now, and wish you could say that you were as good as any man of your size. You can if you will use the great Invigorator.

DR. McLAUGHLIN'S ELECTRIC BELT

They come every day from everywhere. There is not a town or hamlet in the country which has not cures by Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt.

Now, what does this mean to you, dear reader? If you are not what you ought to be, can you ask any better proof to make you try it? Is there a remedy which is so simple, so easy to use, so sure to cure and so cheap as Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt? We have not seen one. You must try it. In justice to yourself and to those who look to you for their future happiness, try it now. Add this minute. Such a matter ought not to be delayed.

It is as good for women as for men. Worn while you sleep, it causes no trouble. You feel the gentle, glowing heat from it constantly, but no sting, no burning, as in old style belts.

GREAT WORK FOR THE CITY.

Chamber of Commerce Makes Annual Report.

Splendid Results Achieved During the Year.

Demand for Information Is on the Increase.

With the acceptance of the annual reports of the officers and chairmen of committees, the fiscal year of the Chamber of Commerce formally closed yesterday. The newly-elected officers will assume their duties at the banquet Saturday night.

The report of Secretary Wiggins reviewed the work of the past year in boosting this section and making a bid for settlers. "Our force is working to full capacity," stated the secretary, "and the demand for information is on the increase, showing most conclusively that with unsettled financial and commercial conditions, people are looking for a change and naturally cast their glances toward the country which is most enticing and promises the best returns. To satisfy inquiries, both by mail and personal application, it is our aim to give authentic and reliable information. We aim not only to satisfy but to protect the applicant from mercenary and unscrupulous promotion workers."

The secretary gave a brief account of the publicity obtained through the exhibits at Atlantic City and at the Jamestown exposition and stated that as a direct result of the advertising of this section persons were coming here to live.

In matters of legislation, Mr. Wiggins reported that the Chamber had taken action in regard to the olive oil industry, the sulphuring of dried fruits, additional forest protection and various other questions of local and national importance.

FINANCIAL STANDING GOOD.

The secretary's financial report showed that the year started with a balance in the treasury of $3540.47 and that the receipts had been $37,977.20, making a total of $41,517.67, while the disbursements for salaries, rent, office supplies, printing, receptions, telephones, insurance, etc., amounted to $30,759.92. The receipts over disbursements were $8967.28, and this sum added to the balance brought forward and cash in hand for emergency expenses gave $10,757.75 to be carried forward.

James Slauson, chairman of the Transportation Committee, stated that the most important matter considered was the establishing of a direct steamship line between the Hawaiian Islands and Southern California. Although there was no immediate prospect of establishing such a line at present, the committee felt the matter should be constantly agitated.

FOR GOOD ROADS.

An important report was made by the Committee on Roads. S. A. Butler, chairman, and also president of the Los Angeles County Good Roads Association, stated that in connection with the work done by a previous committee, a right of way has been secured for a boulevard from the western limits of the city through Beverly Hills and Soldiers' Home to Santa Monica.

"The building of 300 miles of permanent road in this county will mean more for the advancement of Southern California than could result from any other improvement," stated Mr. Butler. "When the bonds for the building of the system of roads are presented to the people of Los Angeles county, the Chamber of Commerce will lend every assistance possible to carry them, as this great public improvement is most important at this time."

A. W. Skinner, chairman of the Committee on Membership, stated that as he was about to retire after serving seven years, he would make a report for his full term. On February 1, 1901, the membership was 1038; during the seven years, 2101 have joined, 649 resigned or were dropped and 87 died, leaving a present membership of 2403, more than double that in 1901.

A compliment to the local hotels was paid by Walter Raymond, chairman of the Hotel Committee. "There are no better city or resort hotels to be found anywhere," he stated. "No factor in this portion of the Pacific Coast has been more powerful in the upbuilding of this beautiful land than its hotels."

The report of Chairman A. B. Cass, of the Committee on Expositions, related to the need of showing the public what are the attractions of this section. Reference was made to the local display at the State Board of Trade in San Francisco and the exhibit at Atlantic City. The latter showed a profit in its maintenance for the past year. The receipts were $21,682.31, and the disbursements $19,737.55, leaving a balance of nearly $2000.

EXHIBIT AT SEATTLE.

Chairman Cass stated that while it was early to begin preparations for the exhibition to be held in Seattle in 1909, it was well to formulate some plan for the display from Southern California, and the chamber was urged to take immediate action.

"Our participation at Portland is still bearing fruit," said he, "and yearly excursions from the north are now settled features. To repeat our Portland exhibit at Seattle will be the means of increasing the patronage of those excursions, and will be another convincing argument for new settlers from the northwest."

The report of the Committee on Municipal Affairs, presented by Chairman Joseph Scott, related to legislative action taken on the Stanton bill, the proposal to remove the State Capitol from Sacramento to Berkeley, possible State division, purchase of the Normal School site for the City Hall, and other important questions.

FIGURES FOR BUILDING.

The Committee on Finance and Auditing presented its report of receipts and expenditures for the year ended February 31, 1908; and announced that rents collected from occupants of offices in the Chamber of Commerce building amounted to $45,775.47. The sum of $2831.39 was brought forward from the previous year. After deducting disbursements the net earnings on the building were $27,370.10. Notes and interest, bonds retired and interest paid on bonded indebtedness totaled $24,190.44. The balance on hand January 31 was $4439.32.

The following is a statement of assets and liabilities at the close of the fiscal year:

Assets—Inventory, $26,232.03; rents uncollected, $613; dues uncollected, $6429; real estate, $447,500; total, $474,774.03.

Liabilities—Bonded indebtedness (on building) $255,000.

SHOULD ADVERTISE FLEET.

At the subsequent meeting of the directors a communication from the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce was read, which stated that it had chartered a steamer to go to Magdalena Bay to meet Rear-Admiral Evans. In this connection Secretary Wiggins suggested that the local chamber advertise in the adjacent States and Territories the coming of the fleet, and that the railroads should be enlisted in the proposition.

Adjt.-Gen. Lauck appeared before the board to announce that he had secured the convention of the adjutants-general of the militia of the United States for this city, March, 1909.

The following were elected to membership: Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company, J. Eugene Koeberle, Manhattan Furniture Company, Los Angeles Can Company, A. Victor Segno, A. G. Schloesser and William Jones.

MAY INCREASE CAPITAL.

Chicago Telephone Company Given Permission to Add $10,000,000 to Working Funds.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—The State of Illinois has given the Chicago Telephone Company permission to increase the company's capital of $20,000,000 to $30,000,000.

President Arthur Wheeler of the company denied last night that this is an instance of over-capitalization for the purpose of keeping down dividend rates. The main purpose, he said, is to provide for the paying of debts and for building and rebuilding plants and extending the service.

The stock issue will first be offered to the present stockholders and if all is not taken by them it will be offered in the open market.

STRANGE.

POLISH PHILOSOPHER POSSIBLY KIDNAPED.

Detectives from the police department, Deputy Sheriffs and a squad of private detectives are searching Los Angeles city and county for Prof. Wincenty Lutoslawski, the eccentric and world-famed Polish philosopher, who disappeared from his home early yesterday morning, and who is believed by some to have been kidnaped by Russian secret service men.

Within less than an hour after the professor left his home yesterday morning, a message was received by one of his intimate friends. It was delivered by telephone, and was spoken in broken English. The strange informant stated that Prof. Lutoslawski had been killed in a street-car accident, and would never be heard from again. Frantic with grief, this friend made known the mysterious disappearance of the professor, and the police took up the search.

The message was false, because there was no street-car accident yesterday, and neither the Coroner nor the undertakers had any knowledge of the death of such a man.

For weeks, it is asserted, secret emissaries of the Czar have been warning the professor that if he again delivered his lecture on conditions in Russia and the approaching crisis in the affairs of the empire, he would be killed. Prof. Lutoslawski warned L. E. Behymer, his manager, that he might be kidnaped. Behymer paid little attention to the warning, thinking the professor was unduly excited. A mysterious message was telephoned Lutoslawski several days ago, in which he was warned to be careful of the nineteenth day of February, since on that day his life would be in danger.

HIS DISAPPEARANCE.

The professor had been staying at a downtown hotel, but moved to a small house at No. 421 West Avenue 37. Following a habit of many years, he left his home every morning at daylight to take a long walk.

For years he has kept the same hours, retiring early in the evening to arise shortly after midnight. In the dead hours of the night he worked on the books that have given him fame. He speaks twelve languages, and his works have been written in all of them.

Five weeks ago he arrived in Los Angeles, after delivering a course of lectures in Boston and throughout the East. His life was threatened then, it is said, and he made the long trip to the Coast to avoid trouble.

Yesterday morning he stopped work in his study at daylight and started on a long tramp. He did not return at noon, and his wife became alarmed. She received no message from him during the day.

From the time the professor stepped from the door of his home no trace of him has been found. No one saw him start on his pilgrimage in the early dawn. The streets were deserted, and he was alone.

WARNED OF DANGER.

Manager Behymer was greatly alarmed when told that Lutoslawski had disappeared.

"He warned me that he was in danger," said Behymer, "but I told him that the police in this country did not allow such things. Nevertheless he feared that Russian secret-service men would get him, as they had threatened they would. He is probably Russia's most wanted man. His familiarity with the methods pursued by the Russian government, his keen conception of the faults of the empire and his knowledge of the power in the hands of the Russian people when they at last decide to throw off the yoke, have placed him on the black list. He was ordered out of Russia, then out of Austria, and, returning to Russia to deliver his lecture, escaped with his life, after several attempts were made to get him.

"Besides being one of the world's greatest authors, he is a patriot of such zeal that his countrymen in Poland treat him with as great respect as they would show a king. He has a strong, rugged body, and combats the great mental strain to which he is constantly put by following out a line of health suggestions. He is a vegetarian, and eats but one meal a day. That meal has cracked wheat as its chief dish. The professor can go sixteen days without food and still retain his health and strength."

Prof. Lutoslawski dresses in a "slouchy" manner, according to the description furnished the police. His hat is generally rumpled, his clothes baggy, and he wears a soft shirt, with a soft turn-down collar.

CAN'T KEEP OUT OF JAIL.

Two More Socialists Arrested for Holding Street Meetings Without Permit.

Convinced that they were downtrodden by heartless capitalists, Sydney Smith and J. B. Barnett, socialists, became so excited last night that they insisted upon telling their troubles to the entire neighborhood at Fifth and Los Angeles streets. Soon a crowd gathered and a policeman placed the men under arrest for holding street meetings without a permit.

For a time there was considerable excitement. When the officer rang for the patrol wagon, sympathizers of the speakers started for the Police Station and on their arrival the prisoners found a delegation of friends awaiting them.

The latter quickly secured the $200 required to bail the men out, and then all hung around the station telling their troubles to anyone who would listen and trying to keep the police to their way of thinking.

THROWS DISHES AT LADY.

Martin Devine, a painter, of No. 936 South Broadway, did not wisely but too well last night, then went to his boarding house and started to abuse the landlady, Mrs. Dillon. She ordered him from the building and he became abusive. Finding that words had no effect he became active hostilities and began throwing dishes around. One hit the woman in the face, lacerating her left cheek, and a policeman arrested Devine on a charge of battery.

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.

MURRIETA, Feb. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Guenther celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage yesterday. The parlors and dining room of the hotel were handsomely decorated and 125 guests, including a number from Los Angeles and other cities, were present. The honor couple were the recipients of many gifts. At the dinner, which followed the reception, F. A. Hawley of Los Angeles acted as toastmaster. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Guenther led the grand march.
